

Published Every Saturday at RAINIER, MINNESOTA. M. C. MURRELL, Editor.

THE NEWS.

Crimes and Characters. An unsuccessful attempt was made to assassinate a member of the Ku Klux Klan... The alleged murderer of Mrs. Bingham... Reports from Tacoma, Wyoming Territory, announce the wrecking of the steamer Ruby...

bar them from receiving their proportion of the public school fund. The case of Col. Wm. S. King... The nomination of Don Farver to succeed Durrell, as United States District Judge for Louisiana was not confirmed.

total grant in Minnesota, in Dakota there will be, he said, no deficiency. The Government has been asked to pay the Company $28,900.73... The cost of procuring the certified lists of lands from the local United States land offices, preparatory to applying for patents, is 1 cent per acre.

The vital principle of both is the same. The evils of the latter are of sufficient magnitude to invite the most serious consideration. We all perceive in such matters as are purely professional, such as drafting petitions making arguments before committees, etc., an agreement is valid.

(New York Sun, March 15.) Besse's Turn-of-Mind. When Mrs. Besse and her daughter, Mrs. Lizzie Weston, were in the city on their way to the coast...

BAKING AND SCRAPPING. It is understood that Col. Fred Grant and wife will immediately go from Washington to Chicago... The Salt Lake people were surprised but not mollified by the removal of Chief Justice McLean of that territory.

MINNESOTA NEWS ITEMS. Howland is to have another church. A women's Odd Fellows was organized at Rock last week... The town of Worthington, Nobles county, levied no tax this year, having $500 in the Treasury.

Meeting of the Bondholders of the Northern Pacific R. R. Scheme. (From the N. Y. Tribune, 19.) The meeting of the bondholders of the Northern Pacific Railroad was held yesterday afternoon in the Board room of the company's office, No. 23 Fifth avenue.

MISCELLANY.

Training Time.

By ELLA W. COOKE.
Supper is over,
Now for the fun,
This is the season
Children must run.

Little he minds it,
Thought he would cry,
Changed it to laughter
As Lynn galloped by.

A CONFEDERATE FALSTAFF.

The Story Told by a Candidate for a Governatorial Nomination to an Anti-slavery Voter.

[From the Hartford (Ky.) Herald.]
You see, I was getting rusty, and wanted sharp work. I intercepted a dispatch from Gen. Burbridge to Gen. Gil-

"The boys were just as wild for the fight as I was.

"Well, the morning of the 10th of October, 1864, which my own good sword has cut from the calendar of ordinary

"But you see, there must be systematic work on such occasions, and I had a

"When I saw that the dashed Yankee had made all of his dispositions, I turned

"That, sir, is the exact truth about the battle of Saltville. It was the greatest

"Visitor: 'Well, Miss Folly, won't you give me a kiss?' Polly: 'No; mamma

"Newspapers are such inconvenient things to handle, that not until the full

DR. KENEALY'S REGENT ELECTION.

A Triumph of People Who Oppose
Household Suffrage—Popular
Control in Favor of the Tichborne Claimant—Dr. Kenealy's Quarrelsome Characters.

[Correspondence of the N. Y. Tribune.]
LONDON, Feb. 18.—People who don't like Household Suffrage and the Ballot

Dr. Kenealy did not stand, as it is perhaps needless to state, as either Liberal or Tory. He may be called the Arthur

"The August (Mo.) Journal of Friday 10th inst., tells this marvelous tale:

One of Our Dashing Widows Abroad.
[Dredon Cor. (March 18) Chicago Times.]
Saxony having a king and queen has

A DAY WIDOW FROM MINNESOTA.
Mrs. T., who has been creating quite a sensation here by her pretty youth,

I have met all day long and said exactly the same thing. I don't know when an election has made such a sensation. It is

KENEALY IN THE HOUSE.
[Correspondence New York.]
LONDON, Feb. 20.—When Dr. Kenealy entered the lobby, brandishing his um-

It was sharp enough to see tears falling down her wrinkled cheeks, and to know

At his request the neighbors were all called in, who crowded the house for

THE ONLY ONE PRICE CLOTHING HOUSE IN THE CITY.
See St. Paul papers for special bargain, which we are offering daily.

