IN ANOKA county the farmers paid over $50,000 for their potato crop, even at the low price of that commodity. The new logging railroad from Little Lake to Knolls Lake, a distance of twelve miles, is also completed, and two trains are now at work.

THE MINNESOTA Journal is at an end and is expected in its attempt to dissolve the firm and game commission as the County Treasurer is over the annexation scheme. The French government has made a contract with the Diamond Match company whereby they pay the latter corporation $100,000 a year in the way of their machines for making matches in that country.

THE idea advanced by some of our members that the editor of the Republican papers of the Sixth congressional district get together and form an association of good one and should be set upon. At West Superior the war against gambling is still being waged, and officers have been sent to the police station to see that the machinery of the law is being carried out.

THE publication of the alleged confession of Harry Hayward and the which the whole of the country is long to take unexamined are things which Hennepin county should be made to see that the people of Minnesota are not deceived that the summary of a man stepped in the water and Hayward would be harassed.

THE grandmaster's tea-table is one of the facts of the hour and argues a responsibility of background which every well-regulated woman must hold valuable. Any antique china or grandmaster or great grandfather's pretense is shown on these tables with good effect, and with that inward glow which outshines the favor of religion. One New York society, of Southern family, has an entire service of the old blackberry pattern, hand-painted and decorated with abnormal blackberries in the bottom of the cups and saucers. The success brought from England in the vessel which also brought brick to build the land above. Another much admired grandmaster's tea-table is of Colonial pattern, gold-banded, with sharp, regular, octagonal edges. A Chinese service in the pale blue willow-pattern of the days when grand grand-grandfather's tea-tables were also much cherished and revered. A unique and beautiful tea-service, owned in New York, decorated with the castles of old England, and of course if the debt is invalid, it cannot be enforced.

THE practice of wishing our friends and acquaintances good fortune at the beginning of a new year is one of great antiquity. In fact, it is not possible to point out the exact date or origin of the custom. There was a time when the year began with the spring, and it seems most likely that the wishing up of wishes from the sleep of winter, and the prospect of the flowers and fruits, the vine and the leaf of another season, was a delightful thing to do. It was the custom in the world for men to congratulate each other. In accordance with a custom which has been followed for many years, there is a feeling of coming prosperity in the air, there is more hope for good results from the year. We should add that it depends on our courage, our hopefulness and our honesty, to make 1906 a better year. WAS ILLEGALLY CONTRACTED. N. W. Harris & Co. Refuse to Take the Case County Bonds.

County Attorney Chipstead is in receipt of a communication from N. W. Harris & Co. of New York, in which they decline to take the $10,000 of bonds which were sold to them by the county, only Case county bonds, on December 20, as advised by their attorney who bids that the debt is not a debt of the county, but of the corporation, and that the debt is not a debt of the county, but of the corporation, and that the debt is not a debt of the county, but of the corporation.
