OUR desire is to please, and if close attention to business, fresh goods and low prices will do it, we know we shall succeed in our selves, while we proceed to Moorhead, where we met Bro. Chambers of the Fargo Times, who had run over to get of shake hands round and escort the party into quarters at the palatial Headquarters, where we very soon our train pulled out. Before we had fair left our seats, we were reminded quite forcibly of the fact that the Fargotes had prepared for the arrival of our party in truly military style by a report that sounded like an earthquake, filled our limited horizon with stars, and raised our anatomical pomposity right clear to our feet, more or less, mashing our hats over our eyes against the top of the car and landing us astride the back of two seats. We got down quite gracefully, (I) doing some heavy thinking, straightened and smoothed that hat, gathered up our scattered baggage and prepared to emerge explaining things to our traveling companions generally, and this party in particular, and what an honor it was to be an editor's wife and be saluted, and how we knew all about this business, was used to it, been on the salute lots of times prior to this initiation, and we were proud to be called "salute" and dignified like, and had just succeeded in emerging when "bang go," and we landed off that car in the midst of a crowd by means of a sort of aerial flight which gave us at least some notoriety, causing people to stare at our hats, and we were had probably escaped and were getting away there from St. Peter when we were recaptured. One little urchin calling out "don't be afraid, old hoss, 'twont bite." We gathered up our "equilibrium" which lay somewhere adjacent, sadly our dignity, that had become temporarily shod up in the jump, and strode into the hotel.

many smart men in the district permit of second terms—you see, the woods are full of senators and things. It is likely that the lower counties will claim a good deal of this year, as they usually do; but it is also probable that they won't get everything, because politics is considered valuable up this way, and hence, being valuable it is business and business is business. Crow Wing must have a ham this year, or there will be a row in the Dutch house, as I am informed by those who are in the writing. But, we shall all have to "wait and watch" for the grand show. Bro. H. Bly, Esq., of this city, would make it his business, if he would accept of it, and if the district convention will concede the senator to Crow Wing, this time, the lower portion of the district would be entitled to the representative for the next two years, and the next senator after the coming term.
State politics creates but little comment here. The republican ticket, as it now stands, will get a good, wholesome majority in the Northern Pacific country. But, when I come to glance back over this "scrawl," I find I have already drawn this letter out too long, and I will abruptly to a close; and if you want any more of these things from me, why, just say so. Very truly yours,
ROBERT.

H. A. CAMPBELL.
Has gone below to purchase a large stock of New Goods. And our citizens are respectfully requested to await his return. Before making purchases in his line, as he will bring a complete assortment of Hats and Caps, Boots and Shoes, Ladies' and Gent's Furnishing Goods and Clothing. In the very latest styles and at bed-rock prices. Don't fail to go and see them when they come at MARSHALL & CAMPBELL'S.

Head and Fender.
We enclose this week to those in arrears statements of their accounts with us. We do this because we are terribly hard up, and believe if our patrons knew our position exactly they would pay if they could. These bills doubtless seem small to each of you, but taken in the aggregate you would be surprised to see what they amount to. We are owing these amounts to our creditors, and while you hold them from us we are obliged to disappoint them. So just put these little bills in your pocket and avail yourselves of the earliest opportunity to make your hearts glad, and enable us to surprise our creditors, and they and we will rise up and call you blessed—a job bot.
We dislike to dun people, but we do not call this dunning, it is just a little friendly explanation on our part, and hope it will be so taken by our readers and patrons. We are owing these amounts to our creditors, and while you hold them from us we are obliged to disappoint them. So just put these little bills in your pocket and avail yourselves of the earliest opportunity to make your hearts glad, and enable us to surprise our creditors, and they and we will rise up and call you blessed—a job bot.
If mistakes occur in these bills it is not our fault, but simply a mistake that will be corrected.

Personals.
S. V. R. Sherwood and H. G. Coykendall were out hunting chickens Wednesday, and got one.
Rev. F. R. Millsbaugh, rector, returned this week from his visit to Kansas, and will occupy the pulpit at St. Paul's Church, Wednesday, and devoted one day to recruiting and "seeing the sights" in our evergreen city. He reports a hard trip between Winnipeg and Fargo, and to cap the climax the omnibus which carried him from Glynndon to the latter place, a distance of twelve miles, was lost on the prairie, and he was out the entire night, reaching Fargo at 3 o'clock in the morning. The senator bears a strong resemblance to our young governor, and, like him, is quite socially inclined.
C. C. Knox the gentlemanly Auditor of Aitkin Co. came to Brainerd yesterday to peep into Lucas' corn-race obscure. He peeped and returned home the same day.
Rev. P. W. Hows, resident missionary at Leech Lake, and daughter, came down yesterday and went to Minneapolis to attend the M. E. Church conference.
Rev. H. J. Crisp departed yesterday to attend the State Conference.
E. H. Bly returned from St. Paul this week which has been for some time learning new jokes.
D. O. Preston returns from St. Paul Thursday where he has been spending a few days taking in the amusements of some other sort.
Rev. J. Caldwell will preach at the Congregational church tomorrow at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7:30 P. M.
