They have come!—These beautiful New Goods—Consisting of Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps, and Gent's Furnishing Goods,—at MARSHALL & CAMPBELL'S!

Currier's Column.

Don't Get Excited. Some little excitement has been experienced in this section over the gold news from the Black Hills. More or less excitement, in fact, has been caused all over the country—in some localities assuming the proportions of a stampede, so far as the season of the year would permit.

A Bad Case. As may be remembered by many of our readers, about a year ago a Mr. John Pugsley, a liquor dealer in Duluth, was tried in court on the charge of seducing a young girl named Hattie Russell.

New Hampshire Gone Republican. The first political contest of 1875, occurred in New Hampshire on Tuesday, and resulted in a sweeping victory for the Republicans, who elected their Governor, Cheney—by a big majority, three Congressmen, and filled the Legislature with a big Republican majority.

Another Big Farm. Mr. Clement Smith, a gentleman from Kentucky, who was up here last year and bought a fine tract of land from the N. P. Company out on Maple River, is again in the city.

Literary Entertainment. Our Congregational friends are making preparations to give a grand literary entertainment at their fine hall on Tuesday evening next.

Funded, and Refunded. The Legislature passed an act authorizing Crow Wing County to fund its floating debt, in the sum of sixteen thousand dollars, and it has received the Governor's signature.

On April 5th Africa is to have a total eclipse of the sun, and as the natives know nothing about it, we warrant it will be a high old day with them.

A gentleman of means in New York insisted on smothering Mr. Alfred Russell Wallace, the naturalist and traveler, by sending him postal cards upon which were written charges of theft, etc.

It is natural for people suffering with Constipation, Colic, Bile, or any other disease of the Throat and Lungs, to put off from day to day buying an article that they know has cured their neighbors' friends, or relatives; yet they will go to the drug store, and buy a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera, and Diarrhoea Remedy, and get a cure.

A POET SEEING THE ELEPHANT.

Shelley's First and Last Glass of Grog.

When I was at Leghorn with Shelley I drew him towards the docks saying, 'As we have a spare hour let's see if we can't put a girdle round about the earth in forty minutes...'

rot in all the main members of the Old World, and none of you will do any good till you are docked, refitted, and annexed to the New...

THE ELDER BOOTH'S JOKES.

Upon one occasion in New York, during an engagement of Booth, the tragedy of 'Julius Caesar' was produced, Booth playing Cassius. The representative of Brutus having been dining with some friends...

Brutus, not dreaming of the consequence, was so much amused, he inhaled a sufficient quantity to produce a sneezing, which he found it difficult to overcome.

After entering the stage he saluted the audience with a sneeze, and struggled hard to smother the effects of the snuff, in which he succeeded, until the attempt was visible in the contortions of his face.

So, dragging Shelley with me, I introduced him, and, asking to see the vessel, we crossed the plank from the quay and stood on the deck of the San Spiridione in the midst of a chattering, irascible crew.

"Does this realize your idea of Hellenism, Shelley?" I said. "No, but it does of hell," he replied.

"Come away!" said Shelley, "there is not a drop of the old Hellenic blood here. These are not the kind to rekindle the ancient Greek fire; their fire is extinguished by traffic and superstition. Come away!"

"I do expect, now we have a new copper on, she has a look of the best serpent, she has as slick a run, and her bearings are just where they should be."

"Then I calculate you must go to Baltimore or Boston to get one; there is no one on this side of the water can do the job. We have our freight all ready and are homeward bound. We have a cross before your young friend's beard is ripe for a razor. Come down and take an observation of the state cabin."

"I deduced Shelley into the first a wine-glass of weak grog, the drink was a glass of weak grog, the drink was a glass of weak grog..."

"You must excite the nervous system," said the physician to his patient. "Do, every day of my life, but I do not make me forget my madness," replied the patient.

Dickens, in his 'Life of Grimaldi,' speaks of the devouring melancholy which pursued this celebrated actor whenever he was off the stage, or left to his own resources, and it is well known that Liston, in most of his parts, was a confirmed hypochondriac.

