T. R.—Your article on "Municipal Affairs" is well taken, but the subject too glibly and stale.

Notes from Aikin, from "Aquatic" were received last week too late for publication, and are stale this week.

Many items of importance unavoidably crowded out this week by our array of official matter. Look out next week.

POETRY.

THE POOR MAN'S SABBATH DAY.

BY GERALD MASSEY.

The merry birds are singing,
And from the fragrant air
The sprits of a thousand flowers
Are sweetly up to God;

MISCELLANY.

A GLIMPSE AT ROYALTY.

There is a general movement among the loungers in the Park, and an unostentatious carriage with servants in red livery goes slowly by.

STELLA'S FALSEHOOD.
