FOUND IN THE GRASS.

BY M. QUAD. A squadron of cavalry, riding slow across the plains, in search of the foe...

A NIGHT TO BE REMEMBERED.

ing ragged. He appealed to us for assistance.

I did not like his appearance altogether. He had one of those faces that seem to inspire the beholder with the idea that the owner was a villain. He had a low brow that was contracted by a continual frown; small gray, cruel-looking eyes, and a square jaw.

A Deane-Bouché.

A skillful free-lance in Syracuse has been in the habit of seeing a man walking into a certain saloon and stopping to a particular choice bit of turkey exposed to view on the meat table, twisting it off the body of the fowl and cramming it into his mouth whole. A day or two since one of the attendants there detected the covered man by splitting the turkey on the under side and inserting a teaspoonful of cayenne pepper. The fellow came as expected, and on going out he pounced upon his customary game and made a single mouthful of it. The result may well be imagined; there was a fearful scene all around, though more painful to the chief actor than to the spectators.

The water in the river was never known to be so low at this season of the year as it is now, and unless we have some heavy rain soon, but very little of the lumber on the Upper Mississippi will reach the boom this season. Hartley Bros. & Nevers are here, however, are coming right along and will be in the Mississippi by Wednesday or Thursday next.

The work of grading and improving the streets will go bravely on, and speaks well for the superior judgment and marked determination of our overseer. A good job has been done on Sixth street in filling up the hollow near Blak's warehouse. It should be carried a little farther, however, and the entrance to the alley brought up to a level with the sidewalk and planked over, dispensing with that murderous jumping off place.

SHAVE will be held to-morrow at the Congregational church at the usual hours by Rev. C. A. Conant. In the evening Mr. Conant proposes to open a course of lectures to be continued each alternate Sabbath evening hereafter, upon religious subjects. His subject to-morrow evening will be "The Evidence of Christianity." This is a subject that is obtaining a good deal of attention just now throughout the country, and it will doubtless be of interest to all to attend and hear this lecture.

The Rhode Island girl who wanted to have her hair blonded so that she would look like St. Cecilia, as she would pump at a melodeon and sing sentimental songs by the hour, but used to get Oh I so tired the minute she sat down before a Sewing Machine, had her "dread" excuse knocked higher than Gilroy's Kite when her mother bought a Light-Running "Domestic" Machine. And after a week she gave up the idea of blonding her hair, and gave that melodeon more repose than it had known in a year and in a fortnight received an offer of marriage, and said she would, just as soon as she had made up her tresses on the "Domestic" Sewing Machine.

The Summer term of St. Paul's Parish high school will open on Tuesday, May 15th, with Rev. H. Root, A. M., as principal, assisted by an able corps of teachers. Instruction will be given in all branches usually taught in a high grade of schools, including the classics, natural science, mathematics, modern languages and music, and will be calculated to meet a want long felt in this section of the State. Board and lodging will be furnished to pupils from a distance at reasonable rates. Tuition, per term of ten weeks, will be, in the primary department, $3.00; intermediate and upper classes, $5.00.

A FIRE broke out in the kitchen roof of the residence of Mr. W. Davis, on Fifth street, next door to our humble cot, on Tuesday morning last at about six o'clock, caused by a disjoined stove pipe. It was fortunately discovered by Mr. F. Moorman before it had gained much headway, and was soon extinguished with the aid of a few neighbors before any material damage was done beyond a spoiled breakfast, soiled carpets and a saturated kitchen. We can appreciate an item for the paper at almost any time and under almost any circumstances, but this was rather closer home than would be altogether comfortable next time, and pretty early in the morning besides.

"THE LORD'S LAND," BY REV. H. B. RIDGWAY.

The latest, most complete and best book on the Holy Land; is elegantly illustrated with new and original engravings, showing scenes of the Holy Land as they appear to-day.

Bishop James'—The statements of this book are minutely and carefully made, the description graphic and beautiful, the pictures of scenes and places vivid and impressive.

Bishop Wiley—Dr. Ridgway proves himself an admirable traveler and careful observer, and is really master of the art of narrative and description.

"Zion's Herald"—No publishing house in this country has ever issued a handsomer book in mechanical execution than "The Lord's Land."

Rev. C. A. Conant—"The Lord's Land" throws a flood of light on many otherwise obscure passages in Scripture. After having seen and examined it, I most heartily recommend it as a desirable and useful book."

BOSSHEE'S GERMAN STRIP can now be purchased right at home, it is the most successful preparation ever introduced to our people. It works like a charm in all cases of Consumption, Pneumonia, Hemorrhages, Asthma, severe Coughs, Croup and all other Throat and Lung Diseases. No person has ever used this medicine without getting immediate relief, yet there are a great many poor, suffering skeptical persons going about our streets with a suspicious cough, and the voice of consumption coming from their lungs, that will not try it. If you die it is your own fault, as you can go to your druggist, N. McEadden, Brainerd, Minn., and get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try it; three doses will relieve any case. Regular size only 75 cts.

FOR THE BOYS.

A comprehensive school inspector asked an Aberdeen class if any one could tell him anything remarkable in the life of Moses. Boys: "Yes, sir; he was the only man who broke all the commandments at once."

"Minnie has been to see me to-day," said a little five-year-old, "and she behaved like a little lady." "I hope you did, too," said her mother. "Yes, indeed, I did: I turned smelters for her on the bed."

Even if a boy is always whistling "I want to be an angel," it is just as well to keep the preserved pears on the top shelf of the pantry.

Children are sent into the world to teach us how lovely angels are; but when a man finds himself pasted to the seat of a chair by a piece of spruce gum he never thinks of this.

This is the time of year when the average boy with a new pair of rubber boots will go half a mile out of his way to strike a pool of standing water, and when he gets over the wet spot looks all around him to see if he has been observed by any one. If he sees he has been noticed he elevates his head, and with his hands in his pockets, commences whistling "Hold the fort" with the self-satisfied air of having accomplished his highest ambition.—[Uncle Dudley.]

What's the Use?—What's the use? It is the common saying with the young in regard to hard, distasteful studies. "They mean to do something in life far different from anything that will require dull, dry studies to be brought into play. But leaving out of the question the mental discipline got from them—which is, after all, the main object of study—these very things may be turned to excellent account in after years.

"My teacher made me study surveying twenty-five years ago," said a gentleman, who had lost his property, "and now I am glad. I can get a good situation by such means, and a high salary."

A certain French king used to regret, with great bitterness, the deficiency of his education, when surrounded by men of learning and the highest culture. He reproached the memory of those who had been so indulgent to his idleness, and said, with bitter sarcasm,

"Was there not birch enough in the forests of Fontainebleau?"
