

EVERY SATURDAY MORNING, W. W. HARTLEY, Editor and Prop.

BRainerd

TRIBUNE

VOL. IV.—NO. 42.

BRainerd, MINNESOTA, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 27, 1875.

WHOLE NO. 198

RATES OF ADVERTISING.

Table with columns for 1 year, 6 months, 3 months, 1 month, and 1 week. Includes rates for 1 square, 2 squares, 1 column, 1/2 column, and 1 column.

Church Directory. EPISCOPAL CHURCH—Rev. FRANK R. MILLER, Rector. Services every Sunday at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.

METHODIST CHURCH—Rev. A. A. SERRIN, Pastor. Services each alternate Sabbath at 11 a. m. and 7 p. m.

CATHOLIC CHURCH—Rev. FATHER Egan. Mass at 8 a. m., second Mass at 10 1/2 a. m., and 7 p. m.

WILDEY LODGE. No. 27, meets every Wednesday evening at 8 p. m.

MASONIC. AURORA LODGE, No. 100, A. F. & A. M., Brainerd.

BRainerd Hook & Ladder Co. Holds regular meetings on the first Monday of every month.

Jewelry, Silver Ware, WATCHES, CLOCKS, SPECTACLES.

Headquarters Hotel, BRainerd, MINN. E. W. VEED, Proprietor.

MEAT MARKET, COR. SIXTH AND LAUREL STS.

J. L. STARCHER, Dealer in GROCERIES, WINES, LIQUORS and CIGARS.

C. B. SLEEPER, Attorney at Law, BRainerd, MINN.

Physician and Surgeon, DR. J. C. ROSSER, Office at Headquarters Hotel.

A. A. WHITE, DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF Building Material.

W. H. LELAND, PROPRIETOR OF THE Leland House, BRainerd, MINN.

THE LARGEST BARN NORTH OF MINNEAPOLIS.

E. H. DAVIE, GENERAL DEALER IN HARDWARE, STOVES, TINWARE, TOOLS, AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENTS.

NEWELL & HARRISON, WHOLESALE GROCERS, North Washington Avenue, MINNEAPOLIS, MINN.

J. C. OSWALD, Wholesale Dealer in Wines, Liquors, and Cigars.

BRainerd and Little Falls Stage Line, LEAVES the Leland House, Brainerd, at 6 o'clock a. m.

WADENA & PARKER'S PRAIRIE STAGE LINE, LEAVES Wadena every Monday and Thursday.

P. A. GATCHELL, LAWYER, Wadena, Wadena Co., Minn.

J. L. STARCHER, Dealer in GROCERIES, WINES, LIQUORS and CIGARS.

C. B. SLEEPER, Attorney at Law, BRainerd, MINN.

Physician and Surgeon, DR. J. C. ROSSER, Office at Headquarters Hotel.

A. A. WHITE, DEALER IN ALL KINDS OF Building Material.

EBER H. BLY, DEALER IN GROCERIES, DRY GOODS, Lumbermen's Supplies.

LAMONT & WILSON, GENERAL DEALERS IN Family Groceries, PRODUCE, PROVISIONS, CONFECTIONS, WINES, LIQUORS and CIGARS.

BRainerd Drug Store, COR. FIFTH AND FRONT STS., N. McFADDEN, Proprietor.

F. X. GOULET, County Auditor and CITY RECORDER.

W. W. HARTLEY, Real Estate Ag't, NOTARY PUBLIC, and CLERK OF THE DISTRICT COURT.

C. MEYER & CO., Merchant Tailor, 115 EAST SEVENTH STREET, SAINT PAUL, MINNESOTA.

THANKSGIVING. Another annual Thanksgiving has come and gone with little if any variation in the usual programme of the day.

Northern Pacific Railroad. Rapid progress is making, says The Philadelphia World, in the adjustment of Northern Pacific affairs under the plan recently adopted.

An Unwarranted Removal to Make Room for Another Michigan. Mr. H. J. King of Hurdale Michigan arrived in the city Wednesday evening en route for Leech Lake as Indian Agent.

