PAY THE CHURCH DEBT.
Congregational People Making the Issue of Their Lives to Clear the Church of Debt.

The Congregational church people here determined that the coming of the new year will see their fine church structure entirely free of debt. The church was built some twelve or fifteen years ago, and has been ornamented with a mortgage ever since. The amount of the indebtedness has been slowly whittled down each year, until the balance is only $223, and for the past few weeks several of the members have been agitating making a heavy effort to raise money to pay the same at once. A meeting of the trustees and members was held after the mid-week meeting last Thursday night, at which a committee to solicit subscriptions to raise the funds was appointed, as follows:

P. M. Lagerquist, G. D. LaBar, S. L. Bean, Rev. G. W. Gallagher, H. W. Isham, Frank White, Mrs. M. McFadden, Mrs. Isham, Mrs. P. E. Smith, Mrs. J. N. Nevers and Mrs. E. H. White. A list of fifteen or sixteen names of persons likely to subscribe was given to each member of the committee, who will visit them personally and urge the necessity of a liberal contribution. We understand the committee has met with great success, some of them securing over a hundred dollars in a short time. Enough has been subscribed to insure the raising of the amount.

Library Matters.
The grand ball given at Gardner Hall on Friday evening last by the Public Library Association to raise funds to furnish the library rooms, was a splendid success socially and financially. A large crowd composed of the best people of the city was in attendance, and a very pleasant evening was enjoyed by all. The association realized $102 net from the ball.

The library committee has had several meetings during the past week to classify and arrange the books, which is being done rapidly. The rooms have been furnished and look very pleasant and cozy with the appropriate new furniture and new wall decorations. The library room will be open from 7 to 9 Wednesday evenings and from 1 to 5 Saturday afternoons, and from 7 to 9 Saturday evenings.

Military Dance.
Invitations will be issued in a day or two for the third of the series of dances that are being given by Company L, which will be held next Friday evening, Nov. 24th. It is the aim of the members of the company to have only the most desirable people to these very pleasant dancing parties, and efforts are being made to make the coming party one of the most pleasant occasions of the season. No one without invitations will be admitted.

Card of Thanks.
The undersigned desire to express their heartfelt thanks to the many kind friends in Brainerd who so generously extended extended aid and sympathy during our recent sad bereavement.
LUKE FLOOD AND FAMILY.

Made Young Again.

"One of Dr. King's New Life Pills each night for two weeks has put me in my teens again," writes D. H. Turner of Dempseytown, Pa. "They're the best in the world for Liver, Stomach and Bowls. Purely vegetable. Never gripe. Only Dr. King's New Life Pills."

Jump Right In, Now.

One who has recently been through the country, cities and towns between St. Paul and the coast, cannot fail to see a wonderful improvement, both in tone and business.

Upon a recent trip on the Northern Pacific I was struck with the unbounded evidence of prosperous times. The smallest towns showed it as well as the larger ones.

Dear Grandma and Grandpa:

I don't like this place. 'Cause no one ain't wakin' no smile on their face. Like you always do, an' they spanked me instead o' kisser, me, after I fell from the sled. This mornin' they say I'm no good no more. No angel breather. No rickety old shoe. Small pieces o' sugar—An' chaser the cat. An' gots in awntin'! An' lovin' my hat! An' wasser the sock. An' climber in trees. An' gettin' all blue. An' humped legs, An' ratter the turkey. An' hanger the coat. An' madder eye. They ain't get no smile on my face. No kisser for me. They think I'm just wicker. As wicker can be. An' call me a wicker. An' torment me. An' I gettin' 'em. O' quick 'em. Dear Grandpa, tomorrow I want to go home. Please get here as early as anything. Jack.

The Moon That Played Football.

Norton Brown was a lover of football from the time his merry little eyes first fastened on the wonderful sight of his older brother Ralph, hero of the village eleven. In Norton's baby fashion he made good natured Ralph understand that he, too, wished to wear the football uniform. His proud papa was so interested in this wish with Mr. Salzer.

His Satisfaction.

Mrs. Beckwith was the author of the saying, "Silence is golden." Mrs. Beckwith thought that it was some fellow whose wife was of a grating disposition. She was wrong. Mrs. Beckwith cannot be cured with LOCAL APPLICATIONS, which is the only cure for this disease. It is a simple, safe, and effective remedy that has cured thousands of patients.

THERE are women everywhere who suffer almost constantly because they cannot bring themselves to tell all about their troubles to a physician.

Such women can surely relieve their symptoms and their suffering by letter to Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass., for the confidence reposed in her has never been violated. Over a million women have been helped by her advice and medicines.

Mrs. Pinkham in attending to her vast correspondence is assisted by women only. If you are ill, don't delay. Her reply will cost you nothing and it will be a practical help as it was to Miss Diaz, R. BRESNER, East Rochester, Ohio, who says: "I shrunk from the ordeal of examination by our physician, yet I knew I must have treatment. My troubles were backache, nervous dread, feeling, painful menstruation and leucorrhoea. I am so grateful to you now that I am willing to have my name published to help other girls to take their troubles away. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound used as you wrote me has made me entirely well and very happy. I shall bless you as long as I live."

Mrs. Pinkham receives thousands of such letters from grateful women.

Miss NELLIE RUSSELL, of 138 Grace St., Pittsburg, Pa., in a letter to Mrs. Pinkham says: "From childhood I suffered from kidney trouble and as I grew older my troubles increased. I suffered intense pain running down my back to my womb and the meninges were very painful. One day, seeing your advertisement in one of our papers, I wrote to you. When your reply came I began taking your Compound and followed your advice. I am now in perfect health, and would advise any lady who is poor or to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I can praise above all other remedies. It is a wonderful help to women."
