

POETRY.

LOSSES.

Upon the white sea-band,
There sat a pluming bird,
Telling the loons that their lives had known,

MISCELLANY.

OUR THANKSGIVING.

I do not think we were regarding our blessings or feelings very grateful that morning. I remember grandma looked stairs, and some, "Buster, Buster, dear!

where are you?" down stairs. Papa came home, and he, too, searched. Where

It was the fifth anniversary of Mrs.
Henry's wedding, and she had invited a few of her most intimate friends to make breakfast! He told us how it was. He "just good up on Jack's beautiful—just up! up! up! up! up! up! up! up!

It was the fifth anniversary of Mrs.
Henry's wedding, and she had invited a
few of her most intimate friends to make

At this time fair Sophronia set up a pretty little shriek, and snuffing indignantly
the blaspheming organ in question,

A great many strapped printers are on the coast, and some of them are day people,
but one or more of them strikes us for a

FARM AND HOUSEHOLD.

WINTER WHEAT.

The maple rodden in the sun;
In autumn gold the beecher stand;
Red, fustian, purple, they work is done

HOW TO CURE BACON, HAM, AND PORK.

As a correspondent of an exchange says:
As the winter months approach the hog pains greatly in the estimation of his

HE COULDN'T LINGER.

A great many strapped printers are on
the coast, and some of them are day people,
but one or more of them strikes us for a

LOSS OF APPETITE.—The Michigan

Farmer offers this remedy for loss of appetite or indigestion in stall-fed cattle:
"Sometimes cattle, when being fed high,

OUT CAKES.—Have for the best kind finely ground, double-sifted oatmeal, such as is only sent to the north of the Spey,

and a little salt; make one by one, cakes

FIRST IMPRESSIONS IN A BALLOON.

The impressions of a first ascension were very striking. It is like the earth falling away from the balloon. There is

HOW A STARVING FAMILY WERE

One winter, a good many years ago, a man named McNeil lived with his family on the eastern side of Mount Washington,

BUILDINGS COSTING $28,000 WERE erected in Ferguson Falls the present year.

COMMON SENSE vs. PREJUDICE.

By R. V. PIERCE, M. D., of the World's Dispensary, Buffalo, N. Y., Author of "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser,"

TO PREVENT SPLITTING OF HAND-

All carpenters know how soon the butt ends of spikes split, when daily exposed to the blows of the mallet or hammers.

TIMELY HINTS.—The agricultural editor of the N. Y. Herald in an article on preparing for next year's crop, says the following hints: Stop leaks in the roof before

Advertisement for "Schonka's Kidney Pills" with detailed text about kidney health and the product's benefits.

Advertisement for "ZELL'S ENCYCLOPEDIA" and other educational materials.

Advertisement for "STEES BROS." and other business-related notices.

Advertisement for "Godey's Lady's Book" and other periodicals.

Advertisement for "THE BICKFORD AUTOMATIC Family Knitting Machine" with an illustration of the machine.

Advertisement for "JAMES BROWNELL" and other local businesses.

Advertisement for "ALTHOF, BERGMANN & CO." and other retail stores.

Advertisement for "BOSTON 'ONE PRICE' Clothing House" and other clothing retailers.

Advertisement for "P. R. L. Hardenberg" and other local businesses.

