INK for Printers. News, Book and Job Inks, all warranted of Superior quality. No cheap or inferior grades of ink made by us.

Senator McMillan's Address. Hon. S. J. R. McMillan, of St. Paul, our U. S. Senator, treated a large audience of our citizens of both sexes to an able address at Bly's Hall, on Tuesday evening, upon the very important issues of the present campaign.

The "Solid South" received a large measure of his attention, and his personal observation while in the Southern States last spring, a member of the committee appointed by Congress to investigate the Mississippi election, enabled him to speak largely from practical knowledge and to open revelations of facts regarding the terrible state of anarchy and reign of terror in that part of our Union, and in such a way that though we have read a good many more than he related, it caused us to view it in quite a different light, and brought it home to every mind there present as no newspaper account can.

The only thing the democrats have thought up against Hayes and Wheeler is, that those who were made over the recent change of politics of the St. Paul Dispatch said the cuts of them in that paper resembled the Northfield robbers, and this weighty and exceedingly solitary argument has gone the rounds of the democratic press east and west, and south. What a relief it must have been to the soreheads to have something (!) to say.

The Republican District Convention, held at Sauk Rapids, on Thursday last, for the nomination of senator and representative for this district, we are pleased to state, did its work well, and has secured to the district without a shadow of doubt a republican victory, for which it merits and receives the thanks of the people.

That there be added at the end of section three, article six, the following words, viz.: Whenever all or a majority of the judges of the supreme court shall from any cause be disqualified from sitting in any case in said court, the governor, or, if he shall be interested in the result of such case, then the lieutenant-governor, shall assign judges of the district court of the state, who shall sit in such case, in place of such disqualified judges, with all the powers and duties of judges of the supreme court.

1776 CENTENNIAL 1876 Republican Ticket.

For President, GOV. RUTHERFORD B. HAYES, Of Ohio. For Vice-President, HON. WILLIAM A. WHEELER, Of New York. PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS, C. K. DAVIS, A. K. FINSETH, STEPHEN MILLER, HANS MATTSON, A. J. EDGEKON.

For Member of Congress, DR. J. H. STEWART, Of St. Paul. Thirtieth Legislative District. For Senator, A. P. BARKER, of Mille Lacs County. For Representative, H. S. HILL, of Morrison County.

For Auditor, F. X. GOULET. For Treasurer, N. McFADDEN. For Probate Judge, D. O. PRESTON. For County Commissioner, H. D. FOLLETT. For Coroner, DR. J. Q. ROSSER. For County Commissioner, 2d District, ED. B. FRENCH.

The Budstikken Sale. If the Minneapolis Budstikken continues in its present way against Dr. Stewart, we predict that gentleman will not only be elected by an increased majority over any of his predecessors, but that that journal will find itself minus of subscribers. The Scandinavians are naturally Republicans, and no paper which will sell itself body and breeches to the Democrats can carry them with it.

The following Amendments to the State Constitution were proposed by the Legislature of last winter, and are to be submitted to the voters at the coming election, to-wit: AMENDMENT TO SECTION 11, ARTICLE 4.

AMENDMENT TO SECTION 3, ARTICLE 10. "Sec. 3. Each stockholder in any corporation shall be liable only for all unpaid installments on stock owned by him, or transferred for the purpose of defrauding creditors."

AMENDMENT TO SECTION 3, ARTICLE 1. "That there be added at the end of section three, article six, the following words, viz.: Whenever all or a majority of the judges of the supreme court shall from any cause be disqualified from sitting in any case in said court, the governor, or, if he shall be interested in the result of such case, then the lieutenant-governor, shall assign judges of the district court of the state, who shall sit in such case, in place of such disqualified judges, with all the powers and duties of judges of the supreme court."

JEFF DAVIS has written a letter supporting Tilden. Strange, passing strange. LEON HOUSE, of Morrison county, is an independent candidate for representative from this district. That helps Mr. Hill a little.

ELECTIONS.

GRAND REPUBLICAN VICTORY! Republicans Coming Back to the Fold. 9,000 to 12,000 MAJORITY in OHIO. A Republican Legislature in Indiana. EIGHT CONGRESSMEN GAINED IN THE TWO STATES. THIS IS OUR PYRAMID. OHIO. MAINE. VERMONT. INDIANA. COLORADO.

