CURRENT TOPICS.

A writer in the Sentinel says that out of 35,000 hogs imported into Hamburg last year, 397 were found to contain trichinae, while 14,000 of the same variety left were found to be more seriously infested.

LITTLE WOLF, who was sixteen years old when the declaration was signed, but the certificate was Washington, acted as his body servant, died recently in his wigwam, near where he was born in 1760, on the St. Croix river in Wisconsin, his generation being the first to die.

A list of the railroad lines either directly or indirectly under the control of Mr. Jay Gould has been published in a place which it appears that he now operates, under the Wabash consolidation, about $1,168 million, or nearly one-third of the entire capital of the railroads of the United States, and it is safe to say that, as far as mileage is concerned, this is the largest combination of roads in the control of any individual or corporation in the world.

It is reported from Hartford, Conn., that a gentleman of that city has recently completed a carriage for use on ordinary roads, to be propelled solely by compressed air. The carriage is simple in construction, and otherwise the carriage will resemble those commonly used. The machinery, in a very compact form, is under the rear of the carriage, and will be taken into it from a reservoir in sufficient quantity to furnish motor power for a run of many miles.

A coin is in itself a history. There was once a half cent piece of African wax, one of the kind known as Pandos, which History told that Pandos King Phryxus collected those forces which he brought with him to Italy, but no one could put a grain of sand on Pandos. Eight years ago a coin came under the strap of a numismatist. There was a small inscription on it, but it was not a letter, there was an emblem, indicative of a well known king. The king was everything was revealed with the same certainty as if the piece of money had been an atlas, and Pandos, the mythical coin, at once became a fact, and its position in British history, which it did not weigh more than a quarter of a dollar, because it cleared up the mystery of Pandos, was worth the British Museum $1,000, the price they paid.

THEIR D'ARCYIA is the name of a small group of islands lying midway between North America and the African continent, two years ago the late Mabel Clark was wrecked on one of these islands, and the crew kindly rescued by the islanders. For their services they received partial reward from the United States government. These islanders are ethnically of 109 in number, mostly descended from a crew of a British vessel, and one of a German vessel, and one of a British vessel. The islanders were rescued by the late Mabel Clark, and she was rescued by the islanders. The islanders were rescued by the late Mabel Clark, and she was rescued by the islanders.

Some Italian Physicians have been in visiting the celebrated Greenwood cemetery, Brooklyn, for 1578, there were 231 lots sold last year, making a grand total of 26,076. There were 5,129 burials, making an average of 7.74 burials per gross lot, amounting to $452,307.26. The gross burials, including the funeral expenses, which aggregated $271,000, amounted to $446,000. The gross amount for the improvement and permanent care of the cemetery, is now $505,231.31, and in 1878, there were $13,478.15. During the year 1878, there were 10,000 burials and 488 headstones were erected. The report says: "The interest in the cemetery has been a large lot of a favorite dog, elicited much sympathy, and was the occasion of many requests, and addressed to the trustees, requesting them to provide for the dog in the future." The intensity of feeling exhibited could not be reflected, and the board accordingly passed a resolution providing for the dog's maintenance of the cemetery.
