Brainerd Dispatch.

Official Paper of Crow Wing County. Always Clean and Trustworthy. PUBLISHED WEEKLY. M. H. Zagerman, Editor and Proprietor. T. W. Whitehead, Business Manager.

LOCAL TIME TABLE.
Arrival and Departure of Northern Pacific trains from Brainerd, Minn. to Duluth, Minn. on Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. For full particulars see the Northern Pacific time table.

Local News.

Brady good fishing is reported at the dam near the mouth of the Crow Wing river. Mr. Cullen in visiting his old Brainerd school building. The county commissioners will be in session next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The News office had the misfortune to have their only job press Tuesday. Paul Ostrom is working at Minot, D. T., where he is bound for the Madison county. Harry Brooks and Wm. Ryan went to Duluth yesterday afternoon to attend the race. The police collected $100 from the sale of the automobile belonging to the late Mrs. J. H. Brown. Many of our people are in attendance at the Morrison county agricultural society's annual fair. S. H. Hoar, the deer at How's mill, has been confined to his bed by sickness during the past week. Miss Killea returned from Minneapolis yesterday after visiting her Brainerd friends for some weeks. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Goodman have moved into their elegant new residence on 5th street north which has just been completed. Mrs. Emma Larson, of Moorhead, with her seven-year-old child, was sent to the St. Peter insane asylum yesterday. It is a sad case. People who intend exhibiting articles at the Crow Wing county fair should get in to get them ready. Let the fair be a success this year. In many places throughout this region the rains of the past week have been a relief to the farmers. They do not feel that the crops are in danger. Wm. Falke started for St. Paul yesterday to get the treatment for his eyes which he has been suffering from for the past two months. Blueberry Harry of the News, has a very interesting article about his adventures in his boys, but should furnish a key to his jokes for the benefit of his readers. E. N. Davidson took the early train today for the north. He is on his way to go to attend the United States District Court report which he has several copies of.

R. M. McKenzie has been elected an assistant physician of the Brainerd hospital. He is a graduate of the University of Minnesota, and has had extensive experience in pediatrics here in Brainerd.

The news of the death of Mrs. O. Phillips was received here Wednesday morning. Mrs. Phillips was at one time employed as a clerk in the Willard hotel and had a very interesting career.

L. U. White and family are enjoying a week at A. J. Kimball's, some twenty miles up on the Pine River road. Mr. White would like to be responsible for the grave offense that will be committed against the good laws by the land at during this time.

Several changes of conductors on the Northern Pacific line between Brainerd and Moorhead have occurred recently. The latter has now been transferred to the west of the Northern Pacific, and his run taken by Conductor J. W. Fogarty, who is now in charge of the train.

Some person who has no respect for himself or anyone else had the audacity to steal the chickens, cheese and jam from the store which were given to the M. C. A., and which were kept in their rooms in the bank block. A person who was doing such a thing would steal money from the poor. We wish to know where these are such people right here in Brainerd.

The streets were deserted appearance yesterday, the fire department and band were present in the parade of the fire department. The latter has now been transferred to the west of the Northern Pacific, and his run taken by Conductor J. W. Fogarty, who is now in charge of the train.
