The home of President Hayes went down at the municipal hotel today.

The law for foreclosing mortgages by foreclosure was late into effect on the first of April.

The United States Land Office at Detroit, Mich., is to be removed to Crookston, Minn.

The Brainerd Tribune has failed to reach our table for several weeks.

Mr. H. Robinson will open a printing office in Brainerd in a few days.

Gen'l. L. R. Sawyer took his departure yesterday for Washington in the interest of the Wisconsin bill for the extension of the Northern Pacific railroad.

The "Boss," G. W. M. Wood, died at Ludlow, Iowa, at high noon yesterday, and was buried in the cemetery here today.

The Brainerd Tribune devotes a column to a description of the Westinghouse automatic brake which is being introduced on the Northern Pacific train.

While our people are emigrating to the west, western farmers are beginning to organize for emigration on an immense scale to the Southern States.

The first regular train on the N. P. supplied throughout with water, and the new water towers are being put up.

The Window Reporter says we passed through town the other day with blood in our eyes and a railroad in our hands.

Mr. A. P. Tukey, one of the leading lobbyists in sending postal cards to citizens of this county, has been arrested.

By an amendment to the game law passed by the Legislature, no person is permitted to hunt on any land, unless he has a license.

Mr. A. P. Tukey, of Mankato, is one of the most enterprising and reliable men in the north.

There was a most general impression when it was announced that the State Fair was to be held at St. Paul in the fall of 1878.

The Two Fairs. There was a most general impression when it was announced that the State Fair was to be held at St. Paul in the fall of 1878.

Count Your Own Work. Ah! how many wives are wearing out physically and mentally for the lack of a good pair of shoes.

Mein Questions. Is a hen immortal? Her next world is in the future.

Richard Hill, of Superior, Wis., is in Brainerd again, and called at the Tribune office yesterday.

Major George A. Camp, of Minnesota, returned from his tour of inspection on the Mississippi and tributaries of which he estimates that 50 million will be drawn out of Minnesota.

Poking Fun at Up. Brainerd has a physician since the departure of Dr. Rorer for the White Earth Agency, and the Tribune says that he is securing a doctor in the person of a "good amateur."

Never a Friend to the Notorious Merrill. Introductory to a recent article of the Tribune upon the passage of the notable Merrill tax bill, the Globe-Enterprise says:

The Enterprise and other friends of the bill may possibly be fortunate indeed if the thunder and lightning do not burst and flash their awe-inspiring words upon the taxer's eye.

The Minneapolis edition of the Globe-Enterprise is following rhetorical digressions in that city.

"Prepare a shroud of contempt, a coffin of scorn and a grave of disdain for the man who has been so long and so loudly protesting against the public school system."

Jump! Jump! Everywhere! Jump the claim of the bread-winner, jump the claim of the non-proletarian, jump the head of the widow.

From our friend Tom, Shipleigh, right in the heart of the old town of Alton, whom we chanced to meet on the N. P. train one day last week, we get the following statistics of the work in his office for the quarter ending March 31st, 1878.

ST. CLOUD ITEMS. The latest item of interest in this locality is the sudden departure of a young Benedict with his mother-in-law, taking his wife.

Julius McKelvey has made a decision relative to the purchase of the property in the city of St. Cloud.

Al. Clegg, now side-wheel steamer, the St. Cloud, was launched at Brainerd, Minn., and will be ready for service in a few days.

The editor of the Brainerd Tribune is referred to "lose B. Illinois," and some of the towns here consider the remark as personal and get mad about it.

Unwise Emigration. We learn from the Sentinel that a considerable number of farmers from the county have emigrated to Kansas.

A Romantic Marriage. Mr. Clark McKelvey, of Swift County, Minn., has recently been married to a young lady from the city of St. Paul.

It seems that these lovers had constant communication, and a matrimonial proposal on the bride's part.

Summers. District Court, 11th Judicial District. State of Minnesota, vs. John E. Lusk, et al.

Married. Thomas McDowd, at the residence of the bride's parents, on Thursday, the 11th inst.

Major George A. Camp, of Minnesota, returned from his tour of inspection on the Mississippi and tributaries of which he estimates that 50 million will be drawn out of Minnesota.

Elaborate wedding gifts, largely of silverware, are becoming quite the rage here, and it is stated to get all the boys very wise in their matrimonial calculations.

Another evidence of improvement on the Northern Pacific Railroad is the fact that the General Manager, Mr. C. H. Allen, is following rhetorical digressions in that city.

The same of record which is that of a Maine debtor, who cooly informed his creditors in Portland that he intended to leave the city.
