MINNESOTA CULLINGS.

The News of the Week Throughout the Entire State.

It is proposed to combine fair and corn plows at Pipestone in September...

The pastor of the Rev. J. H. Crain and the First Congregational church at Winona last week dissolved.

Anton Sippel, an industrial German farmer residing five miles northwest of Albert Lea, accidentally shot and killed himself.

H. H. Polph of Zumbro township Wabasha county brought in five young ewes and received the bounty...

It is not thought in Winona that the meat inspection bill will advance the price of meat in that city.

Peter Arrst, arrested for criminal conduct in starting a fire which eventually destroyed a barn at Rockville, Stearns county...

News Strengthen of New York Mills was arrested in the instance of the District National bank of Ferguson Falls on the charge of forgery.

A fire occurred in the harness shop James Twinn at Wadena, destroying building and contents...

Five children have been the result of the marriage of Mrs. C. M. Harrison and her husband...

John J. Randall of Winona, was appointed to succeed Ed. Grain Inspector James...

It just came to light that several prominent citizens of Plainville have interested themselves in what seems to be a real thing.

George Diamond and Charles Marshall, evidently tramps, are at present under arrest on charges of grand larceny in the first degree.

A woman's relief corps was organized at Wadena, with the following officers: President, Mrs. A. E....

Perhaps the most unthankful of all the offices to get of the British Empire is that of Chief Secretary for Ireland.

Preparations are already in progress for the coming Chautauqua assembly at Bluepoint park, near Wadena, to be held from July 2 to 12, 1890.
