POETRY

MUD PIE.

Under the apple trees, spreading and thick,
Happy with only a pan and a stick.
On the soft grass in the shadow that lies,
One little Fanny is making mud pies.

MISCELLANY.

THE GREAT PUMPKIN FRESHET.

"The worst freshet that ever took place
Along this old river in the dead of winter
It is 1833," said Joe Leggett, of Port Jervis, some days ago, when he was discussing the ice-berg at that point.

I kept up and dog for a half mile, and then I came down to a walk, straddling outward a man must do when he has half-don't feel long.

PREPARATORY BAPTISM.

He is an indolent, careless man, living in a small cabin, down the river, and his wife is a conscientious, God-fearing woman, but very poor.

AN INTERESTING EPISODE.

We published yesterday an extract from an address by Bishop Bowman, of the M. E. church, in which he described the remarkable recovery of Bishop Simp-

result of an internal hemorrhage, in the other it might have arisen from the observation of a change in the patient's condition.
