Improve and Beautify Your School Grounds.
The average rural school grounds look bare and uninviting. To encourage pupils, teachers and friends of the rural schools, I offer to the school which beautifies its grounds in the most attractive manner ten ($10.00) dollars. Decision to be left with our county school superintendent, Mr. Wilson, and two ladies selected by him. Improvements to be made between spring and July 1st, 1901, when the money will be cheerfully paid, to be expended under direction of teachers and scholars.
Hessell's Farm Machinery and Grain Office, Corner 4th and Front Street.
My line of goods includes the following:

Uncle Sam has the earth. Hessell has the tools to work it.

HAVE APPEALED TO CARNEGIE

For a Donation For a Public Library and Building For This City.
Henry I. Cohen writes the Great Philanthropist the Following Letter:
Andrew Carnegie, the millionaire philanthropist, has promised St. Cloud $25,000 to build a public library building, providing the city donates a suitable site and bids itself to raise $2,500 revenue a year to support it. This the city will do and will soon be provided with a splendid public library.

Brainerd is a place nearly as large and of as much importance as St. Cloud, and has a much greater need of a public library than the latter place for several reasons. There is not as much wealth here to provide suitable reading in the homes of citizens, and we have a much larger population of mill men and shop men than the latter city, men generally without homes, who are spending their time in acquiring useful information, if we had a good public library and reading room, instead of waiting in public resorts. The large class of men make a public library and reading room a necessity, and if these conditions were properly placed before Mr. Carnegie there is no doubt he would be as generous to Brainerd as St. Cloud.

Hence we are pleased to state Mr. Henry I. Cohen, president of the present Public Library Association, and to whose enterprise the present library owes much, has written a letter to Mr. Carnegie, endorsed by practically every citizen in the city, asking for Brainerd as generous treatment as has accorded St. Cloud. Mr. Cohen's letter is as follows:

BRAINERD, Minn., Feb. 17, 1901.
Mr. Andrew Carnegie,
Pittsburgh, Pa.
Dear Sir:
As the executive head of the Brainerd Free Public Library, I wish to call your attention to our needs. Knowing your world wide reputation as a philanthropist, more especially in respect to the material assistance towards the establishment of libraries in communities unable to do so for themselves, I was asked by the representative citizens of Brainerd to call your generous attention to our city.
Knowing that you must be deluged by requests of a similar nature, I feel loath to encroach on your valuable time.

The following is a history of our library:
The association, or charter members, started with a capital of one hundred dollars ($100.00) to which was added by subscription, entertainments and donations, in the neighborhood of one thousand dollars ($1,000.00) total.

We have in our rooms, which are small, about eleven hundred (1100) carefully selected books. Of these about nine hundred (900) are suitable for circulation. In one year fifteen hundred (1500) books were drawn from the shelves. This item significantly shows the voracious desire for free reading of a good class of workers. Will you kindly assist?
Brainerd has a population of about seventy-five hundred (7500) and is a very prominent railroad town, on the Northern Pacific system. I can assure you that I have the promise of our best citizens, that they will endeavor to meet your suggestions to the best of their ability.

Trusting that this letter may meet with favor in your eyes, I anxiously await your reply.
Most respectfully yours,
HENRY I. COHEN,
President Brainerd Public Library.
Mr. Cohen has also written to Congressman Page Morris and Senators Nelson and Clapp asking their cooperation to induce the great philanthropist to favor this city, and they will undoubtedly do the best they can.
If Mr. Carnegie complies with the request he will probably require that the library become a public institution, that is, supported by public revenue raised by taxation. To do this the master would have to be submitted to a vote of the people, and if carried, a levy made by the council, which is limited to one mill. But this rate would raise $2,000 a year, an amount ample to run the library and provide new books every year, and probably would be all required by Mr. Carnegie. It is hoped that gentleman will see his way clear to make a donation to this city, and there is no doubt the city will gladly do as much as he requires of St. Cloud.

STAY OF TWENTY DAYS

Granted in The Receivership Matter of The Brainerd Co-operative Building and Loan Association.

