DISTRICT COURT OFFERS.

The Grand Jury Finds Ten Indictments. Session Will Probably Last Ten Weeks.

The September term of the district court opened Tuesday morning Judge Holland presiding. The grand jury was organized by the appointment of A. J. Halsted, foreman, and J. M. Hayes, secretary, and is still in session as we go to press but is expected to finish the business and adjourn today.

The cases disposed of are as follows: State vs. C. H. Heath, settled on payment of fine imposed by lower court.

W. H. Everest vs. Northern Pacific Railway Co., tried, jury disagreed.

Martha J. Moores vs. Northern Pacific Railway Co. On trial.

The grand jury returned indictments against the following persons: Frank Tomlinson for bigamy. The records show that Tomlinson was married at Arden, Wis., on Sept. 16, 1898, to Annie Short, and that on June 1, 1899, he was again married to Miss Myrtle Hutchins at Ft. Ripley. Tomlinson pleaded guilty to the indictment on Wednesday but sentence has not yet been pronounced.

Wm. Flatter and Wm. Witham were indicted for grand larceny, the offense charged being that of robbing Frank Reinert of $340 on April 11th. Both plead not guilty to the indictment.

Oliver O'Clair, indicted for indecent assault on a child under 14 years of age. O'Clair plead not guilty to the indictment.

Jacob Sylvester and Alfred Plummer were indicted for robbery in the first degree. Plummer plead guilty to the indictment and Sylvester not guilty. This is the case in which these two men are charged with having held up and robbed A. Olson, the Sixth street tailor, on March 12.

Michael Kobe was indicted for assault in the first degree, the offense charged being that of assault with a dangerous weapon upon Joseph Bislar. Kobe plead not guilty.

F. F. Everett, indicted for burglary. This case is the outcome of the robbery of Reinhardt & Raymond's barber shop on May 5th.

John Ryan and Mrs. Nash, indictment for adultery.

The following attorneys from out of town are in attendance: F. D. Larabee, Minneapolis, Leon E. Lund and G. F. Porter, Duluth, Pierce Butler, J. H. Mitchell, Jr., L. T. Chamberlain and A. E. Howe, St. Paul, L. R. Barjo, St. Croix Center, F. W. Hall, Aitkin, J. N. True, Detroit, F. A. Lindbergh, Little Falls.

A Warm Session. The regular monthly meeting of the board of education was held on Tuesday evening and the session is reported to have been a warm one. The first business was the reading of the minutes of the special meeting held August 26, at which time several teachers were elected and Dr. Hemstead was elected to fill the vacancy caused by D. Doran. After the minutes of the meeting were read a motion was made and carried to declare them null and void and to strike them from the records for the reason that the call for the special meeting was not legal.

A contract was ordered drawn with the Minnesota Water Co., for water for all school buildings at $30 per quarter.

Two separate water closets were ordered built at the Gardner school building and the tenants in the old Sixth street school building were ordered to vacate at once.

The insurance on the Lowell, Lincoln, Whitner and Harrison school building amounting to $34,000, was renewed for three years.

Osw. A. Patchen was elected as 8th grade teacher in the Washington school at a salary of $57.50 per month.

At this point of the proceedings several of the members retired leaving the board without a quorum and an adjournment was taken.

Don't miss the concert at Gardner hall tonight.

The Donovan Concert.

Miss Julia Donovan, of Duluth, well and favorably known in this city, will give a concert at Gardner hall, assisted by local talent, on Monday evening, Sept. 11th, and it will indeed be a rare musical treat for the people of this city and one which they cannot afford to miss. SPEAK a good word for the county fair.

In the way, what has become of Grover Cleveland?

A big shortage in pine in the Mississippi and Wisconsin valleys is predicted.

One of the oldest residents says the corn husks this year indicate an open winter.

The Northwest is experiencing a famine of laborers. That denotes a good time.

AND now comes the news that Editor French, of Monticello, has fallen heir to $15,000.

A small portion of the national debt amounting to $2,421,116 was wiped out during the month of August.

The hunting season has just opened and already there are reports of scores of men and boys being killed by the careless handling of fire arms.

The Chicago Record observes that "prosperity is not when some men are making all the money, but when all the people are making some money."

MINNESOTA shipped 50,000,000 pounds of butter last year which brought into the state many thousands of dollars.

It has been decided by the court that a bicycle rider falls or sustains an injury on account of a dog barking or snapping at him, the owner of the animal is responsible for damages.

The county fair is especially for the benefit of the farmers and it is hoped every farmer in the county will take an interest in making it a success.

It is said the farmers ward of an approaching hail storm by having funnel shaped cannon, pointing up, discharged against the storm cloud.

Mrs. D. Mack and children have gone to Dakota via Bluffton, Minn., to visit relatives.

Mr. Emerson preached to a well filled school house at North Bay Lake last Sunday.

Mrs. O. Wasserzöher was summoned to Illinois by the death of her father, Dr. Vogt. He was quite advanced in years.

The Princeton Union says that J. W. Goulding has received a letter from Mrs. Conseyia...

In her letter to Mr. Goulding, who is one of her father's bondsmen, she said that she intended to do the square thing and would make restitution.

She enclosed a draft for $25 to show her good intentions. She is keeping a boarding house on the island and says she is making money, enough so that she will hereafter remit to Messrs. Goulding and Eaton at the rate of $50 per month.

Besides this she will turn over her household goods at Vinland which are said to be worth $100 and as soon as a patent can be secured for the bondsmen that will also be turned over.

Messrs. Goulding and Eaton naturally feel good over the latest turn of affairs and hope that Mrs. Conseyia will keep good her promise.