FOR SALE
870 Bushels Timothy Seed,
750 Barrels Michigan Clover,
600 Barrels Apples,
200 Bushels Potatoes,
200 Bushels Butter.

King Albert, the husband of this royal princess, is shown by the naked eye daily

THE LOST GRAVE.
[From the Detroit Free Press.]
If you have ever passed the old deserted

When a medicine will promptly cure such terrible eating sores and free the blood of

When a medicine will promptly cure such
terrible eating sores and free the blood of

WOMAN TO THE RESCUE."
Sold by agents for $1.25. It gives in full a

UNLAWFUL TO SELL OR DRINK Intoxicating Liquors without a license, and

THE LIBERTY BLADE,
P. R. L.
ST. PAUL, MINN.

HARDENBERGH, LEATHER AND Shoe Findings
78 East Third Street,

BOSTON
One Price
CLOTHING HOUSE,
48 East Third Street,
ST. PAUL, MINNESOTA

W. A. VAN DYKE & CO., Commission Merchants,
No. 48 St. Paul Street, St. Paul, Minn.

The machine is strong, well made, and does good work. G. W. CARPENTER.

THE BEST GRAIN CUTTING MACHINE IN THE ORLD.
MANUFACTURED BY
SAINT PAUL HARVESTER WORKS,
[mar. 9-75.]
Saint Paul, Minnesota.

FARM MACHINERY.
Automatic Grain
BINDER
Walter A. Wood Harvester
S. D. Locke's Self-Binder.

TESTIMONIALS.
A few extracts from reports and letters are given:

BRUSHES
The Physicians of all kinds of skin diseases
should use these brushes.

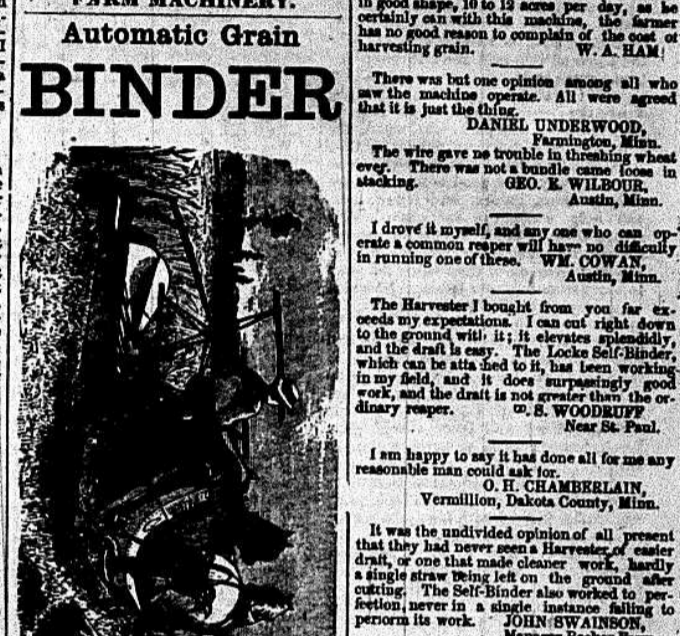

FURNITURE!
J. H. POMEROY has in stock and for sale constantly on hand an elegant stock of

Business College
And Telegraphic Institute. All Departments of a Business Education Fully Represented.

BRUSHES
The Physicians of
all kinds of skin diseases
should use these brushes.

THE BEST GRAIN CUTTING MACHINE IN THE ORLD.
MANUFACTURED BY
SAINT PAUL HARVESTER WORKS,
[mar. 9-75.]
Saint Paul, Minnesota.

FARM MACHINERY.
Automatic Grain
BINDER
Walter A. Wood Harvester
S. D. Locke's Self-Binder.

TESTIMONIALS.
A few extracts from reports and letters are
given:

BRUSHES
The Physicians of
all kinds of skin diseases
should use these brushes.

FURNITURE!
J. H. POMEROY has in stock and for sale constantly on hand an elegant stock of

BRUSHES
The Physicians of
all kinds of skin diseases
should use these brushes.

