

POETRY.

ALONE IN LONDON.

By her fault or by ill fate,
Left in great London desolate
Of help and aid of comforters...

MISCELLANY.

THREE FATAL DUELS.

How the deadly feud between the Counts
de Montbaisson and the Counts de Precy had originated, not even those who were well acquainted with the history of those two noble French houses were able to tell...

"Martin Louis," sobbed the fair
Mahlde, as she was hanging on his neck,
"you have avenged me upon my cowardly slanderer—you the noblest of my brothers..."

World not Montbaisson hear him,
and mercifully slay him?
Still, it was the only chance of escape
remaining to him, and he had to risk it.

Would not Montbaisson hear him,
and mercifully slay him?
Still, it was the only chance of escape
remaining to him, and he had to risk it.
