THE BRAINERD BRANCH VERSUS THE GLYNDON CUT-OFF. We cannot see why St. Paul and Minneapolis should be so anxious for the Breckenridge-Glyndon Cut-off, and so indifferent to the Brainerd Branch.

More About Crow Wing County. We were mistaken in our remarks last week in regard to counties being attached to others for judicial purposes.

DEMOCRACY AND FOREIGN-BORN CITIZENS. During the canvass one of the charges most industriously circulated against Gov. Hayes by the democracy, was that he was a know-nothing in sentiment.

THE HISTORY OF PRINTING, AND ITS EFFECTS ON LITERATURE AND THE CHURCH. By J. W. D. Written for the Brainerd Tribune.

Bro. Mitchell, of the Duluth Tribune, has our thanks for those missing back numbers of his paper. We do not understand why our namesake has been truant, but the fact prevails and was very readily detected.

THE WORTHINGTON ADVANCE advises Chamberlain, of the Jackson Republic, in some rather poor doggerel, to marry. It may be good advice for Geo. C., but we desire to say to the ladies, in general, nothing to do with him.

Our contemporary must mean "little Indian," not "little African," and evidently proposes to "ventilate" that interesting little song.

THE DAKOTA DIVISION OF THE NORTHERN PACIFIC. The fact having been thoroughly demonstrated that trains can be run during the winter on the Dakota Division of the Northern Pacific railway, it has brought to light many things favorable to this national highway across the continent.

THE BRAINERD TRIBUNE says that a petition to the Department of the Interior is being circulated in that vicinity asking that the band of Indians known as the "Mille Lacs Band" of Chippewa Indians be removed from their reservation.

THE BRAINERD TRIBUNE urges the passage of a bill for the relief of counties to which unorganized and other counties are attached for judicial and other purposes.

Gov. Wells has broken down the Pickett, jumped out of the Littlefield, run all over the big field, and utterly defied the bulldozing of the Maddox.

THE BRAINERD TRIBUNE wants Fort Ripley reconstructed at Brainerd. We have no objection, and think the Tribune's head level.—[St. Cloud Times.

THE DULUTH TRIBUNE calls the position of the Pioneer Press upon our railroad matters, "Fighting the N. P. Road." That's about the way it looks at this distance.

THE BISMARCK TRIBUNE says there are now eighteen persons in the county jail at that place, four of them charged with murder and two with highway robbery, awaiting trial.

THE PIONEER PRESS estimates the cost of completing the St. Paul & Pacific branches as follows: From Sauk Rapids to Brainerd, 56 miles, at $8,000 per mile, $448,000.