WHITE EARTH AGENCY. Report Secretary Whittlesey on the Petitions of Catholic Indians. E. Whittlesey, Esq., Assistant Secretary of the Indian Commission, to whom was referred a petition of the Catholic Indians of White Earth, to have a Roman Catholic Agent appointed in place of Major Stowe.

What Grant Says About the Third Term. A few months ago, the Rev. Dr. Fowler, president of the Northwestern University near Chicago, while in Grant's tent at Fair Point, endeavored to approach the true presidential inwardness by asserting that no man would ever be elected to a third term as chief magistrate of the United States.

What Makes Frank Doggett Wear Poor Clothes. One was shabby in appearance and wore an ancient dilapidated straw hat. The other wore ready-made store clothes, and very much the worse for wear, and dirty to behold.

As will be seen by reference to the table in another column of the returns of the late State election Lafayette Emmett, the self-nominated candidate for Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, received the smallest vote of any man on the Democratic ticket.

Miss H. L. Hoop, who was advertised to lecture here on temperance on Sunday the 31st ult., organized a Good Templars Lodge at Little Falls on the preceding Friday, and returned Saturday to Minneapolis, and has so far neglected to explain why she disappointed our citizens.—[Brainerd Tribune.]

Complaints similar to the above have become quite frequent of late. Young ladies should be very careful in the matter of engagements. Some time one might miss an engagement which would always leave her a Miss.—[St. Cloud Journal.]

For a nice assortment of Ladies' and Gent's Furnishing Goods, go to H. A. CAMPBELL'S.

P. P. WALL, of the Preston Republican, is getting a new job-office in Chicago. P. P. has struck a fat thing at Preston.

According to recent figures, the black race is increasing faster than the white race at the South. The census of Louisiana shows an increase of 24 per cent. in the colored and twelve per cent. in the white population. In South Carolina the freedmen are multiplying in much higher ratio than the whites.

BRIDGES, lumbermen and others who want a superior quality of Buckskin Moccasins, will do well to call at H. A. CAMPBELL'S.

A Mail and Express Car Burned. On Tuesday night last, at about 11:15 p. m., the mail and express car bound west and lying at the depot here was burned, together with a large Canadian mail and some U. S. paper mail.

The Bismarck townsie case was decided in favor of the townsie Nov. 13th. There is much rejoicing in Bismarck over the news, as it gives the citizens their lots for a nominal consideration.

For Bottom Prices on all Goods, go to H. A. CAMPBELL'S.

Northern Pacific Railroad people appear to be highly pleased at the appointment of Mr. H. A. Towne, as superintendent of their great road. One of them tells us that he's the right man in the right place.—[Pioneer-Press.]

The Brainerd Tribune will issue tri-weekly during the winter.—[Pioneer-Press.]

Which is "no such a thing," and is about as straight as the P.-P. generally gets things. It would probably have read, Bismarck Tribune if the editor of the P.-P. knew how to read.

I HAVE a full line of extra heavy Buckskin Moccasins. Near the bridge. J. H. HALLERT.

Notwithstanding the assertions of Messrs. DURANT & Co., just arrived from "Fort Garry," that their fashionable, celebrated, artificial, conglomerated, and equivocally tenacious style "was very much needed at Brainerd" (!!!!). I am still ready to shave you or rent your hair about as sleek as any barber without any high-toned, jaw-breaking about it, and at reasonable rates. Thanking my customers for their past patronage, I will still be found ready to serve you, as I have done, on Front street, opposite McFadden's Drug Store. WEAR THEY USE CLEAN TOWELS AND GIVE A CLEAN SHAVE. HENRY DRESSEN, Barber and Hairdresser.

Rev. O. C. BALTER will preach at the Congregational church to-morrow.

Northern Pacific Bonds for sale. L. P. WHITE.

SELL THEY TUBER. M. E. BRANCH'S "Deep Sea" Oysters have been still another fall in price. Fresh and cheap is Ed's rule now.

Wm. Schwartz has just received a full stock of Ladies', Misses, and Children's Shoes. Men's Boot, and an assortment of rubber and Arctic over shoes, for sale cheap.

Dr. J. C. McCANLARD, Dentist, has gone west, and will return to Brainerd on Saturday the 27th inst., to remain two or three days only. Rooms at the Leland House.