HOW DO YOU LIKE IT? This is the Democratic Pyramid. BLUE JEAN WILLIAMS. 'RAH FOR TILDEN, JEFF DAVIS, THE SOLID SOUTH AND REFORM.

"Keep the Ball a Rolling. Let the Saggle Scream!" Ohio, Indiana and West Virginia held their State elections on Tuesday last, and the latest returns received up to the hour of going to press show in Ohio 9,000 to 12,000 republican majority on the State ticket, a large republican majority in the legislature, and a gain of at least five republican congressmen.

In Indiana the democrats elect William governor over Harrison. Harrison was scratched largely by the liquor influence on account of the part he took in the women's temperance crusade, and that defeated him; but the republicans elect a majority of the legislature and gain three congressmen. The legislature stands as follows:

Table with 2 columns: SENATE and HOUSE. SENATE: Republicans 26, Democrats 23, Independents 1. HOUSE: Rep. majority over Dem. 3, Rep. maj. over all on joint ballot, 8.

The Indiana Congressmen last winter stood five republicans to eight democrats, they stand now eight republicans, four democrats and one doubtful. West Virginia being part of the "solid South" is of course presumed to be democratic, though owing to the peculiarity of the laws of that State the returns have not at this writing been announced.

Upon the whole the victory is for the republican party, and the election of Hayes and Wheeler in November assured. The democrats, like a drowning man clutching a straw, are striving to make a mountain of a mole hill, and, clutching at the election of Blue Jean Williams, are shouting victory, and frantically endeavoring to breathe life into their corpse.

Wonderful Success. It is reported that BOWEN'S GERMAN Syrup has, since its introduction in the United States, reached the immense sale of 40,000 dozen per year. Over 6,000 druggists have ordered this medicine direct from the factory, at Woodbury, N. J., and not one has reported a single failure, but every letter speaks of its astonishing success in curing severe Coughs, Colds settled on the Breast, Consumption, or any disease of Throat and Lungs. We advise any person that has any predisposition to weak lungs, to go to your druggist, N. McFADDEN, and get this medicine, or inquire about it. Regular size, 75 cents; Sample Bottle, 10 cents. Two doses will relieve any case. Don't neglect your cough.

COUNTY CONVENTION.—At the Republican County Convention held at Bly's Hall on Monday evening, Ed. B. French was elected chairman and W. W. Hartley, secretary. Upon motion, Ed. B. French, C. F. Kindred, N. McFadden and F. B. Thompson were elected delegates to the Republican 30th Legislative District Convention, to be held at Rapids on the 12th inst. Upon motion, the following nominations were unanimously made by acclamation: County officers, Auditor, F. X. Goulet; Treasurer, N. McFadden; Probate Judge, D. O. Preston; Court Commissioner, H. D. Follett; Coroner, Dr. J. Q. Rosser; County Commissioner for the Second District, Ed. B. French. Upon motion, the nomination of a Commissioner in the First District was left to the voters of that district, and as yet we have heard of no nomination. Upon motion, the delegates to the Legislative Convention were empowered to vote by proxy. The chairman of the committee was authorized to appoint a county committee for the ensuing year, and the convention adjourned.

McNair and the "Solid South." The Minneapolis section of yesterday's Pioneer-Press contains what is represented as an interview which took place between the editor of the "Budstikken" and Mr. McNair, the Democratic candidate for Congress in this district, and which the public is informed was translated for the enlightenment of the readers of The Pioneer-Press.

After an elaborate but quite superfluous disclaimer by McNair, that the Democratic party entertains any project to revive slavery, he proceeds to give his views concerning the confederate public debts, the payment of southern war claims, etc. In arguing the legal aspect of the subject, Mr. McNair referred to section 4, article 14, of the Federal constitution as prohibiting the payment of southern war claims. Now, we have always supposed that the article mentioned related to the public debt of the "Confederate states," and that it in no way prevented Congress from paying private claims for damages done during the late war. It has lately been officially announced by the department of Washington that the claim bills passed by the House of Representatives, at its last session, have been examined by the auditing officers of the Treasury, and that it is found they amount to $485,000. These are southern claims arising out of the late war.

