CHASE & FRATER, Proprietors. ARTHUR E. CHASE, Editor. SATURDAY, JULY 30th, 1881.

JOHN C. BURCH, secretary of the U. S. Senate, died Thursday, from heart disease. Another alleged plot to assassinate the czar is reported, and the usual number of arrests of suspected patriots...

The feeling that the Machine is to blame for the assassination is felt to the farthest borders of the Union. The Portland Oregonian, the leading journal on the upper pacific coast, where local opinion is as free as it can be anywhere from personal or political prejudice...

The "Best Society" in Water. There are every season at Cape May and Long Branch, women so admired for the water, that if in France they returned forth they would receive the stern attention of the police...

Five years ago the feminine arms and legs and busts were as carefully kept from view at the seaside as they were in the cities...

are ready for anything. They mount on men's shoulders and dive therefrom; they are ducked and floated and hugged by fellows of whom, not infrequently, they know nothing at all, and to whom they are often introduced but ten minutes before.—Exchange

He looked at the festival. A gold in his fist. A whizz-whizz fluid beamed. The man's lips lighted gleamed. Quoth he, 'I wish that I could get a pair of trousers made.' For summer wear use this as the Consumptive lemonade.

Our readers will remember that mention was made in last week's issue, of an unfair and unscrupulous article in the Marshalltown Register. Logically, we have lately been favored with a copy of the 'Reflector', a sly paper, published at that place, in which was contained a production from the pen of Mr. Joe E. Cavanaugh, of this place, setting forth the manner in their proper attitude, and successfully quashing the first night squib in the E. Z.

CAPERS OF CUPID. Mr. Wm. E. Martin and Miss George E. Evans, the Contracting Parties.

Applauds his hymns invaded the circles of Brainerd's best, and once more a ripple of sensation has awakened our people to the fact that one of our leading business men has actually 'gone and got married.' For some time back, rumors have been afloat to the effect that our worthy townsman, Wm. E. Martin, was soon to lead to the altar of Brainerd's fair daughters, but few dreamed that the consummation of ever, will, evidently considering that he had tarried long enough on this mundane sphere in single misery, content to take unto himself a better half, and on Wednesday of this week, he was united in the sacred relations of matrimony to Miss George D. Evans, daughter of Mr. Geo. D. Evans, proprietor of the Ottawa House on Front street. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dr. Hawley, rector of the Episcopal church in Brainerd, the affair occurring at the residence of Mr. Hubert George D. Evans, at 10 o'clock, noon.

The invited guests who were in attendance were Sheriff Metz and wife, H. Veon and wife, J. C. Leland and wife, J. Dewar, S. C. Leland and wife, H. Veon and wife, Frank Hurs and wife, Fred Holman and wife, Miss Nellie Evans, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Harmon, Mr. Hurs and wife, and a large number of the contracting parties, while Sheriff Metz officiated in the presentation. After the ceremony had terminated the party proceeded to investigate a bountiful spread of choice viands which had been prepared by the hostess, Mrs. Gray, which was without exception a model feast. After dinner the ladies of particular merriment occurred with the exception of a ducking received by Mr. Hurs, while endeavoring to inquire into the mystery of the booting on the lake, whereby he lost his balance, and tumbled in the lake, but luckily the water was quite shallow, and a safe landing was secured. Mr. and Mrs. Martin remained until Thursday, when they returned to Brainerd, where they are stopping at the Ottawa House.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin, in their wedded life, the 'Frisco Blade' notes by the most propitious wishes, and the entire office extends their hearty congratulations and wish them all success.

Last evening the wedding party gathered at Mr. H. E. Leland's, and presented the wedded pair with some very fine tokens of their regard in the shape of several pieces of silverware, among which were a case, fish, cream pitcher, sugar bowl, butter dish, spoon holder, molasses pitcher, and a pair of forks, and two sets of spoons, which were received with due appreciation.

Be It Known. Allow me, through the columns of the Tribune, to enter an emphatic denial to the allegations in the editorial published in your issue of the 12th inst., which so grossly vilified the pew of the M. E. Church of this city, and which have been causing so much needless trouble, and preventing the work and gratified it, but my business is not to add to the trouble, but to do what was done by another well known wielder of the brush and palette.

Had I done it, I would have been responsible for the job and made it right. As it is, I don't think I can bear another's burden. Respectfully, T. H. CONNOR.

Be It Known. Eyes Right! To Alva Starbuck and Kizzie Nixon, Brainerd, Minn.
