It may not be known to some what causes the different colors in bricks. The red color of bricks is due to the iron contained in the clay. In the process of burning, the iron compounds are changed into developing the color. Certain clay-like those in the vicinity of Brainerd for instance - contain little or no iron, and the bricks made from them are light or cream colored.

Representative Flynn has introduced an important bill in the house, which provides that for the aid and support of common schools in the state, that of one mill on the value of the state at large annually, and that the present county school tax of one mill now levied at the option of the county board of representatives be repealed, and that wherever county commissioners fail to levy it, county auditors must do so in the same manner. The bill goes through to the details of the subjects, endorses the suggestions of State Superintendent Kiehn, and the report in regard to the support of common schools, and will be back in the house by Representatives Rogers, the Ramsey county delegate to the representatives Donnelly, Fox, Hendrickson and Shuler, and Senators Cough, Buckman and

Our Southern's case. Ben. Tucker, assistant Indian commissioner, and one of the Globe correspondents to report the case of Southern against Capt. Willie Beahm.

We have no doubt, said he, as to the outcome of this case. But they are not to be hurried out of the reservation in the least. I intend that order to be obeyed.

Beahm is a man of honor, and had the legal phase of the matter very carefully examined.

Beahm has been an attorney for the department for years, and it is time he was dealt with in a way to teach him a lesson. He has been in the habit of starting all sorts of alarming rumors in St. Paul, and it is their way always to get the Indian press to do the talking.

It has been finally settled that the dam will be located and constructed at the brick yard site or not at all. Much as the Dispatch would like to see the works go on in the old way, we do not like to see the scheme die before it has hardly been born because we cannot be entirely pleased in regard to having it exactly as we want it.

We are sorry to say, however, that there are in this city a half dozen or so of citizens who are of that make-up, and that they are not only active, but they are also active in their own way.

WHAT CAME OF IT.

What came of it? The answer was a kind of... a boy, Frank, general, and honest... a widow, with no one to help her train her son...

"O mother, I never could," he said... "I don't know anything about it... I shall tell you the whole of it..."

"You're not a boy," he said... "I don't know anything about it... I shall tell you the whole of it..."
