

BRAINED TRIBUNE

EVERY SATURDAY, BY HARTLEY BROS., Proprietors. W. W. HARTLEY, Editor. CAPT. C. R. STARRS, Associate Editor.

A Child's bargain—Hancock to Genial. You let me fall and I'll not trouble you.

March you gentlemen, and get your nation Democratic way, in Southern dictation. How do you like it, there, outcasts! That is, if you can!

The Democratic ticket reminds the Springfield Union of the pedigree an old farmer gave to his dog. "Part New-Foundland and the rest, other dogs."

Democrats need not be ever elated over the result of the Cincinnati Convention. It was only a party Southern every day of the drivers' talk, that makes willing slaves of Northern doughfaces.

Picture a Northern doughface, snubbing to have his neck in a Southern noose. He is a rebel breaker and turning them himself inside out, so he has turned red all his wealth, and is thinking his face that he is a Democrat.

The Democrat who damned soldiers for voluntarily fighting rebels during the war, will march up to the Cincinnati Convention and deposit his little ballot with his mouth full of boiled corn, and remonstrations stinking out of every pore. Then he can tell the Cincinnati Convention, and his Southern confederate party, that he will support the government of the name of "Mr. Trazzy." That is if Hancock is elected.

A rather significant incident in the fact that the Democratic National Committee was unable to find a clergyman in the present Convention with prayer and thought. Col. Robinson, the chairman says: "I'll be damned, but I don't think a Democrat shall pray at this Convention with prayer, and if I can't get a Democratic preacher, I'll be damned, but I will not pray." The Rev. C. W. Wendt, a Republican, was finally called upon and actually performed that ceremony.

The Fargo Republican accredits the Brainerd Tribune with the remark that "The abuse of C. T. McCoy for having voted for Grant at the election is scarcely in order. He was not instructed for Brainerd, and was before his selection, not only in the position of man and in favor of Grant."

The Brainerd Tribune's reasoning of Mr. McCoy or his reasons for voting as he did and his made no reference to the premises of his position. The Republican's statements are correct, we agree with its position concerning the de-moucing Mr. McCoy's faithfulness in doing.

Monday of this week, Judge O. P. Stewart held a special session of court at Brainerd for the purpose of hearing the habeas corpus issued in behalf of John Taylor, Henry Taylor and Edward McCabe, who were committed by Justice Tibbets of Aitkin county June 17th, 1890, in default of bail.

Justice Tibbets, of Aitkin county, June 17th, 1890, in default of bail, committed by him in the sum of two thousand dollars each for their appearance at the general term of the court at Brainerd on a charge of arson. J. W. Hollant, Esq., appeared and filed papers for Henry Metz, and C. R. Hooper, Esq., for Edward McCabe. After hearing argument by counsel, the bail of Taylor and McCabe was reduced to $500 each. McCabe having previously been committed by Justice Tibbets, Taylor was happy as a couple. We learn that the people of Aitkin county generally sympathize with the defendants. The presumption is that neither of these men had anything to do with the burning of the store, and having admitted that he did burn it, and upon arrest for the offence, had a hearing before Justice Tibbets, who held to answer the charge, and was jumped the county. Neither of the parties first committed have the appearance of criminals, and from what we can gather, we are satisfied that they are not the guilty parties.

Mon. E. R. Hoar. We cannot let the occasion pass, without our humble way, expressing our opinion of the man who has been elected to the late Chicago Convention. What ever may be said of his political views, "no one looking at the man, his postures of character, his decided haughty and haughty, his quick perceptions, and ready tact in the proper treatment and disposition of the most intricate questions, requiring skill and far seeing judgment, to terminate satisfactorily, can with any degree of fairness, come to any other conclusion than that Judge Hoar is a splendid mind, thoroughly trained and cultivated, and fit to grace any position. With a hearing dignified, and a clear and logical mind, he is certainly a perfect creature in the arts of splendid address. The ease with which he marshals his mental resources, and his reserve is indicative of that perfect mental training and experience which stamps him as a remarkable man—remarkable for his learning, his well balanced mind, his candor, sincerity, and, over all, the superior of his faculties to a man of his rank, and more prominent without being intrusive, in other words, remarkable as being a conscientiously inbred-ingrained, in full possession and control of his great soul, such a man can never be a traitor to his trust. He is a safe advisor, the great councillor, the worthy advocate of great principles, every inch a man. Such a man is Judge E. R. Hoar, the able and honest chief-magistrate of our late National Convention. Long may he see the recipient of the honorable trust and confidence of his fellow men and nation.

Blow-up. A terrible accident occurred on Lake Minnetonka Thursday morning in the blowing up of the Excelsior Steamer "Mary" causing the death of several persons, and serious injury to many more. The boat was lost, being the pier at the St. Louis Hotel. Then the explosion occurred, blowing the engine screen rods and mangle, him almost beyond recognition. Three others were killed outright. The survivors were taken to the hospital, and it is thought at this writing that they will all recover. When will these horrors cease?

Off for the North Pole. Capt. Hunt, of a recent expedition has advised at last, despite the government's adverse report of the safety of the vessel Gullaire. The private who were deputed by the government to accompany the expedition will now have to return to their posts on the frontier. Lieutenants Doane and Howe, however, have obtained leave of absence, and will go, as a special to the Pioneer Press says that Lieut. Doane will go to a station on Lake Franklin Bay, where the colony will put up with the government, and if they will then return with Gullaire, and the crew of Capt. Hunt's former expedition and fifteen men, Massachusetts.
