The Great Fair. Col. King returned home on Friday last, from quite an extended trip through Iowa, Missouri, Illinois and Ohio.

The Democrats of the First District have called their convention for July 25. Their assembly in calling it thus early is noteworthy.

General Butler is the noblest straddler of them all. He caucuses with one party and votes with the other.

Dr. A. Geerona has invented and caused to be made a sheet iron legging to use on one legging of his own.

Mr. James Dilworth, one of the leading directors of the Northern Pacific railroad, is very much dissatisfied with the operation of the running arrangements of the Northern Pacific.

Rather an interesting item occurred during the Stanford trial, when lawyer Ross, of Princeton, who was counsel for the defendants, indicated that the rosy hue of county attorney Knapp's sentence is caused by a letter to the governor.

We desire to caution some of our editorial brethren of the democratic persuasion, lest they delude themselves with false hopes.

Referring to the disgraceful interruption of a temperance lecture at Milan, noticed last week, the Wadena Tribune says:

We learn on the Sunday following the above disturbance of Mr. Mason's lecture a crowd, "went for Pete, Schroeder's a crowd, turning the upside down, wrong side out, and smashed things generally, which was followed by a sort of free fight and on Monday morning black eyes were to be seen on the streets of Perham in goodly numbers.

Miss Annie Boving, of Princeton, Miss. Luce County, having recently been slain by the report that she had given birth to a child, comes out with a column array of proofs of the falsehood of the slander, which must cause the villager who originated the hope giving report, feel decidedly cheap and realize the contempt entertained for them by the community.

Mr. B. S. Stevens is a legitt and exhaustive communication to the Little Falls Transcript with the following remarks: "I will not now take the time to refer in detail to the letter of Hon. H. L. Gorham, Brainerd, Minn., dated May 15th, 1878."

A New Waterloo. There was a case of derelict by Judge and a woman's capitation had allowed them to be taken to a market.

A DASTARDLY ATTACK. Mr. W. T. Barnes, a citizen of Deer Creek, Grant County, was shot by a very sad accident, or was the victim of a very dastardly assault on Monday morning.

The particulars as near as we can learn are these: Mr. Barnes was found lying on the side of the road, with his face, head and neck badly cut.

Dr. C. S. G. has invented and caused to be made a sheet iron legging to use on one legging of his own.

Mr. James Dilworth, one of the leading directors of the Northern Pacific railroad, is very much dissatisfied with the operation of the running arrangements of the Northern Pacific.

Col. Houghton was in town on Monday and reported the Pigeon news nearly completed.

Dr. J. K. Bissett, traveling through the country as a doctor, will call and pay his little printing bill at this office.

Judging from the items in the last Tribune, Brainerd is in a fair way to regain its prestige reputation.