Does McNair think Congress had no constitutional power to allow this kind of claims? As a specimen of these private claims we present the following, which is the official entry of the claim: No. 14, 108. Charles G. Kerr, Fitzhugh Lee and George W. C. Lee, executors of Anna M. Fitzhugh, late of Alexandria county, Va., deceased. Claim filed May 20, 1872. Value of No. 125,000 cords of oak and pine timber, cut and taken from the estate of Ravensworth, Fairfax county, by orders of various quarters masters in 1861, '62, '63, '64, and '65, at $3 per cord, $375,000.

On investigation into this private claim, it was found that the wood charged for at $3 per cord was actually worth, at the time it was taken, 75 cents per cord, and accordingly the further consideration of the claim was laid over or postponed, we suppose, until the great "Reform Democratic party" should succeed in capturing the national treasury. As before suggested article 14, referred to by McNair, does not relate at all to these southern private claims for damages, but only prohibits debts incurred in aid of the insurrection, or claims for emancipated slaves. It is these private claims for damages and the action of Congress that present the alarming question to the people as to how many millions they must be taxed to reimburse Mr. McNair's southern Democratic creditors for their damages. [Cor. Minneapolis-Tribune, 9th.]

To this Mr. McNair has made no reply. PLEASE CONSIDER—How much cheaper it is to use good, pure article of Saleratus for baking, than to buy some cheap, poorly manufactured article of Saleratus, or some of the many adulterated Baking Powders. A pure Baking Powder, at the most, contains only good soda and cream tartar; many are adulterated with white earth, or some foreign matter. D. B. DeLand & Co.'s Best Chemical Saleratus is always pure, uniform, and good in its results. Try it by all means.

Mr. John M. Fulton, daughter of D. McArthur, of Crow Wing, has been spending several weeks recently on a visit to the "old homestead" and with friends in this place, and started on Thursday evening last for Los Angeles, California, where she expects to meet her husband. A brother of Mr. Fulton will accompany her from Omaha on her very long journey. Mr. Fulton will be remembered by many of the early residents of this place as one of the first locomotive engineers on the Northern Pacific.

MARRIED. In Chicago, at the Gardner House, Oct. 4th, by the Rev. D. B. Cheney, Mr. S. Gardner, of Wadena, Minn., and Miss Della M. Gardner, of Decatur, Ill.

INDIAN SUMMER. PREPARE FOR COURT. ELECTION will be November 7th. POLITICS red-hot—and still heating. THE lawyer's harvest is approaching. NORTHERN PACIFIC BONDS for sale. L. P. WHITE. TRAVELERS' Life and Accident Insurance Co. for OF HARTFORD, CONN.

Go to SMITH & CAMPBELL'S for anything you want in Boots and Shoes—cheap. I HEREBY announce myself as an independent candidate for the office of County Treasurer of Crow Wing County. J. W. EDGROVES. Ten cents each will be paid for a few copies of the TRIBUNE of April 22nd, 1876, at this office.

Dr. J. McNaughton says he slept on the side track one night this week, and Brown left the switch open and he took a heavy cold. Hon. Wm. L. Banning and Wm. L. Kelley will address the citizens of Brainerd upon the political issues of the day, from a democratic stand-point, at Bly's Hall, on Monday, Oct. 23rd, at 8 o'clock P. M.

Go to J. M. MARTIN'S, Fifth Street, for Michigan Apples, California Pears, Lemons, Oranges, Grapes. Our Aitkin neighbors appear to be having quite an experience with bears. If the deacon and that other gentleman need any assistance in protecting life and preserving the peace, we would advise them to call upon "Jo" and "Dick" of this place. They have had experience with "bears."

The time on the Northern Pacific changes to-morrow to winter time. Hereafter trains leave here going east at 6, and going west at 8 a. m., and arrive from the east at 7.50, and from the west at 5.15 p. m., laying over night here each way.

SCHOOLS.—The annual school meeting and election took place at the public school building on Saturday evening last, and resulted in the election of the following new directors: For one year, M. P. Martin; for two years, D. O. Preston and J. H. Paine; for three years, R. Parker and W. W. Hartley. D. McNanny holds over for one year.

