Bound To Scream Anyhow.

"I'll scream if you touch me!" exclaimed a pert miss...

JACK EASY.

How many have laughed over the incident related by Capt. Marayatt in his story of Midshipman Easy...

"I have examined her," replied the doctor, "and can safely recommend her."

"Well, my dear, and suppose they do call him Bob?"

"I cannot bear even the supposition, my dear. You forget the county in which you are residing, the downs covered with sheep."

"Well, then, let me see—but I'll think of it, Mr. Easy, my head aches very much just now."

"No, ma'am, not yet."

"Good heavens! Dr. Middleton, what can you mean by bringing this person here?"

"Oh, Dr. Middleton! What could you mean?"

"You are correct, doctor," replied Mr. Easy, "and her head proves that she is a modest young woman, with strong religious feeling, kindness of disposition and every other requisite."

"Lord love it, how hungry it is! There, there, stop it a moment, it's shocking, poor thing."

"The matter affects me as well as the boy, Nicodemus is a long name to write at full length, and Nick is vulgar. Besides, as there will be two Nicks, they will very naturally call my boy young Nick, which will be diabolical."

"Well, Mr. Easy, at all events then let me choose the name."

"That you shall, my dear, and it was with this view that I mentioned the subject so early."

"I think, Mr. Easy, I will call the boy after my poor father—his name shall be Robert."

"Very well, my dear, if you wish it, it shall be Robert. You shall have your own way. But I think, my dear, upon a little consideration, you will acknowledge that there is a decided objection."

"Yes, my dear; Robert may be very well, but you must reflect upon the consequences; he is certain to be called Bob."

"Well, my dear, and suppose they do call him Bob?"

"I cannot bear even the supposition, my dear. You forget the county in which you are residing, the downs covered with sheep."

"Well, then, let me see—but I'll think of it, Mr. Easy, my head aches very much just now."

"There, my dear, did I not tell you you would be of the same opinion upon reflection? I knew you would. I have given you your own way, and you tell me to call him John?"

"You shall always do just as you like, my dear, replied the husband."

"What is Done With the Redeemed Currency."

The national bank notes and fractional currency, when first turned out of the treasury, are very pretty to look at. Their crispness is particularly attractive feature, and the bright green and moderate quantity of rose color are very pleasing to the eye.

The Democratic Electors met at 12 m., and after a long session, cast the vote of the State for Tilden and Hendricks.

TALLAHASSEE, Dec. 6.—A quo warranto was issued and served on the Hayes electors yesterday.

Here is a good story about a horse, which is told in the Boston Journal.