The Central African Slave-Trade. It would seem, from the stories told by Dr. Livingstone, that many of the slaves kidnapped in Central Africa actually die of a broken heart after a few days of captivity.

Many adult captives give way under the heavy burdens they are forced to carry. They faint, or are smothered by the weight of the yoke, or sink under the weight of the yoke, or sink under the weight of the yoke...

White Sir Samuel Baker was traveling along the Upper Nile, during his late expedition for the suppression of the slave trade in Central Africa, he held an interview with one of the Sheiks of the Shir tribe.

"Indeed!" he exclaimed. "I have a son, an only son. He is a nice boy, about so high (showing his length) upon the handle of his spear. I should like you to see my boy; he is very thin now, but if he should remain with you, he would soon get fat. He's really a nice boy, and always hungry. You'll be fond of him; he'll eat from morning till night, and still he'll be hungry. You'll like him amazingly; he'll give you no trouble if you only give him plenty to eat. He'll be hungry again. He's a good boy, indeed; and he's my only son. Give him aid to you for a mulate (native iron spear)."

The result of his sermon on the slave-trade, addressed to an affectionate father, was, to use Sir Samuel's own words, "quite appalling. It was offered his only son in exchange for a spear!"

Senators Logan, Howe, Frelinghuysen, Morrill of Maine, Sargent, Wright and Spencer, were appointed by the Republican caucus Saturday to revise the standing committee of the Senate.

It is believed at Madrid that the campaign against the Carlites will be terminated during the spring. It is asserted that 300 Navarrese troops recently deserted the Carlite army, of whom five were re-captured and shot.

The Olmsted County Horticultural Society recommends for growth in this State the following varieties of apples in their order: Downer, Malinda, Topoply, Hens.

The Farm and Household.

Exchange says: Farm buildings frequently undergo repair at this season of the year. Especially are new roofs laid on barns and out-buildings. It may be worth while to state what is simply proved to be the best method of laying the shingles, says, dipping the bolts into hot white wash is also recommended to be done as the shingles are laid.

The Use of Chloral. The friends of temperance have a new foe to grapple with in the drug chloral, which has recently come into use as a sedative agent. It is now sold by a sensitive agent in London; and Baron Liebig makes a strong case against its use.

Household Hints. It is a good rule that little children, until their seventh year, should always be allowed to sleep out, and not be disturbed until they awake of themselves naturally.

Enemas in Children. When a child's ear becomes painful, as it so often does, everything should be done to soothe it, and all strong, irritating applications should be avoided.

Practical Suggestions. You can save feed and trouble by getting rid of your poorest stock now. This is particularly true of sheep. Get rid of the miserable, corny ones that you know will not winter over, or if they do will be worth nothing in the head and sell the pelts that to feed them all the winter for nothing.

WADENA AFFAIRS.

Our winter term of school closed on Friday last. Our teacher, Miss Ella Randall, has, by her untiring energy and patient labors, succeeded in making this our first term of school in our new school house, one in every way successful. Miss Randall is surely entitled to the warmest thanks of our people for her untiring efforts, and we know that all of her scholars will ever remember her in great kindness.

Town election on Tuesday passed off very quietly; candidates not anxious enough even to set up the cigars. The town voted not to allow cattle to run at large, which we consider a good thing, but still some are not happy.

Mr. Ellsworth had a black ox, but he laid down the other day and shuffled off his mortal coil; we did not learn the exact particulars, but presume it was for the want of—of breath.

There was a wedding at the Wadena Hotel on the 6th inst. He was Mr. Alonzo C. Gould; she was Miss Fannie J. Ogden. The gordian knot was tied by S. S. Gardner, Esq., Justice of the Peace, assisted by Squire Potter and C. J. Stuart. The parties reside in Todd county, and left for home apparently happy, and undoubtedly singing the good old hymn—

"This is the way we long have sought, And mourned because they found it not. The bill to set off a portion of Otter Tail county and form a new county to be called Perham, wasn't reached by the Senate. Say, Burke, "wasn't reached," is best.