ED. R. FRENCH returned last week from St. Paul, where he went to defend the action brought against him under the charge of selling whiskey to Indians. The district attorney filed a nolle prosequi in the case, which is pretty good evidence of the correctness of Mr. French's theory that the prosecution was malicious and wholly foundationless. Another of those cases, described in our Aitkin correspondence this week.

PERSONAL. R. McNider, of Bismarck, passed through town this week. Judge O. P. Stearns held a term of Court at Detroit this week. Major C. W. Darling, U. S. Indian agent at Fort Berthold, was in town on Thursday evening.

Major H. J. King, U. S. Indian agent at Leech Lake, started for his agency yesterday. S. F. Dean and John R. Waugh, of the N. P. R., departed from Brainerd for the Centennial this week. S. S. Gardner, of Wadena, tarried with us one day this week on his way home with his fair bride. Notice of his marriage appears elsewhere.

We received a call yesterday from Clark McKay, of Appleton, Swift county, a brother of A. F. McKay, of this place. He is here on a visit. Mrs. John M. Fulton, daughter of D. McArthur, of Crow Wing, has been spending several weeks recently on a visit to the "old homestead" and with friends in this place, and started on Thursday evening last for Los Angeles, California, where she expects to meet her husband. A brother of Mr. Fulton will accompany her from Omaha on her very long journey. Mr. Fulton will be remembered by many of the early residents of this place as one of the first locomotive engineers on the Northern Pacific.

The scheme of the Southern leaders to secure the refunding of the cotton tax and the reimbursement of disloyal men of their section for the losses sustained by them, during the rebellion, depends upon the success upon the election of Democratic Congressmen as upon the election of a Democratic President.

The senator very aptly closed his discourse with a warning against voting for the democratic candidate for president or congressman, for the reason that the South constitutes a large majority of the democratic party, and will control its action in all party caucuses, and, under democratic regime, as heretofore, would control our government.

McNair and the "Solid South." The Minneapolis section of yesterday's Pioneer-Press contains what is represented as an interview which took place between the editor of the "Budstikken" and Mr. McNair, the Democratic candidate for Congress in this district, and which the public is informed was translated for the enlightenment of the readers of The Pioneer-Press.

After an elaborate but quite superfluous disclaimer by McNair, that the Democratic party entertains any project to revive slavery, he proceeds to give his view concerning the confederate public debts, the payment of southern war claims, etc. In arguing the legal aspect of the subject, Mr. McNair referred to section 4, article 14, of the Federal constitution as prohibiting the payment of southern war claims. To this Mr. McNair has made no reply. PLEASE CONSIDER—How much cheaper it is to use a good, pure article of Salutaris, or some of the many adulterated Baking Powders. A pure Baking Powder, at the most, contains only good soda and cream tartar; many are adulterated with white earth, or some foreign matter. D. B. DeLand & Co.'s Best Chemical Salutaris is always pure, uniform, and good in its results. Try it by all means.

Wonderful Success. It is reported that BOEHE'S GERMAN STRUP has, since its introduction in the United States, reached the immense sale of 40,000 dozen per year. Over 6,000 druggists have ordered this medicine direct from the factory, at Woodbury, N. J., and not one has reported a single failure, but every letter speaks of its astonishing success in curing severe Coughs, Colds settled on the Breast, Consumption, or any disease of Throat and Lungs. We advise any person that has any predisposition to weak lungs, to go to your druggist, N. McFadden, and get this medicine, or inquire about it. Regular size, 75 cents; Sample Bottle, 10 cents. Two doses will relieve any case. Don't neglect your cough.

INDIAN slaughter. PREPARE for Court. ELECTIONS will be November 7th. POLITICS red hot—and still heating. The lawyer's harvest is approaching. NORTHERN Pacific Bonds for sale. L. P. WHITE.

For Sale—One Winchester Rifle, one Wesson Rifle. For price call at the Drug Store. T. C. KERRICK. LONSDALE MUSH, 11 1/2 cents, by the web; Unbleached Muslin, 9 and 10 cents, by the web, at SMITH & CAMPBELL'S.

PRINTING the new time schedule for the Northern Pacific has delayed the TRAINS somewhat this week. Go to SMITH & CAMPBELL'S for anything you want in Boots and Shoes—cheap. I HEREBY announce myself as an Independent Candidate for the office of County Treasurer of Crow Wing County. J. W. EBERSON.

