JUDGE McMillan Elected to the U. S. Senate.

A Lucky Friday.

Our good friend, Chambers of the Glyn-don Gazette, spent last Sunday with us, and left for below on Monday morning of next week.

When the Inebriate Asylum bill was under discussion in the House the other day, our member said the proper place to locate the institution was in his town, 'cause there wasn't a single saloon in his county. That member must be from the shady precincts of Beltrami.

SENATOR BENEDECT has introduced a bill providing for the appointment of a Superintendent of Public Printing; said appointee to be a practical printer, and to receive two thousand dollars a year.

The Legislature is about to authorize the construction of a second State Prison, and almost every town in the State, excepting Brainerd, is clamoring to get the new prison, as a matter of local convenience, we presume.

"Russell of the BRAINERD TRIBUNE, has issued in colors, a very humorous prospectus, soliciting everybody to subscribe to his great family journal. Two dollars a year is the price of the TRIBUNE, and it is well worth the money. Morris has more genuine wit bottled up in him than all the other Minnesota editors put together, and there is not an issue of his TRIBUNE that does not afford genuine mirth, and of a religious nature."

A NEW Catholic diocese has been erected in this State, comprising all that part of Minnesota lying north of the south line of Stearns county, and Abbott Seidenbush, of St. John's College, Stearns county, has been appointed Vicar Apostolic thereof.

HARRY CAMPBELL has his fine new store building about all finished up now—Mr. Lattin, the builder, just putting on the finishing touches. It far exceeds in beauty, extent and convenience, the old quarters he occupied before the "conflagration."

HENRY WARD BEECHER.—The world will be surprised to learn that the good name of Henry Ward Beecher has been assailed by a man named Tilton, who is a neighbor of Mr. Beecher's—his back windows front each other. We cannot consent to pain our readers by naming the character of the accusation, which was chartered at in a New York paper a day or two since.

Or the ninety-two persons who have taken out naturalization papers in this county during the years 1873 and 1874, 23 are from the British American Province, 10 from England, 1 from Scotland, 6 from Ireland, 11 from Norway, 30 from Sweden, 9 from Denmark, 1 from Germany, and 1 from France.

A man and his wife have been found, and the sheriff can have by calling on this office, proving property and paying the tax.

JOHN WELLSWOOD, commonly known as "Lying Jack," was found dead one day last week in his own door yard, by some Indians. He lived out near Metley, on his little farm in the wilderness, and is supposed to have fallen dead with heart disease. He had no family.

Any person finding a ladies' euk with sleeve-buttons, will confer a favor by leaving it at this office, when it will be forwarded to the owner, Mrs. J. T. Burns.

GEORGE LOREN was the name of the hunter who was frozen to death a few miles west of here last week. His companion says he believes he came from a little town on the Jersey side of the Hudson River. The remains were brought to this city and buried at the cemetery.

Currier's Column.

THE "BRANONER." We are pleased to note the activity of the Legislative Railroad Committee in reference to the much needed branches of the St. Paul & Pacific Railroad.

THE GAME-LAW HERO. Although, upon the withdrawal of the best man for the position of United States Senator, Mr. DAVIS, we lost much of the interest we felt in the contest, yet for the sake of political decency—in the cessation of war between the factions—and the harmony of the party, we felt reconciled in a measure.

THE MIDDLE. Obducent to the early and earnest advocacy of the centennial celebration of American Independence by the BRAINERD TRIBUNE, we are greatly gratified to see a general falling into line of the newspapers, the people, and authorities of not only Minnesota, but all the States, particularly in the West.

MISCELLANY.

"UNTIL THE DAY BREAK."

Will it pain me there forever,
Will it leave me empty ever,
This weary, weary gnawing of the old dull pain?

A NIGHT IN THE HAWK'S NEST.

[Written for the Chicago Tribune.]
In 1851 I was engaged on the construction of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railroad (it was then called the Chesapeake & Charleston Railroad), having a subcontract in the building of its grade.

pete with me in a shooting-match. I engaged in this practice because it was the common custom of the people those days, not because I thought it would be a benefit to me. A now felt that the time I spent this way was well spent, and I relied upon my experience as a "shot" to serve me in this dangerous region.

and laid it over the other bed, and within on it. Our revolvers were within reach, and our candle burned upon our barricade of trunks. We dozed lightly. Once in the night I awoke with a start, thinking I heard some one in the room. I listened for a moment, and heard the cat-like tread of the villain in the left hall.

boat, we heard some distance down the river, a fearful howl from a steam whistle. "The Glauca! the Glauca!" cried several of the passengers in a breath. "No other boat has such a whistle. It is the Glauca coming up."

and whether you believe it or not, I picked up twenty-nine barrels of ducks, and it was a good one, for they were solid in the pond that when they rose they carried the dead ones into the air with them, and when they separated, down came the twenty-nine barrels of dead ones. "Oh," says Smith, "I am not surprised at that, at all, for he has a lot of ducks that he begged for it was an awful storm. I remember it well, doctor; I had at that time a corn barn full of corn; on one side of the barn was an open window, and on the other side was a knot-hole, and during that awful storm the wind blew so right through the knot-hole, and the knot-hole being just the size of a cob only, the result was that it shelled every ear, leaving the corn in the barn, and the next morning I found my barn half full of shelled corn, and not a single cob. I had a curiosity to know where the cobs had gone to, I went to the rear of the barn and followed the line of the cobs over five miles a large, first growth pine tree stood in the track, and darn me if the wind hadn't driven them cobs into that ere tree from top to bottom. Oh, doctor, that was an awful storm!" "Yes," sighed the doctor, "awful!"

