New Indian Outrages.
With startling proximity upon the very heels of the ungodly Sittling Commission and the limitation of the supplies of the country, the murderers of the way from Brainerd to Park, Minn., have, to our ears, the appalling intelligence of new and blood-curdling Indian outrages, if possible exceeding previous attacks in atrocity and dealt apparently with refined cruelty. The reports are that warriors and chiefs from the upper Missouri have been seen in the vicinity of Brainerd.

Revolution Contingent.
The recent temporary Democratic majority in the Senate of the United States, obtained through a combination of circumstances, has set the Democratic Party all on edge, and the ungodly Tilden has burst forth in the following "War against special" embarking to the world—if it possesses such of support at all—the unsubstantial tendency of our governmental prospects, and disturbing again our financial and commercial horizon, only recently calmed.

Subjects of the Malheur Branch and the Glyndon Cut-off.
The completion of the Brainerd Branch and the Glyndon Cut-off, has caused a marked increase in the traffic of the N. P. road, and of those points. Formerly the N. P. road had all the freight and travel of Dakota, Manitoba and the Black Hills country from the Junction west; but now nearly all the business which comes from, or passes through, St. Paul & Minneapolis, goes over the N. P. road, or over the St. Paul & Pacific to Glyndon; and there are apparently well grounded rumors of a combination between the St. Paul & Duluth and the St.
Paul & Pacific roads, to even equal the N. P. road out of the freight brought up like a tide, and bound for Manitoba, by carrying it over the N. P. road, and then up to Glyndon on the St. Paul & Pacific road. We do not know that it makes any special difference to Duluth as to what road, or roads shall carry such Manitoba freight, or as to what road shall carry the freight from Chigo, St. Paul and Minneapolis, to the New Northwest, but it is evident that the N. P. road will soon have to "do something" in self defense.

And now it transpires that the greedy savages who were banqueting, kissed and founded by a Bismarck, a diene, mixed and dined by statisticians, interviewed and reported by sceptical press-agents and paraded and dined about the country in the name of the war, the people who were banqueting, kissed and