Ten cents each will be paid for a few copies of the TRIBUNE of April 22nd, 1876, at this office. Dr. J. McNaughton says he slept on the side track one night this week, and Brown left the switch open and he took a heavy cold. Hon. Wm. L. Banning and Wm. L. Kelley will address the citizens of Brainerd upon the political issues of the day, from a democratic stand-point, at Bly's Hall, on Monday, Oct. 23rd, at 8 o'clock P. M.

Go to J. M. MARTIN'S, Fifth Street, for Michigan Cider, Apples, California Pears, Lemons, Oranges, Grapes. Our Aitkin neighbors appear to be having quite an experience with bears. If the deacon and that other gentleman need any assistance in protecting life and preserving the peace, we would advise them to call upon "Jo" and "Dick" of this place. They have had experience with "bars."

The time on the Northern Pacific changes to-morrow to winter time. Hereafter trains leave here going east at 6, and going west at 8 a. m., and arrive from the east at 7.50, and from the west at 5.15 p. m., laying over night here each way. SCHOOL.—The annual school meeting and election took place at the public school building on Saturday evening last, and resulted in the election of the following new directors: For one year, M. P. Martin; for two years, D. O. Preston and R. H. Paine; for three years, R. Parker and W. W. Hartley. D. Mc-Nannan holds over for one year.

ED. R. FRENCH returned last week from St. Paul, where he went to defend the claim brought against him under the charge of selling whiskey to Indians. The district attorney filed a nulla proequi in the case, which is pretty good evidence of the correctness of Mr. French's theory that the prosecution was malicious and wholly foundationless. Another of those cases, described in our Aitkin correspondence this week.

SCUMM'S Goods and Remnants at less than cost, at SMITH & CAMPBELL'S. Personal. R. McNIER, of Bismarck, passed through town this week. Judge O. P. Stearns held a term of Court at Detroit this week. Major C. W. Darling, U. S. Indian agent at Fort Berthold, was in town on Thursday evening.

Major H. J. King, U. S. Indian agent at Leech Lake, started for his agency yesterday. S. F. Dean and John R. Waugh, of the N. P. R. R., departed from Brainerd for the Centennial this week. S. S. Gardner, of Wadena, married with us one day this week on his way home with his fair bride. Notice of his marriage appears elsewhere.

We received a call yesterday from Clark McKay, of Appleton, Swift county, a brother of A. F. McKay, of this place. He is here on a visit. Mrs. John M. Fulton, daughter of D. McArthur, of Crow Wing, has been spending several weeks recently on a visit to the "old homestead" and with friends in this place, and started on Thursday evening last for Los Angeles, California, where she expects to meet her husband. A brother of Mr. Fulton will accompany her from Omaha on her very long journey. Mr. Fulton will be remembered by many of the early residents of this place as one of the first locomotive engineers on the Northern Pacific.

MARRIED. In Chicago, at the Gardner House, Oct. 4th, by the Rev. D. B. Cheney, Mr. S. S. Gardner, of Wadena, Minn., and Miss Della M. Gardner, of Odell, Ill.

FASHION NOTES. Plush is used for trimming hats. Street dresses are to be worn quite short. Fringes are very fashionable this season.

Velvet is in great demand for dress trimmings. New muffs for this winter are made of feathers.

Few felt hats are to be worn. Velvet or silk are preferred. Long cloaks or dolmans are the favorite wraps this season.

Turbans made entirely of feathers are very fashionable. Conc-shell jewelry is exceedingly pretty and fashionable.

New lace scarfs are of cardinal red colored cashmere lace. The dress skirts are made even more scant than last season.

Red flannel balmors, trimmed with black velvet, are in vogue. Only a little lace, which must be very fine, is used on dress hats.

The square mesh, netted silk ties are the favorites this season. All polonaises are made very long, showing but little of the dress skirt.

The new shades of green, brown, and blue in dress goods are almost black. Usters will be as much worn this season as last; both by gentlemen and boys.

Broad belts, with large silver, steel, or jet buckles still continue in favor. White ivory ornaments are very pretty and much in demand in the place of jewelry.

Low-crowned hats, with quite broad brims, are the favorite ones this fall for children.

