TALKING BUSINESS WITH BRIGOLI. An Assessee Manager Received a Visit from the Assessee. When James Moriarty was manager of the Emma Adolph Opera company, he was in the habit of going to the Everett House to see him about the engagement.

My dear Sir," he said, "I never can understand each other if you will not listen to what I have to say. We cannot come to terms until you hear me."

Brigoli then launched into another long series of objections. "My dear Sir," expostulated Moriarty again, "will you not go to the point? Go ahead and finish what you have to say and then give me a chance."

So matters drifted along for the afternoon, and they were not nearly an agreement than when they began. Finally Moriarty said, "I'll give you 15 minutes more than I want to have five minutes more."

Brigoli at last consented to give a chance to Moriarty to get to the point. "I'll give you 15 minutes more than I want to have five minutes more."

ROCK'S Cream Powder

The only Cream of Tartar Powder—No Alum—Used in Millions of Homes—The Standard

THE FAVORITE WAY OF HOUSEHOLDS.—Probably every man has some question or other about the question, "Should I use powdered or granulated cream?" The answer is simple. It is not one or the other but both. You will find that the best of results will be obtained by using both. The cream of tartar powder is used in the preparation of the cream, and the granulated cream is used in the preparation of the cake. The cream of tartar powder is used in the preparation of the cream, and the granulated cream is used in the preparation of the cake.