Judge McClellan on Monday granted a stay of twenty days in the matter of the appointment of R. G. Vallentyne as receiver of the Brainerd Co-operative Building and Loan Association.
On Saturday noon R. G. Vallentyne, the newly appointed receiver, accompanied by Mr. J. W. Olson, went to the residence of Mr. A. G. Michie, the secretary, and demanded the books and property of the association. Mr. Michie refused to surrender them, claiming he had been granted a twenty days stay. Mr. Vallentyne told him this was not the case, but Mr. Michie insisted he had, and again refused to turn over the books and property. Contempt proceedings against Mr. Michie were instituted, returnable Monday morning at 10 o'clock. Mr. Michie appeared in court on Monday with his attorney, A. G. Broker, of Wadena, who asked that a continuance be granted until 2 p. m. to give them time to secure papers in the case in the office of Attorney P. J. Murphy, who had left the city. In the afternoon Mr. Broker stated on behalf of Mr. Michie that he had been informed and believed he had twenty days to comply with the order of the court, and Judge McClellan decided that if Mr. Michie would pay Mr. Olson $10 to cover the cost of his coming here from Two Harbors, he would grant the stay. Mr. Michie complied and the court ordered the stay of twenty days until March 6th.

COUNCIL PROCEEDINGS.

Regular Meeting of The City Fathers Held on Monday Evening.

The city council held a regular meeting on Monday night. President Grant was absent and Alderman Wright occupied the chair. The city clerk's report for January was read and adopted as follows:
Electric light collections . . . $894.98
Municipal court fines 211.65
Licenses 100.00
Total $1,206.63
The city council held a regular meeting on Monday night. President Grant was absent and Alderman Wright occupied the chair. The city clerk's report for January was read and adopted as follows:
Electric light collections . . . $1,139.18
Electric light funds 600.97
Streets sidewalks and bridges . . . 689.97
Printing 55.48
Fire protection 78.90
Total $2,564.50
A large number of claims against the city were allowed.

The bill of the Brainerd school district for $250 for old West Brainerd school house was referred to purchasing committee. The alderman thought $100 was a big price. The bill of the Minnesota Water Works Co. for $100 for water furnished for all purposes other than fire protection was referred to city attorney.
The electric light committee was given authority to purchase emergency wheel and necessary attachments to repair wheel at the power house, and the purchasing committee was instructed to purchase catch buckets for man holes.
The committee to investigate the sewer matter was given further time.
Liquor houses were granted to Frances E. Crowley and Geo. Sargent.
Mrs. Grandelmeier was granted permission to build an addition on the rear of her millinery store building on Front street.
The city clerk was instructed to get security bonds, the city to pay for them.

IMPRISED BY WATER

THIRTEEN NEGROES EMBOWED IN A MINE NEAR TUSCOLOO, ALA.

RESCUE IN PROBLEMATIC

Abandoned shaft breaks, flooding the One in which they are at work. Pumping goes on energetically, but Little Progress is Made—Eight Bodies Recovered So Far at Cumberland, B. C.

Birmingham, Ala., Feb. 21.—Thirteen negro miners were embowed during the afternoon in the coal mines of the state insane asylum about two miles from Tuscaloosa by a flood of water from an abandoned shaft, which rushed in upon the men almost without warning, filling the mine to the depth of 19 feet. There is a large force of men at work pumping the water out of the mine, but little progress is being made, as it fills up almost as rapidly as it is pumped out. The fate of the embowed miners is problematical. It is thought it will take from 24 to 48 hours to clear the mine. At present there appears practically no hope unless air reaches them in a short time.

CUMBERLAND MINE HORROR

80 Far Bodies of Eight of the Victims Have Been Recovered

Yanover, B. C., Feb. 21.—The work of recovering the bodies of the victims of the mine disaster at Cumberland, B. C., proceeded slowly. The eight bodies have been found, four being white. The most recently recovered bodies are those of A. J. Payne, D. M. Davis and W. Crockett. These were found in the main drift, being face downward, close to a cave-in. They at first appeared to have been buried heavily, but investigation showed that they had been blasted only by after heat. They had apparently left their stalls and were attempting to make their way toward shaft No. 4 when overcomer. Several of the Chinese corpses were badly bruised.

WAS A SURPRISE

Hamilton Jury at Minnesota Agrees After 40 Hours' Deliberation. Minnesota, Feb. 21.—The jury in the case of the state of Minnesota against Frank H. Hamilton, charged with murdering Leonard R. Day, after 40 hours' deliberation, furnished a genuine surprise by coming into court a few minutes before 10 o'clock and reporting that it had agreed on a verdict of manslaughter in the first degree with a recommendation to the mercy of the court. The jury had been out so long that hope of an agreement had been given up. The jury informed the delegates at 9:15 that it had agreed, but it took half an hour to arrange the preliminary. Hamilton was brought down first. He had enjoyed a good night's sleep and was in excellent spirits. His counsel, however, the verdict was announced and made no other statements than that he was in mute protest.

