CELEBRATION EXTRAORDINARY

BRAINED TO THE FRONT
With an Industrial and Trades Procession, Speeches, Cannading, Etc.

Every body who wishes to see the parade, should be at the front, and there will be no doubt that they will be pleased to see the largest parade on the city.

President Arthur, Gen. Grant and other noted personages attended the parade on Monday morning last on the occasion of the Yellowstone Park region.

The last train season building has been pulled down and moved back and a new building is going on the site which will be used as a station, and will be occupied by J. M. Nelson.

An auction sale of tobacco, etc., the remnants of the stock of Mr. Peterson, of the firm of Peterson & Mahan, at tracted considerable attention last Tuesday. The sheriff had charge.

The mammoth advertisement of C. E.
Smith & Co. has crowded some of our other advertisements. It is a very good one, and we will give it a description of the new building and business of this firm.

The different churches will be invited to go and fill up. The proceeds will be divided evenly between the different denominations participating.
A good idea.

Chas. Millspaugh has entered into partnership with C. H. Congdon in the dry business. They now have fifty thousand dollars in stock, and will supply their customers in summer and winter.

The tender about Mr. Fry might have been omitted. The Northern Pacific, which is in several parts of the city, will be the only one. The office of the N. P. Hospital will be a slight inconvenience to the chair, and some of the other.

E. Curno, the man who has been running the Brainerd House, has jumped the track, and is leaving the city. He has sold his property, and is
leaving the city.

C. V. Wadham has leased the 1st floor of the L. O. O. F. building on St. Paul street, and will occupy it with his store as soon as it is ready for occupation. Mr. W. carries a line of goods and has a new location he can make a fine display.

Brainerd must be an awful place for a real estate. The Travlers have a half million dollars in stock, and will be the only one. The office of the N. P. Hospital
other.

The building committee will be closed up for the time being.

More buildings are going up about the city. The following were the names of the buildings.

Mr. Henry Clark died in St. Paul, Monday, Sept. 1st, at the age of 60 years. He was born in England, and was a member of the Brainerd church.

Mr. Geo. S. Canfield went west Monday night to the Yellowstone Park, and will be absent for several weeks. He will be absent for several weeks.

The O'Neill building on the corner of Front and Fourth streets, is going up. The following
building.

A BRILLIANT WEDDING

Marriage of J. E. Smith and Miss E. C. White

According to the invitations previously issued, the above event took place at St.
Paul's Episcopal Church, at the corner of Seventh and Fourth streets, on Wednesday evening,
September 1st, 1893.

The hour for the ceremony was set at 7 o'clock, but long before that hour the church was filled to overflowing. In fact the doorway and entrance was crowded with invited guests to witness the impressive ceremony.

At 7 o'clock the bride and groom, Mr. J. E. Smith and Miss E. C. White, were introduced by the usher, Mr. J. H. White.

The bride was dressed in cream colored gown, with white lace trimmings, and white veil. The groom was dressed in a dark suit, with white shirt and white tie.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev.
Mr. J. H. White, who read the wedding vows, and pronounced the couple man and wife.
