Attorney at Law,

FRONT STREET,

BRainerd, MINN.

Beats Turner has turned up as an actor. He has been arrested on a charge of being a burglar at the Millington at Fort Snelling.

The debt of the Pennsylvania R. R. is $1,000,000, and the stock is worth $1,000,000.

The Chicago water, L. D. Lear, won the international match in London. He made the best time on record.

The late James Goodhue, the wealthiest man in Hartford, Conn., left a property estate of $1,000,000.

There is one lot of land in the city

North Georgia that has yielded over $1, 000,000 in 10 days.

Gen. W. S. Schell, of Pa., has been appointed Regent of the U. S.

Trust, vice J. M. Allison, deceased.

Some men are born great, and some are made. The late J. M. Allison, deceased, was one of the latter class.

The Blue Earth City Post says W. T.

Leah, near Rochester, and another near Centerville, has been pardoned out by President Hayes.

C. O. Storvick, Secretary of the Legislative Council, has been elected thanks for a copy of the annual report of the Board for 1877.

John Morrison is recovering. Death in this case appears to have thrown up the specter of a general election, and is a little out of training.—E. W.

McIntyre, a member of the Iowa legislature, was killed by a horse on the four quency while death had been known.

The Jackson Journal is eight years old and a live journal, and its publisher desires to purchase a new printing press, to enlarge and improve it during the year, says nothing of his design upon the wooden index of the State of Iowa.—Times, E. W. T.

The State Asylum for the Insane at St. Peter is receiving the oversight of