MURDERED HER SISTER

Crime of a Six-Year-Old Degenerate in Michigan. Stephenson, Mich., Feb. 21.—During the absence of her mother the five-year-old daughter of John Myers for the fourth time attempted to take the life of one of her two smaller sisters and succeeded. She took a stick of burning stove wood, and holding her 2-year-old sister to the floor, pressed the wood against the flame, but she was so terribly burned about the legs and body that she died a few hours afterward. The girl's sister does not seem to realize the significance of her act.

WAR CRITICALLY ILL

President Hill's Daughter Recovering From Appendicitis. New York, Feb. 21.—The Herald says that it has been ascertained that Miss Gertrude Hill, the third daughter of James J. Hill, president of the Great Northern Railway company, was unwell a few days ago in grave danger of death as a result of an operation for appendicitis. It is said she is now out of danger and recovering. A student at a fashionable school here and the operation was performed on Feb. 21 in the hospital of the school.

ARSON AND MURDER

The Men Arrested for the Crimes at Burlington, W. Va. Sittler, W. Va., Feb. 21.—West has been received from Burlington, a small oil village in the interior of Tyler county, that a fire had started in a drug store and before the flames could be under control several fatalities were committed, and that John Glenshaw "was burned" to death. Two men have been arrested for arson and murder.

MINNESOTA INTERESTED

Lake Superior Mining Company in the New Steel Combustion. New York, Feb. 21.—The Herald says: Arrangements have been perfected by which the Lake Superior Consolidated Mining company and its associated interests will enter the great iron and steel combination which is being organized in New York City by J. P. Morgan. The Lake Superior Consolidated Mining company is capitalized at $2,000,000, and it represents the interests of J. D. Rockefeller in the Lake Superior region. The company practically controls the stock of the Duluth and Northern road, which runs from Duluth to Iron Mountain, in the Mesabi range. This road is the connecting link between the rich iron mines in the Mesabi range and Lake Superior. Interest attaches to the transaction because it indicates that the Rockefeller iron and steel properties have gone into the transaction.

THREE BIG POOLS

Vessel Owners on the Great Lakes Talk of Combining. Cleveland, Feb. 21.—A project is being discussed to the effect that vessel owners on the Great Lakes shall form three big pools, to include three different classes of boats. The first, those carrying tonnage from 6,000 to 9,000 tons and owned by the large industrial concerns, the second, those from 3,000 to 6,000 tons, owned by general bulk commodity carriers and owned by large industrial concerns, and the third, the "small boaters," of 1,000 tons capacity and under. The purpose of the combination is to control and maintain rates. Vessel men state that the present condition is only about one season in three is profitable and the plan is to insure a fair dividend.

MRS. NATION IN COURT

Kansas Just Smeared's Case Goes Over. Topeka, Kan., Feb. 21.—Judge Hiltner of the circuit court today sentenced Mrs. Carrie Nation, charged with smearing Murphy's coat, until she could raise the money to pay for the coat. Mrs. Nation was ordered to pay $100 for the coat. Mrs. Nation is a well-known anti-alcoholic worker.

The Brained Dispatch.

The Dispatch News Tribune has the following to say regarding the suicide of Frank Honnett at Superior on Friday of last week, and whose funeral was held in this city on Saturday:

Yesterday morning about 7 o'clock, Frank Honnett, aged 37 years, shot and killed himself at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Honnett, 1213 North Fifth street, and died en route at 10 o'clock in the afternoon. The bullet entered the head on the right side and took a downward course. From 10 o'clock time it was first until dead young Honnett did not regain consciousness. The only reason that can be assigned for the rash deed was demerolism, caused by continued sickness. Yesterday morning, when called at the usual time, the young man seemed to feel some worse than usual. Getting up from his bed, he went to the store, he said he would return to his room and get his things.

His body, and was there about an hour when his sister heard a shot. She rushed down stairs and told her parents, and when an investigation was made Frank was lying in a pool of blood, a result of his self-inflicted wounds. Immediate steps were taken to preserve the body and remove it, but without success. Mr. and Mrs. Honnett have relatives, and are well and favorably known. Frank was also a favor with the sporting pool, in which he was well acquainted. Mr. Honnett has conducted a grocery store on the street for several years and is quite well-to-do, owning the two-story brick building in which he transacts business.

