The Car has put a stop to the purchase of American locomotives and railroad coaches by decreeing that the Russian must manufacture these things for themselves.

Woolen manufacturers in Rhode Island report more encouraging prospects than at any time in the last three years. Nearly all the mills are working on advance orders.

Students of Russian history state that for several hundred years no quarter of a century has passed without the annexation of more or less territory to Russian dominions.

The municipal clocks of Vienna are moved in accord, by means of pneumatic tubes, with a central clock. Every minute a wave of compressed air is sent through the tubes, causing the hands to move.

Churchgoers in Mexico are subject to a new annoyance. Skillful thieves have trained dogs to go quietly into church and steal handkerchiefs from ladies who are so deeply engrossed in their devotions as not to notice the theft.

The first submarine cable was laid across the Strait of Dover, twenty seven years ago. It parted next day, and the first working cable was laid, in 1851, on the same route. The network of cable has now extended so far that when Asia is united to America by cabling the Pacific, the electric globe around the world will be complete from east to west, as it now is between north and south.

The surmise that many of the persons run over by railroad trains have been previously murdered is usually not susceptible of proof. An engineer on the Louisville and Chicago railroad, however, applied the brakes so promptly that the body he saw ahead on the track was not struck. It was found that the man had been robbed, almost killed, and then placed where a train would be likely to obliterate all evidence of the crime.

Ten Texan cattle breeders alone own 1,035,000 cattle, besides horses and mules, and have 689,000 acres of enclosed pasturage. In 1870 the statistics showed that the State contained 434,304 horses, 61,322 mules and asses, 428,048 milch cows, 132,400 oxen, and 2,933,045, other cattle; or for all the owners in the State, only 2,468,000 more than are now owned by ten men alone.

The clergyman in Quincy, Illinois, who changed a twenty dollar greenback for a young man whom he married to a bogus woman, will hereafter be more discretionary as to the people whom he unites in matrimony. The young woman turned out to be a boy in feminine apparel, and the pair ran in two different directions as soon as it was discovered that they were as counterfeit as the twenty-dollar note.

According to an official statement of the Bank of England, the stock of paid notes for seven years is about ninety-four millions in number, and they fill eighteen thousand boxes, which, if placed side by side would reach three miles. The notes placed in a pile would be eight miles high; or if joined end to end, they would form a ribbon fifteen thousand miles long. This superficial extent is more than that of Hyde Park. The original value was three thousand million pounds, and their weight over one hundred and twelve tons.

A naturalist walks boldly to the front and announces that the preservation of Jonah in the whale's belly was not a miracle. The throat of the whale is large, and provided with a bag or intestine, so considerable in size, that whales frequently take into it two of their young when weak, and especially during a tempest. As this receptacle is furnished with two vents that serve for inspiration, it is claimed that Jonah could have lived there comfortably, and with a reasonable amount of furniture, for many years, provided he could obtain food and drink.

An amendment to the Virginia Constitution recently adopted makes the payment of a capitation tax a condition of the exercise of the right of suffrage. The capitation tax is a fruitful cause of corruption in elections. The payment of the taxes of poor voters by rich candidates is a step in the direction of more shameless bribery. This has been demonstrated by the experience of Rhode Island, where wealthy men, without any recommendation but wealth, have repeatedly bought the Governorship by buying the electors.

Vancouver's Island furnishes a tragic love story. A savage native courted a girl belonging to his tribe, and gave her blankets according to custom. She was cool, but she gave him to understand that more blankets would be effective. The lover brought them yet she demanded more. He hunted, fished, and stole from the white settlers until he had acquired the number of blankets mentioned, and brought them to her. She again advanced the knife and killed her.

Although Prof. Swing's church in Chicago is not connected with any denomination, it keeps up a very healthy and prosperous existence, which is a rare thing for an independent church to do. It has about 500 members, half of whom have been converted under Dr. Swing's ministry. It maintains benevolent societies which have during the past year spent about $2,000 in clothing poor people. The condition of the church treasury is phenomenal. It has cash enough on hand to pay all expenses, including salary and rent, to next April, and leave a balance of $6,000.

Insanity, once unknown among the negroes, has become a great and increasing affliction. To relieve it Virginia has established an insane asylum for negroes, said to be the only one in the world, where more than 300 of them are cared for.

RUSSIA'S WAR WITH TURKEY.

The Grand Duke Nicholas, at the head of the eighth army corps, crossed the Danube near Scutaria on the 27th, and drove the Turks from their positions. Boats with troops were sent across the river and the Grand Duke's army crossed the Danube at a point where the Turkish army had been burned by bombardment. Russian troops were crossing the Danube in great numbers, and were not far from Yanis, assisted by islands between the banks, and terrible fighting is going on there, and the Danube is almost red with the enemy. Another crossing is completely expected at Tuzludag, opposite Nicopol.

The bombardment of Ruschuk, conducted by the Danube fleet, commenced on the 26th. The Russian troops are crossing the Danube in great numbers, and are not far from Yanis, assisted by islands between the banks, and terrible fighting is going on there, and the Danube is almost red with the enemy. Another crossing is completely expected at Tuzludag, opposite Nicopol.

A special cable dispatch states that bloody fighting is going on at Erzerum. The Russian troops are crossing the Danube in great numbers, and are not far from Yanis, assisted by islands between the banks, and terrible fighting is going on there, and the Danube is almost red with the enemy. Another crossing is completely expected at Tuzludag, opposite Nicopol.
