The annual catch of fish on the European and North American coasts is computed by a German statistician to amount to 160,000 tons.

Prof. often ask how it figured out that a silver dollar is really worth only 80 cents as an exchange.

The silver dollar is worth 42 1/2 cents, only nine-tenths of which is 37 1/2 cents, which is pure silver. Divide the price of an ounce of silver by 450 and multiply the result by 37 1/2 and you have the value of pure silver in a dollar.

The Lenten services will be held in St. Paul's church, before Judge Hoff.