JAMES CALLAHAN, one of the Cuddy kidnapers, has been caught. He has been identified by young Cuddy as the man who accosted him on the street and who stood guard over him. He should be summarily dealt with.

The house on Monday intelligently postponed all bills introduced into the legislature appropriating money to build roads and bridges. This action was taken because the attorney general held they would be unconstitutional and void. An amendment to the constitution was adopted two years ago providing for a highway commission to have charge of road and bridge building, and all state monies for roads and bridges must be expended by them, and the legislature can not legally appropriate any, hence all bills for this purpose were killed.

New Congressional Districts. The following is the re-apportionment of the state of Minnesota as decided on by the sub-committee and reported this afternoon:

KANAS is the paradise of cranks. Pfeffer, Stockless Simpson and Mrs. Lease have had their day, but are all eclipsed by Mrs. Nation, the nation smasher.

A BILL has been introduced into the legislature making who abandonments a felony and imposing a penalty of several years imprisonment for the offense. The law should be passed.

JAMES CALLAHAN, one of the Cuddy kidnapers, has been caught. He has been identified by young Cuddy as the man who accosted him on the street and who stood guard over him. He should be summarily dealt with.

The house on Monday intelligently postponed all bills introduced into the legislature appropriating money to build roads and bridges. This action was taken because the attorney general held they would be unconstitutional and void. An amendment to the constitution was adopted two years ago providing for a highway commission to have charge of road and bridge building, and all state monies for roads and bridges must be expended by them, and the legislature can not legally appropriate any, hence all bills for this purpose were killed.

- Ninth District—Marshall, Beltrami, Polk, Clay, Becker, Otter Tail, Wilkin, Norman, Roseau.

Washington's Mill Venture.

His Tract of Land in the Coalfield, Pennsylvania.

By J. A. COLL.

COPYRIGHT, 1901, BY J. A. COLL.

FOR many years it has been proved over and over again that George Washington was "first in war, first in peace and first in the hearts of his countrymen." But that is not all. He was shrewd enough to understand men during his lifetime and to make the most of them. He was also the first mill owner in this end of the state. As a surveyor and a man of practical business policies it would be expected that Washington's judgment would be reliable in the selection of land, and history and time have both proved that it was. The tract he took up is among the richest in this country, and the coal he discovered and exploited is among the best in its proportions that are a testimony to his judgment.

The tract which Washington took up is now embraced in the coalfield of the Washington Coal and Coke company, and adjoining territory at Star Junction for many years. It is a tract of land, and history and time have both proved that it was. The tract he took up is among the richest in this country, and the coal he discovered and exploited is among the best in its proportions that are a testimony to his judgment.

WASHINGTON'S MILL VENTURE. In his diary Washington speaks of how he went with Colonel Crawford Oct. 18, 1770, to buy some lands 10 miles distant from Crawford's mills. He was to see the land and to buy it. It was a great deal of land, and it was a great deal of money. He was to see the land and to buy it. INTERESTING LOCAL NEWS OF THE SURROUNDING COUNTRY.

KATHINE.
The mill is to start this week. The St. Valentines party was postponed one week. H. J. Magban, was looking for men to work in the woodyard. Miss Coleman is trying to help Mr. Miller out in his new store. The ice crop is being harvested. The lake is not frozen as deep as usual. Dave spent two days last week trying to explain about that dark spot under his left eye. Mr. Robert Downey, one of the early settlers, who has been away for ten years, returned Thursday in company with Henry Downey, who came to attend his mother's funeral. If Mrs. Cook Laver wants a new name we would spare her a yard of the name donated us by Gossip. I presume she is like Mrs. Kairlin, rather particular about changing her name or telling her age. The fact that Bay Lake needs a church was practically demonstrated Sunday, when many were compelled to stand outside in the cold. Every person in this community is equally interested in having a suitable place for our accommodation upon such occasions. Rev. Carver and wife, of Brainerd, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Stafford, of Crooked Lake, made us a very pleasant visit on Wednesday. Mr. Carver has purchased land and built a cottage on Crooked Lake and will plant out some small fruit, grapes, apples, etc. The funeral of Mrs. Archie Downey, of the town of Deerwood, was held at the Bay Lake school house and the interment took place in the Bay Lake cemetery Sunday, Feb. 17th, Rev. Parish officiating. The sympathies of the people go out to those who mourn for this sad ending of a life, under so very sad circumstances. Coroner Reimestad and Deputy Dean arrived here Thursday evening to investigate the cause of the death of Mrs. Downey. There were no evidences of violence or of opiate. In her long wanderings of that day, led by her delirious mind, nature had become exhausted, and she fell asleep in winter's icy embrace. BRainerd, Minn.

