LEGISLATIVE TICKET.

For State Senator: EBER H. BLY, Of Crow Wing Co. For Representative: D. J. CALLEY, Of Mills Lake.

D. D. Preston, Esq., is talked of as a candidate from Hinckley to the Territorial Legislature.

The Brainerd Tribune of Sept. 1st contained a beautiful illustration of the Donnelly cure.—Todd County Argus.

Gen. Washburn's mail at Anoka, shut down on Wednesday afternoon allows the men to leave Donnelly's address at that place.

J. H. Hall, editor of the Fargo Herald, has been named as a candidate for the U. S. land office at Fargo by Hugh, who's term has expired.

H. P. Hall, editor of Donnelly's Star, Paul, Minn., is learning to say "no" rather readily upon his knee and gets a soothing syrup with laudanum for an ailment.

If W. H. Houston is the Republican nominee for senator, the Union will accord him a hearty support; if Mr. Ryan is the nominee, we will support him as the Unionist.

The Brainerd Tribune is informed that "cloud no larger than a man's fist" didn't amount to anything; it was only a boy's hand and very diminutive at that.—Fargo Republican.

J. L. Cator, of Princeton, is a candidate for the Independent Union nomination for the state Senate. Joe will make it hot for the regular Republican nominee.—Princeton Union.

The Union does not bolt the Republican nominee for State Auditor as the Elk River Star asserts. G. P. Whitcomb is only the regular nominee of the same voters and the machine politicians.—Princeton Union.

Old soldiers, read the article printed in the Brainerd Tribune of Sept. 1st, and you will see that you are not alone in your opinion in another column, in reference to Capt. Mahon Black. Four years' honorable service in the United States Army, and a recommendation for any man who seeks your suffrage.—Princeton Union.

Every time the attempt is made to link the names of the Brainerd Tribune in dishonorable alliance with any rascal, or any scheme to defame the people, we expect to make votes for Donnelly there.—Anoka Star and Republican (Den).

Our general friend, W. W. Hartley, Esq., the outspoken editor of the Brainerd Tribune, and a member of the financial Republicans in Crow Wing county, repudiates all the charges made against him by the Brainerd Tribune, and states the name of Capt. Black, the Democratic candidate for State Auditor.—A. DeLacy's Weekly Democrat.

The last issue of the Brainerd Tribune contains the vocabulary of Col. A. Loumbard, its editor and business manager, the paper having been sold to Stanley Loumbard, of the Washington Post, and formerly of the Chicago press, who will turn its coat and make it Democratic. The Col. will be misled from the fraternity on the N. P. and with his able and faithful friend, Ben Bismark, the Northern Pacific country and the Great North-west, will be a prominent advocate and faithful friend. Adm'l Colton, Adm'l.

The New York Herald announces the presence in the East, again of that blabbering pretended priest Tommasi as a vagabond Chippewa Indian, of White Earth, Minn., chasing the citizens of New Jersey and other eastern States. He calls the worthless old impostor he is peddling about the country, "Mantabla chief of the Chippewas." It may be interesting to the people of this Territory, to learn that no such person exists as "Mantabla chief of the Chippewas." It is a fraud perpetrated by a scheming impostor, who is also pleasing to the Chippewas of this Territory and the East. This fraud has been in the East. Among the representations of this attractive priest, was that he had been converted to Catholicism with Tommasi as pastor. That "Mantabla" is a man of great influence, and a misunderstanding occurred between the agent and Tommasi, and that the latter, when the military was ordered to drive him (Tommasi) out, was forced, owing to interference of Secretary of War, to return to Washington.

Legislative.

As will be seen by referring to the preceding elsewhere of the Thirtieth District Convention, held at Anoka, Minn., on Wednesday last, Mr. E. H. Dyer, of this city, received the nomination for the position of State Senator, and Mr. D. A. Casey, of Princeton, Mills Lake county, for the house of representatives.

On the first informal ballot, Mr. Dyer received the entire twenty-eight votes of the convention and Mr. Casey was nominated by acclamation. We are inclined to believe that Mr. Dyer will not only receive the consideration in our pressions we have felt that he was entitled to in times past; but this fact, plus the fact that he is, in all respects, a man of high character and a man of high ability, is sufficient to insure him a hearing before the people of the district.

It is a fact that Mr. Dyer, who is a native of this State, and who has spent his entire life here, is a man of high character and a man of high ability, and who is entitled to the support of the people of the district.