Don't Forget the Oyster Supper at Bly's Hall on Thursday evening, to be given by the Ladies' Mite Society. Some excellent theatricals are in rehearsal for the occasion by some of Brainerd's best performers.

Rev. R. WAINWRIGHT, of Fargo, D. T., will occupy the pulpit of the Episcopal church, in this city, to-morrow (Sunday), morning and evening, in the absence of Rev. F. E. Millsaugh, the Rector, who will spend the Sabbath at Duluth.

Messrs. HEATH, HARKLEY & Co. are erecting a Broom Factory on Front street, in the rear of Harkley's tailor shop, and expect to have it in operation in a few days. We wish the enterprise success.

READER, STOP AND THINK.—We suppose the most of our readers buy and use D. B. DeLand & Co.'s Best Chemical Salutaris; but if there are any of you who do not, just stop and think; if you buy the best Chemical Salutaris you get the Best Salutaris made.

EDWARD WHITE & Son have opened a Carpenter and Cabinet Shop on Front street, in the building formerly occupied by Morton's club room, where they are prepared to do all kinds of work in their line in first class shape, on the shortest notice, and at low rates. Give them a call.

Miss MATTIE P. SQUIER, proprietor of the News Depot of this city, left for St. Paul this a. m. to purchase a full stock of Christmas and winter goods. She will bring something to suit every one, and every one should call upon her return and be suited. Miss Agnes Campbell is in charge in her absence.

A surprise party from this city went out to H. T. Moore's, about twelve miles west, on Thursday evening, and enjoyed a huge time; every one was highly pleased, and apparently too much can't be said by those who were in attendance in praise of the hospitality they received at the hands of their host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Moore.

In the case of Charles Ogden vs. The City of Brainerd, the twenty days stay of proceedings granted in which to prepare a motion for a new trial has expired without such motion being made, and judgment has been entered in favor of plaintiff for the total sum of $542.03, including costs, and a tax of two mills levied by the city council to pay the judgment.

A little misunderstanding arose the other evening between some of the boys, and they very foolishly undertook what has never yet been accomplished, to pound one idea out and another in to each other's heads. A little pool thought in such cases, boys, is an excellent remedy for hot blood, and makes one feel so much better afterwards. We bet a big apple all hands feel ashamed and disgusted over the whole proceeding.—"Honor bright" boys.

Personal. N. McFADDEN went to St. Paul Thursday for new goods. J. M. THORNTON arrived in Brainerd on Thursday's train from the east.

ESSA H. BLAIR, Brainerd's merchant prince, returned from Minneapolis Thursday evening. F. X. GOULET, Esq., M. P. is visiting friends in Motion county this week, and posting himself on the wants of the people next winter. Frank will make an active legislator.

M. C. REWELL has been traveling this week. He went to St. Paul on the cars with a pack, and bought some new type for his metropolitan job-office and see the elephants. We have heard from there since he returned, and he is consequently on good terms with his editor.

A. F. McKEAY returned Thursday from St. Paul, where he has been for several days laying wire. He takes exception to our statement last week that the mayor was incarcerated without privilege of bail. He says he gave him an opportunity to get bail, but he failed to get any, which is all the same to us.

Capt. H. D. PERROTT stands up. You are required to appear in St. Paul on Dec. 13, 1875, before the U. S. Circuit Court and answer to your name as a juror of said court.

POETRY.

WOMAN'S WORK. Darning little stockings...

Woman's work. Sewing on the buttons, Overstitching buttons...

Woman's work. Burying out of sight her own unloving heart...

Woman's work. Leading little children, And blessing manhood's years...

Woman's work. Letting fall her own tears, Where only God can see...

Woman's work. At last cometh alliance— A day of deep repose...

Woman's work. The hands softly folded, The kindly pulses still...

Woman's work. A grave in the valley, Tears, bitter souls, regrets...

MISCELLANY.

KRISTINE AT THE FRESHET. SARAH J. FRICHARD.

Kristine's foot slipped and she fell. She kept on slipping...

Kristine was on the side of a very low mountain or a very high hill...

Over against the place where she stood arose another hill...

Once in the young, she took her father's dinner to the place where he was felling trees...

Then Kristine went on faster than she had been...

The second time she went more cautiously, clinging to ivy, bush, and tree...

