United States Senator. The question as to who shall be elected this winter at Senator McMillan's successor in the United States Senate, it appears to us receiving an unnecessary amount of discussion in political circles.

Senator McMillan has represented our State with ability, dignity and honor to himself and constituency for the past five years. He early developed an influence in the United States Senate seldom reached by new members in that able and dignified body and particularly by a man of the gifted Senator's comparative youth.

The St. Paul Pioneer press in a double headed editorial on Wednesday morning sought to create a sensation and stir up an opposition to Senator McMillan's return by announcing the Honorable Secretary of War—Senator Ramsey—as a long expected successor.

Mr. C. F. A. M., on Friday evening the 17th inst., as follows: N. McFadden, W. M.; R. Hartley, S. W.; A. O. Canfield, J. W.; Wm. Ferris, Treasurer, T. H. H. Secretary.

Mr. C. F. A. M. kindred who tendered his resignation as assistant commissioner of the Northern Pacific railroad last November, when he was in charge of the near Valley City, Dakota, is now in New York city with family.

Mr. Kindred is familiar with all the good points in north Minnesota and Dakota and will represent the interests of one of her citizens in the board of commissioners, and one who is in every way qualified to succeed to the position.

forgot letter producers to make it appear that Gen. C. A. Arthur was born in Canada, and consequently is not eligible to the vice-presidency. The record of his birth at Fairfield, Vermont, however, is largely in their favor.

The Brainerd branch of the N. P. Railroad office was removed to St. Paul this week in pursuance of the plan mediated for some time past by Mr. Powers, the land commissioner, of consulting the two offices and bringing the plans and records together. Mr. Kindred, the general agent, in anticipation of this change, resigned his position some months since, not desiring to leave Brainerd and is now writing to the East and South with a view to return here in the spring. Mr. F. B. Thompson, clerk, also has resigned and will remain here in charge of his office of county auditor.