The loopings in overskirts and polonaises are made very low in the back or on the sides.

Three-cornered silk handkerchiefs, edged with lace, are shown for wearing around the neck.

Filagree gold and silver necklaces will take the place of the heavy gold link chains for full dress.

Many of the long streamers worn on hats are caught together at the ends by an ornamental pin.

Linen collars and cuffs, to be worn with walking dresses, are edged with blue, red, or black.

Mother Goose is one of the names given to the high-crowned hats. Why not the hair? Hubbard also!

The hair is worn low on the neck, in square-meshed silk nets, the nets matching in color either the hair or dress.

Shetland wool hoods are to be worn by children this winter instead of the usual white Swiss and Valenciennes ones.

Magnolia is the name given to a new shade of green. It is a very pale, being almost a yellow, with scarcely perceptible tinge of green.

Basques and overskirts are cut so that you can scarcely tell where the basques end or the overskirts commence; but polonaises are the most fashionable.

Hats have either two long streamers, without any loops or are made to present a close cut-off appearance in the back. No short ends or loops are fitted.

Little girl's cloaks are made as long as the dresses in front. The backs are long and quite so long, but a side pleating is put in to make them the same length. A sash is tied across the top of the pleating. A plain round collar finishes the neck.

Some very pretty dolmans, for evenings, of light blue, pink and cardinal red shawm are shown. The fronts are cut quite long, with pockets sewed on the outside, and lined with silk and edged with ball fringe, matching in color the cashmere. They are fastened at the neck with long ribbon bows and ends.

Three-cornered silk neckerchiefs, in all colors, edged with lace, are very fashionable. Some are made of white lawn edged with Maltese, Valenciennes or Malines. They are also made of China crape, either white, black, cardinal, cream, or navy blue. Valenciennes is used on the cardinal neckchiefs, Smyrna, or blue ends; and black gimpure or Cantilly on black ends.

POLITICS. A few of the Points at Issue Plainly Discussed. A Democratic War Claim Allowed.

The attempt of the democrats to explain away or brake the force of Mr. Blaine's exposure of the formal judgment of Judge Clifford, of Maine—a veteran democrat—against Col. Neal DoJ personally, by some sugar taken by foraging party of his regiment, is a signal failure.

MINNESOTA STATE FAIR. Some of the Notable Items of the Exhibition.

Notwithstanding the unfavorable weather during the week of the State Fair, at St. Paul, the attendance was large, and the exhibits in most departments complete and large.

The machinery on the ground, was the great centre of attraction and crowds of people were continually going from one machine to another and wondering at the rapidity and ease with which all worked. They were all run by steam and made a great rattling and clattering. They consisted of all sorts of reapers, mowers, binders and such like implements. Between these machines, and the threshers there was a good deal of music.

The races and ball games were greatly interfered with by the inclement weather, so that the programme for Thursday was postponed through Saturday. On that day the sun succeeded in clearing away the clouds, and the business men of St. Paul closed their doors to give all employees a chance to visit the grounds, in consequence of which the gate receipts were greatly increased.

In the fine art department there was much of interest on the last day, and the displays of fruits attracted much attention, showing a general recovery from the destructive effects of the winter of 1874.

The address of Hon. L. Donnelly was full of good advice and valuable information, though delivered to a limited audience.

B. Rosebush, the well-known Official on the southwest corner of Jackson and Fourth streets, St. Paul, made a most creditable display of specimens. He exhibited the celebrated pebble and crystal glasses, many visitors, who have failing eyesight, were astonished to learn what a great improvement the use of these glasses made in their vision.

One of the entertaining features was the art and other displays of the St. Paul Business College. The "Centennial" piece of farm machinery by two of the college faculty was truly a wonder, as were numerous other handsome pictures and specimens. Not the least interesting portions of the display, was the specimens of penmanship by students when they entered the College, and the work of the same hands after a brief period of instruction. This College has been established eleven years, and from small beginning has grown to be one of the largest and most important of the Northwest. One of the most striking features of the 1876 catalogue, is a list of five pages of names of former students now holding responsible positions, chiefly in banks and wholesale houses, all of which they were enabled to obtain by reason of having secured a business education at the St. Paul Business College. These former students unite in a testimonial, commending the institution, and the single voluntary testimonials are legion. No one young man should regard his education complete without taking a Business College course. Prof. W. A. Fadden, the able principal, has secured a first premium at the State Fair for five successive years, and has also diplomas for plain and ornamental penmanship, text books, and business blanks, the work of students. Any person desiring to obtain a business education should send for a catalogue of this valuable institution and learn the details of its workings.

