BRAINERD TRIBUNE

VOL. LVII—NO. 46 BRAINERD, MINNESOTA, SATURDAY, DECEMBER 28, 1878 WHOLE NO. 358.

We have during the past week sent out statements to our subscribers and our subscribers in arrears and shall endeavor to notify all as rapidly as possible.

The Preston Republican has a dissection on playing cards. Wonder if P. has gone into the "pastorhood" again?

S. V. R. Shorwood is re-appointed postmaster at this place. His term having expired, and H. J. King has been appointed as special agent.

The Benton County Press holds titles and Hendrick is its ticket for 1880, pinning its wings to the tail of Blair's coat tail. It is a good ticket and we hope it may win—the main question.

A Defeat Wagon, editor of the Benton County Press, writes us of the arrival of his first born, "the tiniest and cutest little 'printer girl,' we ever saw."

Another non-oid paper, a man named J. Goodrich, is suited upon the taxpayers of the town of Defiance, drawing books, medical attendance, nursing, etc., from the town treasury at a lively rate.

Violations of a Printing Press. A few weeks ago we made mention that Patrigow had procured from H. H. Caldwell his printing press.

Rule of Etiquette. Never look over the shoulder of another who is reading or writing. Never attend the attention of an acquaintance by a touch.

Never enter a room filled with people without a low to the general company. Never fail to answer an invitation, unless you have a very good reason.

It is stated that Mr. Joseph Parkling had the other day on his farm, (Oak Grove) a large number of sheep, and that he had recently been ordered to sell the sheep, and on opening it was found that a considerable amount of the sheep were diseased.

A Shooting accident occurred in town on Monday evening last, by which D. W. Logan, an engineer, was killed.

An Astonishing Fact. A large proportion of the American people are looking down from the effects of Dyspepsia or indigestion.

You Must Cure That Cough. With Shiloh's Consumption Cure, you can cure yourself. It has established the fact that Consumption can be cured.

Have you Dyspepsia, are you constipated, have you a Yellow Skin, Loss of Appetite, Head Ache, etc.?