Judge Fuller, County Treasurer, has gone to Monticello to be absent for two weeks or more. We fellows what 'aint paid our taxes, kinder breathe easy for a while—nevertheless if any one is over-anxious to pay his taxes, Deputy Treasurer Stuart will take his stamps, and give him an iron-clad receipt therefor.

Wadena is to have a shoemaker, all the way from Pennsylvania; and soon upon the morning air you will hear this gentle refrain:

Blow, blow ye gentle breezes All through the leaves and tresses; Sing, sing ye heavenly muses, And I will mend your boots and shoeses. Old St. Peter don't seem to tend gate very sharply; two more stars have tumbled down and out. One landed at the home of Mr. Adams, and Tom Parrott says it is a little girl over his way—next.

Our English friends here are very much pleased at the manner in which you set up the facts for "E. A." Had the valve wide open, didn't you, M. C. I will endeavor to give you a little account next week of the Furness Colony, (English), who are taking up their abode in our county.

Wadena is happy; $222.19 has been appropriated by the State to reimburse our county for expenses incurred during our "Indian war" last winter—That's one of Listoc's "woodchucks."

C. J. Stuart, our gentlemanly Station Agent, lightning slinger and express agent, has just received a very nice sporting gun. It is a little beauty; we don't know any thing about "shootin' irons," but this is a double-decker, humps up in the middle to load, and shoots to kill. He wants to come down and hunt seams with the TRIBUNE man. [All right; we are good on swans, and things.—TRIS. MAN.]

THE WEEKLY SUN. A large, eight-column, independent newspaper, of 66 years' continuous publication for the farmer, the merchant, the professional man, and their wives and children. We aim to make the WEEKLY SUN the best family paper in the world. It is full of interesting and instructive reading of every sort, but nothing to offend the most scrupulous and delicate taste. WHOLESALE TEA. REASON WHY you should order your Tea from the New York and Oriental Tea Company. 1st. Because the Company deals only in PURE UNADULTERATED TEA. It is well known that immense quantities of so-called "Tea," adulterated with the leaves of Willow, Hawthorn, and other trees, and even small stones, particles of lead and steel filings, besides coloring matter, are sent over the country and sold at enormous prices as "Tea!" The buyers of the New York and Oriental Tea Company, can, by a very process not generally known, detect the presence of adulteration in all its forms; and the Company will continue to maintain the high character it has hitherto sustained, by selling none but GENUINE TEA.

2d. Because our command of capital enables us to IMPORT LARGELY FOR CASH, and thus to sell cheap. We buy all our Tea at the Ports of China and Japan, and thus save many intermediate profits and charges. 3d. Because we have inaugurated a NEW SYSTEM of BUSINESS, originated a New Idea. We save the profits of the middlemen and give them to our Customers, by sending direct to any address, the finest qualities of Tea at Wholesale Prices. 4th. Because as the GREAT NEED OF THE TIMES is PURE TEA AT A LOW PRICE; and as we are determined to SUPPLY THIS NEED, it is to your interest to help us by sending on orders at once.

See our Price List: Oolong (Black) 40, 50, 60, best 70c. per pound. Mixed (Green and Black) 40, 50, 60, 70, best 80c. Japan (Unbleached) 60, 70, 80, best $1.00 per lb. Imperial (Green) 60, 70, 80, $1.00, $1.25. Young Hyson (Green) 60, 70, 80, best $1.00. Gunpowder (Green) $1.00, best $1.25. English Breakfast (Black) 60, 70, 80, best $1.00.

F. S. We have a special quality of very fine Oolong and Young Hyson at $1.25 per pound. Any of these qualities delivered free by mail, and safe delivery guaranteed on receipt of price. PLEASE NOTE.—We deal in nothing that is UNBROKEN, IMPURED, DAMAGED, OR ADULTERATED IN ANY MANNER, even in the lowest qualities in the above list, are perfect in their degree, clean, pure, and unimpaired in every particular. WE WANT ACTIVE AND RELIABLE AGENTS EVERYWHERE, to whom special inducements are offered. The business is honorable and respectable. Young and old, rich and poor, male and female, can get up clubs and set as Agents. Send for circular and commence at once. New York and Oriental Tea Company, 30 Vesey Street, N. Y.