The Beecher-Tilton War.
(Afternoon proceedings of the Beecher-Tilton Trial, Feb. 10.)
The examination was resumed by Mr. Everts. Witness said: I do not remember any charge being made against me in an interview between Bowen and myself when Oliver Johnson was present, about what occurred at Northfield, Minn. I was there lecturing about six or seven years ago, and never remember any charges ever being made about my conduct while there. I remember when Beecher met me at the house of Moulton, when Moulton was sick; Beecher saluted me with a kiss on the forehead. After that period of estrangement Beecher and I occasionally saluted one another with a kiss, and it was a noticeable event when it happened. I do not know when the name of "the letter of contrition" was given to the letter of Jan. 1, 1871. Beecher always characterized my letter to Dr. Bacon as the letter of apology; I do not remember ever making any description of it except in the Bacon letter, and then I called it "the apology." When a portion of the letter was published in the Bacon document the newspapers generally characterized it as "the letter of contrition."

and, whether you believe it or not, I picked up twenty-nine barrels of ducks, and it was a good one, for they were solid in the pond that when they rose they carried the dead ones into the air with them, and when they separated, down came the twenty-nine barrels of dead ones. ADVERTISING: CHEAP, GOOD: SYSTEMATIZED. All persons who desire to make contracts with newspapers for the insertion of advertisements, should send 25 Cents to Geo. F. Rowell & Co., 41 Park Row, New York, for their PAPER-RATE BOOK (latest revised edition), containing list of over 2000 newspapers and estimates, showing the cost. Advertisements taken for leading papers in many States at a tremendous reduction from publishers' rates. GET THE BOOK.

THE WEEKLY SUN. A large, eight page, independent, honest and fearless newspaper of 66 broad columns, especially designed for the farmer, the mechanic, the merchant and the professional man, and their of our readers. We aim to make the WEEKLY SUN the best family paper in the world. It is full of entertaining and instructive reading of every sort, but prints nothing to offend the most susceptible and delicate taste. Price $1.20 per year, postage prepaid. The cheapest paper published. Try It. Address: Tea Ser, New York City.

A NEW IDEA. 70 Cents sent to THE NEW YORK & ORIENTAL TEA COMPANY will secure by return mail, one pound of excellent Oolong, Young Hyson, English Breakfast, Japan or Mixed Tea such as is usually retailed at $1.20 to $1.50 per pound.

IT IS A FACT NOT GENERALLY KNOWN that by a recent arrangement of the Post Office, small quantities of merchandise are now conveyed at charges considerably less than those of the express companies. The cost on one pound of Tea being 6 cts. only.

Wholesale Prices. REASON WHY you should order your Tea from the New York and Oriental Tea Company. 1st. Because the Company deals only in PURE UNADULTERATED TEA. It is well known that immense quantities of so-called "Tea," adulterated with the leaves of Willow, Hawthorn, and other trees, and even small stones, particles of lead and steel filings, besides coloring matter, are sent over the country and sold at enormous prices as "Tea!"

GENUINE TEA. 2d. Because our command of capital enables us TO IMPORT LARGELY FOR CASH, and thus to sell cheap. We buy all our Teas at the Ports of China and Japan, and thus save many intermediate profits and charges.

GREAT NEED OF THE TIMES. IS PURE TEA AT A LOW PRICE; and as we are determined to SUPPLY THIS NEED, it is in your interest to help us by sending on your orders as once.

See our Price List. Oolong (Black) 40, 60, 80, best 70c. per pound. Mixed (Green and black) 40, 60, 80, best 80c. Japan (Uncolored) 60, 70, 80, best $1.00 per lb. Imperial (Green) 60, 70, 80, best $1.25 " Young Hyson (Green) 60, 70, 80, best $1.00 " Gunpowder (Green) $1.00, best $1.25, English Breakfast (Black) 60, 70, 80, best $1.00 "

P. S. We have a special quality of very fine Oolong and Young Hyson at $1.25 per pound. Any of these qualities delivered free by mail, and safe delivery guaranteed on receipt of price.

PRESCRIPTIONS carefully compounded at all hours, Day and Night. Orders by Mail promptly attended to. Newell & Harrison, WHOLESALE GROCERS, NORTH WASHINGTON AVENUE, (a few doors north of Nicollet House), Minneapolis, - - - Minn.