In the machinery department there was much displayed to interest the farmer. During the entire progress of the Fair a large crowd surrounded the machinery on exhibition and being operated by Griff Jones of Minneapolis. Their machinery consisted of the "Marsh Harvester," with Self-Binder attachment, also the "Warrior Mower." Every one knows that these harvesters have proved a complete and magnificent success after years of trial and sharp competition, but the Self-Binder is a recent attachment and it attracted an immense amount of attention at the Fair. The great desideratum of the harvester has been found in this Self-Binder. Farmers who have used them certify that they can cut and bind fifteen and sixteen acres per day with the greatest ease, and the binding is far more secure than hand binding and superior in every respect to any binding heretofore attempted. It works to a charm without getting out of order. The threshing hook reaper binds the bundles firm and secure and the cost for wire is only the trifling sum of 20c to 25c per acre. The expressions of delight with which the farmers and the crowds which witnessed its workings and numerous farmers declared that they would never make another harvest without it. It is truly captured the spectators by storm. Griff Jones also exhibited the famous Gammon & Deering Warrior Mower, and this machine like the others worked admirably. The whole display was of immense value to the farming communities at this season of the world as it gave our countrymen a demonstration of the great perfection to which farm machinery has been brought, and enabled farmers to see for themselves where to secure the best.

Perhaps no one thing attracted more attention, or proved of greater interest to those present, or to farmers throughout the State, than the grand trial of threshers. The contest having narrowed down to the "Minnesota Chief," manufactured by Seymour, Sabin & Co., of Stillwater, and the "Giant," represented by the lawyers, Wm. Hyde. Of course the two machines had their friends, but the admirable qualities displayed by the "Chief" fully warranted the judges in giving it the blue ribbon, which they did accompanied by the following testimonial:

Your special committee appointed to decide upon the merits of the two threshing machines—the "Minnesota Chief" and the "Giant," would respectfully report that upon the trial, the "Minnesota Chief" with a 24 inch cylinder threshed 43 bushels of wheat in 25 minutes, being an average of one and seven-tenths bushels per minute, making clean work with very little waste over the stacker, and no waste under the machine. The "Giant" threshed 16 1/2 bushels in twelve minutes, with a 26 inch cylinder, being an average of 1 1/2 bushels per minute. The character of the work was fair, with much waste over the stacker and considerable waste under the machine. Your committee, therefore, award the diploma to "Minnesota Chief."

A man named Thomas Gantlin died at the poor-house in Keokuk, on Tuesday. He had been staying at a boarding-house in that city for four or five weeks and paying his board regularly, but the landlady for some reason, refused to keep him any longer, and notwithstanding he had plenty of money, he could get no one to take care of him, so he had to be taken to the poor-house. He refused to tell where he came from or anything about himself. After he died, $93 in money was found on his person.

At the recent election in Maine one Republican walked twenty-two miles home to vote, and by so doing he broke the tie on Town Representative and sent a republican to the legislature. We commend the Maine man's example to republicans everywhere as showing what may be accomplished by vigilant performance of duty.

Minnesota Matters. A new Lutheran church was dedicated on the 26th in Macheson township, Freeborn county, an immense assembly being present. The edifice and furniture cost $6,340, and it is one of the finest and best built of its class in the State.

Thompson & Williams' large flouring mill at Lanesboro was destroyed by fire the morning of the 26th. The fire originated in the miller. Three hundred barrels of flour and between 6,000 and 8,000 bushels of wheat was destroyed. Loss from $45,000 to $70,000.

The Chaska Valley Herald says that L. M. Brown is already in the field as an independent candidate for Judge of this District, and that L. L. Baxter soon will be; John L. Macdonald is the Democratic nominee.

The Inebriate asylum is to be built, and will commence this fall. Official advertisements for proposals to furnish material and work on the foundation appear in the Rochester Post of the 30th.

