LOCAL.

Turn out and greet President Hayes on Friday next.

The town will be quite deserted next week - all going to the Fair.

Andrew Lawson painter, kalsomine and mason has returned to Braised and may be found at the Leland House, out of working hours.

We erred last week in stating that Paine Bros had sold their market to Belmont & Wilson.

Little Angels, The Orphans, Life Saving, Jim Boat, etc., will give the best brains of cigars at the Post Office store.

A. B. Reika is in town, prepared to do all kinds of house painting.

Joe Reckert's store will be moved to its old site for business to-day.

Miss Chas. H. Atop is prepared to receive pupils during instructions on the piano.

Just received at Lebon's jewelry store a large and new stock of silver water-decorated entirely new styles.

A chicken party (nothing personal to the party) invited by the adjective company of Thos. P. Cantwell, and Joseph...

The romantic "life in the country" was thus described by one of the minstrels at the other evening.

Plague - A disaster here occurred in this city on Thursday, about noon, resulting in the loss of the largest building in the city.

The loss to the theatre was total, including the professional services of the actors, the fixtures, furniture, etc.

The Northern Pacific Exposition, which was carried up to a water-pipe.

The railroad falls to the Fair.

The Great Fair.

Congratulations are cordially in order over the abundant promise of the first grand exposition of the Minnesota Agricultural and Mechanical Association...

In view of these prospects, it is fortunate that the managers of the association are great men of vast resources, long experience and indomitable energy.