THE CROW WING BRIDGE.
The Pillager Post has the following to say in regard to the much talked of Crow Wing Iron bridge in its last issue:
The Brainerd papers last week announced that the Morrison county commissioners had given up hope of help toward building the Pillager bridge and that they had determined to place their appropriation of $5000 at Sylvia Lake, where help could be secured from the business men of Brainerd. We were somewhat surprised at the appearance of these announcements, as it is well understood that the Cass county board intend to give the matter consideration at the March meeting and that the people of Pillager have a laudable subscription of $500 and stand ready to do even more than that if it is found necessary. We took occasion to find the feeling of the people of Brainerd in the matter and find them apparently as much disposed to assist in putting in a bridge at Pillager as at Sylvia, but they do not feel able to contribute toward either. Their hands are in their pockets usually for improvements nearer home and if the Crow Wing bridge is to be built all the idea of getting help from Brainerd must be abandoned.

CHAPTER VI.
HARRIS FROM THE PALACE OF WILFREDIA PATRICK.

"Joe," I cried, "show them up here, Harris. Yes, bring both of them, of course. We shall hear something now." Mr. Sawyer came up to the driveway at the door, and Roy, who by convention had all been especially charged to look after the horses, came up with a look of surprise. With a shrug of his shoulders, Harris said to me: "I shall never forget that afternoon when the American detective thought me the man. What an odd creature he was. Very much over-dressed, with a sort of conceited air, his voice, which didn't disguise his Yankee accent or his downy hair, his eyes, which were full of mischief, and his nose, which was honest and straight-forward, but I could not get over my repugnance to him at first."

"I do so when we get to the very house and drive quite blank I made up my mind that the man was an arrant impostor. Nothing felt or saw in the man, which didn't disguise his Yankee accent or his downy hair, his eyes, which were full of mischief, and his nose, which was honest and straight-forward, but I could not get over my repugnance to him at first."

Nothing felt or saw in the man, which didn't disguise his Yankee accent or his downy hair, his eyes, which were full of mischief, and his nose, which was honest and straight-forward, but I could not get over my repugnance to him at first."

"I do so when we get to the very house and drive quite blank I made up my mind that the man was an arrant impostor. Nothing felt or saw in the man, which didn't disguise his Yankee accent or his downy hair, his eyes, which were full of mischief, and his nose, which was honest and straight-forward, but I could not get over my repugnance to him at first."

never possible to send a wire, when from where I was, I saw the carriage drive straight into the garden. Keeping out of sight and scrupulously side the pillars of the next gate, where I'd got my eye on what went on. The carriage was nowhere to be seen. They must have took it right inside the stable, for the coachhouse doors was open.

"That was to get Mr. Wood away," said the American detective. "How do you know that? You don't know that he was there at all," I asked. "I believe I believe I believe," returned Mr. Sawyer. "I believe I believe I believe," returned Mr. Sawyer. "I believe I believe I believe," returned Mr. Sawyer.

Don't Be Duped

There have been a great many cheap and worthless dictionaries published in the last few years. Some of them are so full of errors that they are almost unrecognizable as dictionaries. The only reliable dictionary is the one published by Long & Co. It is the only dictionary that has been in the market for over 40 years. It is the only dictionary that has been revised and improved by the latest and best methods. It is the only dictionary that is so complete and so accurate that it is the standard for all other dictionaries.

AGREE TO COMPROMISE

FOREIGN ENVOYS MAKE A FEW CONCESSIONS TO THE CHINESE.

MAY COMMUTE SENTENCES

Imported Court Can Give Life Imprisonment to Prince Tuan, Duke Lan and General Tung—Some Others Will Be Permitted to Strangle Themselves—Three of the Offenders Must Be Decapitated.

London, Feb. 21.—At their latest meeting, says the Peking correspondent of The Morning Post, the foreign envoys agreed to a compromise. They promise to respect the imperial court to commute the sentences of decapitation in the cases of Prince Tuan, Duke Lan and General Tung. In regard to life imprisonment and will accept of following sentences: Prince Chang to be strangled. Yi Chen and Ting Nien to be permitted to strangle themselves and Chi Hsin and Hui Chen to be beheaded. The court has not yet been heard in the case of the Chinese envoys who are held at Peking. If the court advances no new obstacles the negotiations on the great point of the demands of the powers may be considered closed.
