

Brainerd Tribune

M. C. Russell, Editor.

BRANNERD, MINNESOTA, APRIL 20, 1872.

Vol. 11, No. 10.

THE Brainerd Tribune

At Two Dollars a Year.

Table with columns for advertising rates: 3 mos, 6 mos, 1 year. Rows for 1 square (1 inch), 2 squares, 3 squares, 4-1 column, 5-2 column, 6-3 column.

No deviation from the above rates. The Tribune has an extensive circulation...

Lyman Bridges & Co.

Building Material

READY MADE SHASH, BLINDS, DOORS, ETC.

C. H. KAUFFMANN.

Liquors, Wines, Cigars.

Bar Fixtures, Delicacies, Etc.

CHEAP CASH STORE

ST. CLOUD, MINN.

John B. Count, Justice of the Peace.

Livery Stable, Frank Dunn.

G. W. Holland, Attorney.

Dr. Peter Philard, Physician.

Brainerd Brewery.

House and Sign Painting.

Theo. F. Knappner, Attorney.

Fashionable Barber Shop.

Sausage Factory.

Chicago House.

Sicotte House.

New Bakery.

All kinds of Bread, Cakes, Pies, etc.

PIONEER MEAT MARKET.

Lafand & Goulet, Prop's.

1849.

ELFELT'S

In the favorite Store in ST. PAUL.

Dry Goods

Cloaks, Suits, And Ladies' Trimmed Hats.

COTTON GOODS AT WHOLESALE PRICES.

Particular Attention Paid to Orders.

American House.

The Traveling Public and Transient Custom.

Wholesale Dealer in

Liquors, Wines, Cigars.

Bar Fixtures, Delicacies, Etc.

CHEAP CASH STORE

ST. CLOUD, MINN.

John B. Count, Justice of the Peace.

Livery Stable, Frank Dunn.

G. W. Holland, Attorney.

Dr. Peter Philard, Physician.

Brainerd Brewery.

House and Sign Painting.

Theo. F. Knappner, Attorney.

Fashionable Barber Shop.

Sausage Factory.

Chicago House.

Sicotte House.

New Bakery.

All kinds of Bread, Cakes, Pies, etc.

PIONEER MEAT MARKET.

Lafand & Goulet, Prop's.

1872.

THE BRANNERD TRIBUNE IS THE FIRST AND ONLY PAPER PUBLISHED ON THE LINE OF THE NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.

"Me" is the signature of a writer to the St. Cloud Journal last week, who takes occasion to dish Brainerd in the latest style of sensation.

The town now gives evidence of the great city that ere long must arise at the junction of the Amazon of the Northwest.

Continuing on the way, one is struck by the easy gradients and the absence of those sharp and dangerous curves so common to railroads in this region.

Returning to your hospitable town of Brainerd, I felt I could exclaim "Now have mine eyes seen the glory of the coming of the Lord in opening up this country so vast and varied in its resources."

The St. Paul Pioneer of the 13th inst. has described this valley of the Red River as a bit of Eden, but which would do us very little good if it were not for the trifling fact that no part of its account was true.

To LEAVE US - Mr. J. S. Campbell, who has, since our residence here, held a prominent position in connection with the Railroad...

WARDEN - Many of our citizens are making grand preparations to raise fine gardens...

F. E. McRAE, who has had a long and tedious trial in Minneapolis, is ready on charge of being implicated in a bank robbery...

DESCRIPTION OF THE COUNTRY ON THE LINE OF THE NORTHERN PACIFIC RAILROAD.

Through the columns of your valuable paper to call attention to some observations made in a recent trip by the N. P. R. on the very substantial number of the structure, easy grades, and the wonderful richness and fertility characterizing the major portion of the Land Grant.

What has been said of the lands on the further side of the Red River is no less true of those between the Red River and the North. A quarter of century ago when the prairies of Illinois, Iowa, Kansas and Nebraska...

At the new town of Glynndon where the St. Vincent branch crosses the Northern Pacific, all was life and activity. Claim taking and house building marked the commencement of what cannot fail to be as distant day an important junction of two great thoroughfares.

Returning to your hospitable town of Brainerd, I felt I could exclaim "Now have mine eyes seen the glory of the coming of the Lord in opening up this country so vast and varied in its resources."

The St. Paul Pioneer of the 13th inst. has described this valley of the Red River as a bit of Eden, but which would do us very little good if it were not for the trifling fact that no part of its account was true.

To LEAVE US - Mr. J. S. Campbell, who has, since our residence here, held a prominent position in connection with the Railroad...

WARDEN - Many of our citizens are making grand preparations to raise fine gardens...

F. E. McRAE, who has had a long and tedious trial in Minneapolis, is ready on charge of being implicated in a bank robbery...

THE ARREST OF E. F. MURPHY, Esq.

Of the arrest of our highly respected citizen, Mr. E. F. Murphy, the efficient Freight Agent of the Northern Pacific Railroad at this place, a few days ago, we have but little to say, but hope we may be able to say that little properly and to the point.

At the new town of Glynndon where the St. Vincent branch crosses the Northern Pacific, all was life and activity. Claim taking and house building marked the commencement of what cannot fail to be as distant day an important junction of two great thoroughfares.

Returning to your hospitable town of Brainerd, I felt I could exclaim "Now have mine eyes seen the glory of the coming of the Lord in opening up this country so vast and varied in its resources."

The St. Paul Pioneer of the 13th inst. has described this valley of the Red River as a bit of Eden, but which would do us very little good if it were not for the trifling fact that no part of its account was true.

To LEAVE US - Mr. J. S. Campbell, who has, since our residence here, held a prominent position in connection with the Railroad...

WARDEN - Many of our citizens are making grand preparations to raise fine gardens...

F. E. McRAE, who has had a long and tedious trial in Minneapolis, is ready on charge of being implicated in a bank robbery...

THE GREAT EARTHQUAKE.

From the San Francisco Bulletin, April 12. About two weeks since, Augustus C. Diggs, of this city, went to Independence Inyo county, and was there on the night and during a portion of the day, of the terrible earthquake. From him we derive the following statement of what he saw, and heard:

At the new town of Glynndon where the St. Vincent branch crosses the Northern Pacific, all was life and activity. Claim taking and house building marked the commencement of what cannot fail to be as distant day an important junction of two great thoroughfares.

Returning to your hospitable town of Brainerd, I felt I could exclaim "Now have mine eyes seen the glory of the coming of the Lord in opening up this country so vast and varied in its resources."

The St. Paul Pioneer of the 13th inst. has described this valley of the Red River as a bit of Eden, but which would do us very little good if it were not for the trifling fact that no part of its account was true.

To LEAVE US - Mr. J. S. Campbell, who has, since our residence here, held a prominent position in connection with the Railroad...

WARDEN - Many of our citizens are making grand preparations to raise fine gardens...

F. E. McRAE, who has had a long and tedious trial in Minneapolis, is ready on charge of being implicated in a bank robbery...

Small text at the bottom of the page, likely containing dates or additional notices.