One evening last week a couple of highwaymen grappled a young man, whose name is not given, near Eyota, Olmsted county, and rifled his pockets of all valuables including $38 in money.

A young lady, recently arrived in Fairbairn, Stearns county, from New York, was adjudged insane on the 26th, and taken to the St. Peter Hospital Asylum. The cause of her mental aberration is brooding over the death of her lover, who was drowned in New York State some two months ago.

Huntly, charged with having stolen a horse from Mr. Mason of LeRoy, and Mr. Huntington, with being a defaulter treasurer of the town of Dexter, failed to appear for trial at the recent term of the court. It is supposed they have fled to Canada.

A company of 60 picked men has been organized for Feghball, which is armed with improved breech-loading rifles, the special object being the guarding of the jail wherein are confined the Northfield raiders, Dundas, in the same county, is organizing a similar company.

Mr. J. Featherston, of Elk River, has a cucumber in his garden which is only four feet three inches long, and is rather a poor year for that fruit too.

Mr. J. B. Hammond, of Lily Pond, Wright county has sent the editor of the Elk River Star a small lamb, six inches in length, which contains 27 fine large Transcendant crab apples. Who can beat it?

At Dodge Centre, a lad named Frank Smith, aged about 14 years, was dangerously, if not fatally, shot in the breast by another boy named Henry Preston, who pointed and fired his revolver in play.

The mail route from Buffalo to Alton has been discontinued. Times were made quite lively at Buffalo by the county fair, fighting, stealing and law suits.

Red Wing is now enjoying its annual harvest of business consequent upon the season of the year and the rise in the price of wheat. There is no other town in the State where greater activity may be seen on any and every day in the week than in Red Wing.

The State Fair, although a success in the display of farm products, stock and implements, as well as of the manufactures of the State, was not as largely attended as in many former years on account of the unfavorable weather. The trades building exhibited most shamefully neglected on the part of the Fair. An immense quantity of carbonic acid was delivered by Hon. L. Donnelly, and was a creditable production. The city was crowded with people, but the large number of gate receipts were far below last year's.

Some Wonderful Stories by Dr. Doreman. The celebrated chemist, Dr. Doreman, in a recent lecture, how extremes meet: Eggs can be cooked by the extreme of cold as well as by the extreme of heat. Butter can be made like ivory, so that it can be turned. We may, by the agency of this, solidify many of the other liquid substances, and indeed, many of the gaseous; but a more intense degree of cold is used, and we employ laughing gas. This laughing gas, which is nitrous oxide, is carbonic acid we have shown when squeezed by the pump, it becomes a caustic and pellucid liquid as carbonic acid, and it allowed to remain, produces a most intense degree of cold. We can, however, show the liquid. Let me ask you to observe, prior to making that experiment, a very curious interesting one in regard to the spheroidal state of matter. We have here a glass lamp, and we place over this lamp a platinum dish. In the platinum dish we place some of the mixture of solid carbonic acid, and in the middle of it introduce the mercury, and we shall find that the mercury would freeze, showing that we have a cold at least forty degrees below zero. We used to make an experiment, such as melting lead intensely hot, and then putting one hand in and lading it from one vessel to another; for if, in lieu of this, you take a quantity of melted iron, you can plunge your hand into it with impunity, and workmen have been able to walk on a bed of melted iron. Take a poker and put it in a hot coal fire, get it very hot, and you may lift it or wipe it on the tongue with impunity. We may have it so hot that the vapor actually protects us.

Here we shall have a more extraordinary illustration of it, for we cannot only make ice, but can freeze mercury. We will fill this little thimble with mercury, and as soon as it is intensely hot we will introduce the mixture, and will show this curious illustration, and attempt to freeze the mercury. Those who make the experiment of the heated lead, please remember to have the lead intensely hot, and you will find that it gives out cold.

Foss, one of the principal residents of Fossvill, Col., is a wealthy retired stage driver, who now keeps a refreshment saloon on the stage road. He has a collection of wild game, which he has different associations and friends, which hang on racks in his hall as trophies. One of them, given him by the late Mr. Ralston, is valued at $10,000, and is mounted with gold and richly set with jewels.

The Red Wing Institute school is pronounced a success. The number of pupils is double what it was at the commencement.
