A Correction.

Mr. Tamm - With reference to the shooting affair described in your last issue, you state that Mr. Kaley had informed the proprietor of certain articles of the Log Cabin, for which the proprietor repudiated him. It is not the fact. Mr. Kaley did not inform the proprietor of any kind of article, nor did the proprietor ever repudiate Mr. Log Cabin or speak to him in any way about misbehavior on the part of the Log Cabin. The proprietor did say to Mr. Log Cabin that the shooting that his drinking would lead him to employment at the day of N. P. shops, and in justice to himself he ought to stop it entirely, and that was all he said. Fence make the correction. - Dourson.