Cholly Towne writes a characteristic letter home from somewhere in Europe, where he is spending some of his silver mine bonner's salary.

He hired a launch to meet the Olympians and got on board, but the admiral was engaged with other notable and Cholly had left for home before Dewey learned what had happened.

He rushed to the side of the ship and Cholly says, and inquired in a loud and anxious tone "who comes here?" Cholly replied "three American citizens" (which was very modest for him).

"Come right in," called the hero of Manila bay, and our illustrious representative called admiral's assistants to open a large cold bottles according to his own confession.

We are really glad that the admiral met Mr. Towne, for now he will be thoroughly posted on the details of affairs at home abroad, and no one in the Sixth district will feel envious of the boy reader who has had so many unalloyed wonders heaped upon him.—Anoka Herald.

CAST KEEP IT UP.

Don't Deceive Brainerd People Very Long. They Learn Quickly. It is some times an easy matter to fool the public, but you can't keep it up very long.

They are sure to find you out; and everytime a man is fooled another skeptic is made. We are naturally skeptical when reading a published statement given by some stranger residing in a far-away place, but the circumstances are entirely different when home exposure is presented.

The testimony of local citizens renders doubt impossible. It is so easy for you to investigate. Read this case.

The Commodore's Boatman.
"It was a ladies day" at the yacht club, and a cruise of members, who were a crowd and a fuss, was watching one of the club servants paint the "redwood" board. He pulled a picture of a yacht captain, with a broad, sunny grin, dividing his face from ear to ear. He put these words in my mouth: "This is a pretty big boat, but if we were to put you how glad we are that better day has come again, we would need a board three times as big as this one."
"Huh!" grunted the cruise member, as the man put the last cylinder on the last letter, "what makes you say that?"
"Well, sir, the commodore said he might as well tell you one while we were about it," said the man, smiling like an old New York ball player.

Two Theorists.
"It was a very interesting thing for the professor to do," said the man with white hair and gold glasses, who had been looking on the market at the same time I published mine. "But what was it?"
"He says we control the world and are one great party now," said the other.
"Economics of course. We both write on the world and are one party, resulting from the modern tendency to world-wide economic competition," said the other.

Her Choice.
She was a pretty young thing, fresh from a fashionable "boarding school." She was looking the "biggest man on earth" in a fond, almost adoring way. "I would marry you," she said, "if you would marry me." "What were your local conditions?" "Economics of course. We both write on the world and are one party, resulting from the modern tendency to world-wide economic competition," said the other.

Like His Father.
"He's just," said young Mrs. The King, "the lady is trying to talk again. It's wonderful how he takes after you."
"What was he talking about?"
"I think it must be some new politics. He started very calmly, but in a few minutes he was on his feet and was in the face as he could be," said the other.

No more Trouble Needed.
Mrs. Smith's thoughtfulness was an asset to her. She was a woman who was not afraid to speak her mind. She was a woman who was not afraid to speak her mind. She was a woman who was not afraid to speak her mind.

His Little Joke.
"We desire to present to you a round robin," said the chairman of the Philadelphia correspondence.
"Really now, I'm sorry, gentlemen," replied the chairman, "but I'm not a round robin. I'm a round robin."

Mr. Whitman's Goodness.
"I'm sorry, gentlemen," replied the chairman, "but I'm not a round robin. I'm a round robin."

Keep Plumber.
"Yes, it's a fine machine," said the architect who had been examining the new house.
"It's a fine machine," said the architect who had been examining the new house.

JOHNSTON'S ADVENTURE.

I know the story is true, for Johnston told it to me himself, and he has had imagination enough to invent an adventure.

He told me that if you should attempt to enter into conversation with a fellow-passenger in a Chicago train it would probably result in a fight.

"My fellow-passenger was a fine-looking woman of about 30. The head of the day and the excitement of catching the train had given her a flushed countenance, and I could see that the desire of conquering the weather and exposing the weaknesses of a woman was strong within her."

"What do you say to this?" the policeman asked me, evidently impressed with the content of my article.

"I would not advise him to play that game more," said the policeman severely. "Let me tell you, sir, that if you travel under false pretenses you cannot be arrested if you don't want to."

you are quick enough to watch the motions of a professional pickpocket. That man has my purse, I am perfectly sure of it, and I shall give him my share the moment we get to Kentucky."

"I saw at once that the game was up. That man has picked my pocket," said Mrs. Scoble, as soon as the policeman opened the door.

Warning to Farmers.
As I am reliably informed that some four-foot-mouthed cheap hirings of competing machine firms are going around the farming country and endeavoring to sell machines by telling falsehoods in regard to the Deering Ideal Harvesters and Binders which I represent, I call attention to the fact and warn the new-setting farmers of such men, who would do better as scavengers than to try and fly the machine trade with the big boys. The Deering Ideal Mowers, Harvesters and Binders are as much superior to those competing machines as electric lights are to the old fashioned candle light. Farmers, if you want a machine you can depend on buy the "Deering," reliable and economical, at the corner of Fourth and Front streets.

August Flower.
"It is a surprising fact," says Prof. Houston, "that in my travels in all parts of the world, for the last ten years, I have met more people having used GERR'S AUGUST FLOWER than any other remedy, for dyspepsia, deranged liver and stomach, and for constipation. I find for tourists and salesmen, or for filling office positions, where headaches and general bad feelings from irregular habits exist, that GERR'S AUGUST FLOWER is a grand remedy. It does not injure the system by frequent use, and is excellent for sour stomachs and indigestion." Sample bottles free at M. K. Swartz's drug store. Sold by dealers in all civilized countries.