Then Kristine went on faster than she had been...

"This is like the things I see when I shut my eyes...

Kristine went around the group cut in ice—or, rather, dropped in ice—many times...

In summer, tiny streams of water ran from the mossy heights above...

The sun was shining. The figures stood between the young girl in the cave...

Her mother the instant she heard the cry ran to the door.

his pocket," and Kristine laughed softly to herself in the cave at the fancy...

The young worshiper was startled by a wild shriek...

No. 21 was a long, very long line of freight-cars, laden with tons and tons of coal from the mines...

The passing trains on that railroad were the sole links that in winter bound this wood-cutter's child to the great world...

Kristine had one friend. He was the stonemason-driver of No. 27...

It was a long time since the engineer had left anything on the snow...

It was a long time since the engineer had left anything on the snow...

It was a long time since the engineer had left anything on the snow...

It was a long time since the engineer had left anything on the snow...

It was a long time since the engineer had left anything on the snow...

It was a long time since the engineer had left anything on the snow...

It was a long time since the engineer had left anything on the snow...

It was a long time since the engineer had left anything on the snow...

It was a long time since the engineer had left anything on the snow...

It was a long time since the engineer had left anything on the snow...

It was a long time since the engineer had left anything on the snow...

It was a long time since the engineer had left anything on the snow...

It was a long time since the engineer had left anything on the snow...

It was a long time since the engineer had left anything on the snow...

It was a long time since the engineer had left anything on the snow...

It was a long time since the engineer had left anything on the snow...

It was a long time since the engineer had left anything on the snow...

"Come up, Mother! Fetch the baby out and come up! The awful noise...

Kristine reached a rock perhaps thirty feet above the house...

"Mother!" cried Kristine, jumping to her feet, "didn't you hear it? The train's here!"

"Before her mother could restrain the girl, the baby was on the rock...

"My child! My poor child!" cried Mrs. Muller...

The engineer saw the child. He was on the verge of danger...

"Mother, what shall we do?" asked Kristine...

"It'll be night some time," said Kristine...

"Don't get lost," said the mother...

Kristine passed by the place where the statue was hidden...

At four in the afternoon they came in sight of a highway...

"Heigho!" he cried, when he had met them and listened to the story...

"Then we're to begin the world again, are we?"

"Get in, get in all of you, and come home with me for to-night..."

Of course, it was—who else could it be but John Muller...

The street lies in the new districts of Philadelphia...

The second story of one of these houses is occupied by two women...

Madame Constantia de Gonzalez has her apartment in the rear...

It rained all night. In the morning it was raining harder than ever...

Looking westward, far away, where the stry bridge spanned the river...

Kristine was swift of foot and the ice-gorge was nearly two miles away...

Her mother the instant she heard the cry ran to the door.

book at that time, which was not, however, for some reason, published...

Now Mrs. Muller stood spell-bound. Kristine caught the baby, pillows and all...

The train was very near. The child, forgetting all things but the danger to it...

The engine saw the child. He was on the verge of danger...

"Mother, what shall we do?" asked Kristine...

"It'll be night some time," said Kristine...

"Don't get lost," said the mother...

Kristine passed by the place where the statue was hidden...

At four in the afternoon they came in sight of a highway...

"Heigho!" he cried, when he had met them and listened to the story...

"Then we're to begin the world again, are we?"

"Get in, get in all of you, and come home with me for to-night..."

Of course, it was—who else could it be but John Muller...

The street lies in the new districts of Philadelphia...

The second story of one of these houses is occupied by two women...

Madame Constantia de Gonzalez has her apartment in the rear...

It rained all night. In the morning it was raining harder than ever...

Looking westward, far away, where the stry bridge spanned the river...

Kristine was swift of foot and the ice-gorge was nearly two miles away...

Her mother the instant she heard the cry ran to the door.

Her mother the instant she heard the cry ran to the door.

Her mother the instant she heard the cry ran to the door.

It was because he had more of the "truth" than others that he could see...

Now Mrs. Muller stood spell-bound. Kristine caught the baby, pillows and all...

The train was very near. The child, forgetting all things but the danger to it...

The engine saw the child. He was on the verge of danger...

"Mother, what shall we do?" asked Kristine...

