BRAINED, MINN. SATURDAY, APRIL 17, 1880. WHOLE NO. 426.

President Winslow. From the present outlook Minnesota is likely to be honored in the coming year for President. While Grant has a large following...

After Grant, Who Winslow or Edmunds? In a recent editorial, criticizing my article on Winslow and the Presidency...

While we have had and continue to feel a very friendly feeling for James G. Blaine and his masterly qualifications...

Edgar A. Pood. Thirty years have passed since the mortal part of this brilliantly gifted poet and writer met its end.

Morse Burdett. Three horses burned on a freight car, three miles west of Brainerd, on the night of the 15th inst.

The Brainerd Boom. Several new buildings are in process of erection. Some eight or ten of the new buildings...

to subjective, so just, to be thus affirmed, is indeed a mystery. It is high time, in fact, to relieve Poe's memory from so intolerable a persecution.

The Northern Pacific will push its road on to completion just as the most notwithstanding the combined lobby of Jay Gould, Tom Scott and the Southern Brigadiers.

A tunnel under the Missouri at Brainerd is contemplated by the Northern Pacific Company in lieu of a bridge. It certainly would be preferable in point of safety, convenience and durability.

Hon. Luke Martin, Postmaster at Duluth, died suddenly on Saturday the 15th inst. at his residence in Duluth. His son, Luke Arthur Martin, has been appointed his successor by the President.

Gov. Howard, of Dakota, died at Pierre, S. D., on the 15th inst. The Secretary of President Hayes, Mr. Rogers, is talked of as his probable successor.

Madie Sugar. And now comes the main matter (I) with my fingers first of the fruit from the Spring basket, only 12 cents per pound, and going just at that.

My First Meditations of Love. We have Monday at 10 p. m. The pale moon glides majestically through the western sky.

I KISSED YOU. [The following, which is the answer to the "I Kissed You" puzzle, has been sent to me by a friend who has both the original theme and the answer.]

INGERSOLL'S MASTERPIECE. His Famous Address to the Soldiers of Indianapolis, Sept. 18, 1862.

I am opposed to the Democratic party, and I will vote for the Republican party. I am not a Democrat, and I will not be one.

The sympathy of the Trunk is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Breidfeld who have just been bereaved on Wednesday evening last by the death of their little seven-year old daughter so close to her mother's heart that she died within two little ones are now quite low with that dread disease, typhoid fever.

From the Sturgis, Mich., Weekly Mr. John Bras, living in Sherman Township, informed us a few days ago that his feet had been so terribly frost-bitten that he could hardly stand the pains caused thereby. It happened on the 15th of St. Jacobs On—which he always keeps heavily-rubbed his feet twice with the remedy and the pain disappeared entirely.

He not only values St. Jacobs On but he also values it for his other very painful diseases, to which making it subject, but he also asserts that his patient, who had been afflicted with a severe case of rheumatism and sciatica, was cured by the use of St. Jacobs On. He says that he has cured many other cases of the same kind.

Tramps are becoming more numerous and insolent every day. One gang of them, who were on the corner on Fourth street the other day and demanded something to eat of Mrs. Clementson, who refused to give them, being told that they would be taken care of, they were taken care of by the police.
