FABER FRANCOIS, See Miss Caley's new suit!

This is the spring fever season. Clean up the irts thoroughly. Janestown has a $180000 brewery. Home to re-quit—acquire at this office.

Dr. Conger has been visiting in Fargo. His health is improving in Fargo. Six boarders at the county hotel now. Hatvey's Black Forty are in St. Paul.

A big washout is reported near Maudslayi. The "Alphah" is all the go with the boys just now. Sheriff Mertz is now running his ferry full blast.

Fishing expeditions are already being fitted out. Dr. Conger has his dental office fitted up in his style. The Hennepin county jail is said to be tumbling down.

A great rush for new spring hats at Mrs. C. Grandelintoy's. Reports of damaging floods and freshets are still alarming.

C. B. Steper and N. McPhalen went to St. Paul last Friday. Have you perceived Mrs. Grandelintoy's new advertisement? A great amount of counterfeit coin is said to be in circulation.

It is reported that the ice up above is nearly all out of the river. The Burlington (Ia.) Haystack prospectus may be found in this issue. A new signature has just been created opposite the Tribune office.

The Fargo Argus is continually getting into its habit of envenoming the public's mind by exaggeration, as well as a recognized gift for falsifying. The Tribune is the staunch and reliable paper of Fargo, and the one to be relied upon.

Miss Jennie White was the recipient of a million surprise last Monday evening. A number of her young friends published in it and the season was spent in social pliancy which visited to Miss White that her return to Brainerd was heartily appreciated.

J. A. Starcher has sold his entire stock of groceries, etc., to Dan Smith, the latter will continue the business at the old stand and will constantly keep on hand a choice stock of his line, and will be pleased to see all his old friends and new ones as well.

Other people are pulled, why can't we be served likewise? How good from the Cleveland (Ohio) Herald of April 18th: "Mr. A. E. Chase, formerly of the employ of J. H. Savage, of this city, is now editor and publisher of the Brainerd (Minn.) Tribune, one of the brightest and most interesting newspapers in the Northwest."

A son and daughter of John C. Smith, of the town of Parker, killed a bear a few days ago. The bear was looking for the spot the animal, but did not kill it. Miss Smith then armed herself with an ax and cut the bear the hole by which he went in, but whether it started to come out, still he never had time to expose his body.

W. H. Simmons, who has for some time past held the position of assistant engineer at the office in Brainerd, has returned to the office on the Canadian branch, for which point he has started last Thursday evening. He is succeeded by James Bunce, a gentleman who has had considerable experience in that business.

It is expected that a brother of Mr. Bunce will accept the appointment of assistant engineer on this branch. A few have been somewhat troubled in spirit about the N. P. shops—as to whether they would be erected in Brainerd or not, and that of that kind of shop. For the peace of mind of those who have been troubled by this question, we have to say that the shops will be erected here, and would be a great benefit to the community.

The Fargo Republican of last Wednesday contains this item: "N. L. Heath, of Brainerd, arrived in Fargo yesterday from Mandan. He reports that the winter in the heart river began to break Sunday morning, and that the water was in the river for the first time since the 10th of January. For the peace of mind of those who have been troubled by this question, we have to say that the shops will be erected here, and would be a great benefit to the community."