"It'll be night some time," said Kristine...

"Don't get lost," said the mother...

Kristine passed by the place where the statue was hidden...

At four in the afternoon they came in sight of a highway...

"Heigho!" he cried, when he had met them and listened to the story...

"Then we're to begin the world again, are we?"

"Get in, get in all of you, and come home with me for to-night..."

Of course, it was—who else could it be but John Muller...

The street lies in the new districts of Philadelphia...

The second story of one of these houses is occupied by two women...

Madame Constantia de Gonzalez has her apartment in the rear...

It rained all night. In the morning it was raining harder than ever...

Looking westward, far away, where the stry bridge spanned the river...

Kristine was swift of foot and the ice-gorge was nearly two miles away...

Her mother the instant she heard the cry ran to the door.

Her mother the instant she heard the cry ran to the door.

Her mother the instant she heard the cry ran to the door.

It was because he had more of the "truth" than others that he could see...

Now Mrs. Muller stood spell-bound. Kristine caught the baby, pillows and all...

The train was very near. The child, forgetting all things but the danger to it...

The engine saw the child. He was on the verge of danger...

"Mother, what shall we do?" asked Kristine...

"It'll be night some time," said Kristine...

"Don't get lost," said the mother...

Kristine passed by the place where the statue was hidden...

At four in the afternoon they came in sight of a highway...

"Heigho!" he cried, when he had met them and listened to the story...

"Then we're to begin the world again, are we?"

"Get in, get in all of you, and come home with me for to-night..."

Of course, it was—who else could it be but John Muller...

The street lies in the new districts of Philadelphia...

The second story of one of these houses is occupied by two women...

Madame Constantia de Gonzalez has her apartment in the rear...

It rained all night. In the morning it was raining harder than ever...

Looking westward, far away, where the stry bridge spanned the river...

Kristine was swift of foot and the ice-gorge was nearly two miles away...

Her mother the instant she heard the cry ran to the door.

Her mother the instant she heard the cry ran to the door.

Her mother the instant she heard the cry ran to the door.

A. MOORE. FUR STORE, 29 Jackson Street, St. Paul, Minn.

BUY THE HOME Sewing Machine. Cash Price $40

The Cheapest First-Class Shuttle Sewing Machine Sold in the United States.

It Costs Nothing to Try the HOME Machine.

Please oblige by stating where you saw this advertisement.

BOSTON "ONE PRICE" Clothing House, 43 East Third-St. St. Paul, Minn.

Winter overcoats at lower prices than any other Clothing House in Minnesota.

Prof. R. J. Stockton, Successfully treats all diseases of the HAIR, SCALP AND FACE.

P. R. L. HARDENBERG, LEATHER AND Shoe Findings, 78 East Third Street, ST. PAUL, MINN.

JAMES BROWNELL, 46 West Third Street, ST. PAUL, MINN.

LOOKING-GLASSES AND PLATES, PICTURE FRAMES AND MOUNTINGS.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL, One Dozen Stereoscope Views sent, postage paid, for One Dollar.

SAW MILLS, FLOUR MILLS, Built and equipped by ROBERTSON & CARL, St. Paul, Minnesota.

WELLS' ENCYCLOPEDIA, NEW, Revised Edition, 16,000 Articles, 3,000 Illustrations and 18,000 Engravings.

PERMANENT and profitable employment can be secured by one lady in every town in the United States.

ADDITIONAL EIGHTIES FOR SALE. Parties wishing to buy additional 40, 50 or 100 acres...

Godey's Lady's Book. The oldest magazine in America.

WASH & MAKEUP from 75c to $1.00 and up. Sold on monthly or quarterly payments.

A FINE HEARSE FOR SALE CHEAP. Address Hall & McKinstry, St. Paul, Minn.

STEES BROS. Furniture Manufacturers. Wholesale Agents for Metallic Burial Cases, Caskets, Wood Coffins, Undertakers' Trimmings.

ALTHOF, BERGMANN & CO., Importers and Dealers in all kinds of NOTIONS, TOYS, AND FANCY GOODS.

WHOLESALE AND RETAIL. Holy Cakes and Gumballs, Paraffin Candles, Ladies and Children's Fans, Lower than the lowest.

