The present issue of the Tribune has been delayed from Saturday to this Monday by a combination of circumstances at once unavoidable and unfortunate.

The windmill boom is just a boom. It has primaried! Who is it that says that?

The fight tightens, but who is the top man? We mean for president.

Democracy weakens, and New York democratically sack a prospective corpse for November next.

The Fargo Daily Argus says "Bismarck is principally composed of non-industrial men, stockholders, saloon-keepers, bull-whackers and half-breeds."

The month of April, while somewhat cold, has been very agreeable, and all things are commencing to flourish.

The presidential contest shows a continual gain for Grant, but the Tribune still insists that Grant will decline the nomination if tendered him.

There is a joke somewhere. A candidate for president is being put forward as a presidential candidate.

A happy occasion. A double wedding ceremony was performed Saturday afternoon, April 24th, at the office of C. R. Sleeper.

The St. Paul Pioneer Press, the leading paper in this State, is fully upon the Tannous platform this morning, and avows that the probability increases that the Republican candidate for president will be William Washburn.

INGERSOLL'S MASTERPIECE. His Famous Address to the Soldiers at Valley Forge, Sept. 21, 1876. I am a Republican, I will tell you.

Hon. W. K. Rogers and the Dakota Governorship. Hon. W. K. Rogers, favorably mentioned for the Governorship of Dakota, is private secretary to President Hayes.

The Missouri Dilemma. The terrific cyclone that visited Missouri and devastated the town of Summit near Springfield, Mo., has left a sad and a fearful record.

The Fargo Daily Argus, one of the strongest Grant advocates in the Northwest, has recently published an editorially of late, and now admits that in case Grant is not, from any cause, the nominee at Chicago, the eyes of the sturdiest majority of the Republican party would turn to Senator William of Minnesota.
