Pennsylvania is rapidly, if not recklessly, destroying her timber. The out-put for 1888, as reckoned in Williamsport, exceeds 400,000, 000 feet...

A sign in an uptown New York liquor store reads: It is said that some one has fourteen days without drinking. Are you any such case?

Senator James F. Wilson, of Iowa, wears all the National colors with grace and dignity. He has a red beard, white hair and blue eyes...

Upon the play-bills distributed in theaters at Berlin the following appears: Ladies are requested to take off their bonnets. The same request might be elsewhere made without interfering with the enjoyment of them who attend the play...

The government of Manitoba yesterday formally applied to the Dominion Parliament for an extension of the Manitoba boundary line to Hudson bay. The extension covers a railroad section of the success of which Canada is interested, but the home government will think twice before enlarging the borders of a territory which has shown its exceedingly difficult to manage in its present proportions...

Much interest was felt in the hearing of the Northern Pacific interest next week preparatory to farming a bill for the forfeiture of its land grants. Nobody is able to determine what portion of the land grant will be effected by the bill, though it is understood Payson and others favor the forfeiture of the entire grant because of failure to comply with the contract...

The Anoka Herald in speaking of Loring Fletcher has following to say in regard to him: It is no use to deny the fact that Loring Fletcher is pushing himself forward as the next representative to Congress from this district, and being a shrewd politician, he is gathering strength. It is true that the Republicans, who do not wish his party disgraced, are in the arena victorious, to come to the front with such a man as an opponent, they are bound to do so. He is a man of great energy and ability, and he is a man of great energy and ability, and he is a man of great energy and ability...

The trial of young Nutt closed yesterday, and the case was given to the jury. The chief feature of the proceedings was the address of Senator Voorhees, who took the occasion to advise all young men situated as was Nutt to use a slogan loudly seven inches deep, instead of seven or eight. This advice, he said, would be a great benefit to the country, and he would go upon exhortation...

From present indications, emigration to the Northwest during the coming season will be the largest in the history of the country. Hard times in the East only tend to force people to seek new homes in the west. And an added incentive to emigration to the great Northwest is the fact that the public domain is being rapidly exhausted. A heavy emigration this year will result in taking up about all of the public lands in the Northwest, who may access to shipping points on the coast, and the new north west. There are thousands of acres of fertile land lying out of doors yet unoccupied, and with a flood of young men, who are flocking to the Northwest, it is not surprising that emigration seasons will result abundantly and long and then take second and third choice...
