VIOLA OF DAGGETT BROOK FAME.
Mrs. Vanderwerker, Under the Name of Van Wort, Goes into Trouble at St. Cloud.

Wednesday's St. Cloud Journal-Press contains the following: By a clever piece of detective work, Chief Police Wheeler yesterday secured in Minneapolis the woman who Monday, May 3, passed the forged check signed with the name Chase & Cooper at Puff Bros' store. In addition to the check which she offered at Puff Bros' was one for $10 signed with the same signature which was successfully cashed at the hardware store of J. T. Thielen & Son. It is on this check that the case was made out against the woman before Judge Martin this morning.

The woman is none other than the notorious Mrs. Van Wort who was forced to leave Brainerd by a complaint against her of adultery. She was convicted of the offense last year and her name is well known to the people of this city. It is interesting to note that she was not seen in Brainerd since she was deported from the city.

THE 1927 issue of "Wonderland," by the Northern Pacific railroad, is not only a work of art, and is full from cover to cover with information that is most interesting.
