THE NORTHERN PACIFIC.
The Road and Its Equipments and All Its Vast Empire of Lands to be Sold.
 New York Sun 14.
 Judge Shipman has made a decree in the foreclosure suit against the Northern Pacific Railroad that will undoubtedly result in the liquidation of the affairs of that insolvent corporation, if adverse litigation does not interfere. The initial pleading on which the suit is founded is pro forma styled Jay Cooke et al. against The Northern Pacific Railroad Company. Jay Cooke being hopelessly bankrupt, can have no legitimate individual interest in the suit. He is a necessary party to it, because he and J. Edgar Thompson, late president of the Pennsylvania railroad company, were named in the first mortgage of the Northern Pacific railroad company as trustees for the purchasers of the bonds attempted to be secured by that mortgage. Mr. Thompson is dead. Under the provisions of the original instrument for a succession of trustees, Mr. Charlemagne Tower takes Mr. Thompson's place. Other necessary parties plaintiff are named, for reasons that do not appear in the decree.

The orders of the decree, which is very elaborately drawn, are substantially as follows: The road, bridges, superstructure, station houses, water tanks, sidings, switchings, rights of way, easements, rolling stock, and, in short, every material thing pertaining to the completed portion of the railroad, which is now nearly five hundred miles long, is to be sold in front of the custom house in this city, after advertisement in a prescribed manner for sixty days. The sale is to be conducted under the supervision of Kenneth G. White, clerk of the court, and U. S. Marshall, Oliver Fiske, the former of whom is termed "Master Commissioner," and upon whom devolves large discretion as to postponements, advertising, and reporting the sale finally effected to the court for confirmation.

The immense land grant of the road is not to be included or effected in any way by this sale of the railroad. The decree provides that Messrs. White and Fiske shall sell the lands, after due advertisement, in the states and territories in which they lie, in tracts not exceeding a section, (360 acres), and that may be any ordinary subdivision of a section, such, for instance, as the quarter of a quarter of a section (40 acres). Under this arrangement it is estimated that it will be at least five years before the sales of the lands are completed by Messrs. White and Fiske and their sales finally confirmed. In the mean time the property is to be in the possession of the Hon. Geo. W. Cass, president of the railroad, who has by another recent decree of the court been appointed receiver, and upon whom, by virtue of that decree, all the powers, privileges, and functions of the corporation are devolved. He is also ordered to join in the proper execution of this later decree. There is a further provision that Messrs. Cooke and Tower, the trustees, may bid for and purchase any of the property, in behalf of all the holders secured by the mortgage, in the proportion of the respective interests of the holders. Just what this means it is hard to tell, but it looks like a quiet method of turning road, franchises, lands and everything over to such large bondholders as may be willing to arrange with Jay Cooke and his co-trustees.

Brainerd Stock Market.
 Brainerd compared, last week, quite favorably with Wall street, and was not without its "Bulls and Bears" either. On Tuesday a great excitement prevailed over Crow Wing County Orders, which for two years have been dragging at 40c. Speculators were out in every direction buying them up wherever they could find them, and in some instances paying as high as 80c. for them. Those holding orders in large amounts became excited, they did not know the cause of this sudden raise, nor do they yet. Some refused to sell at any price, even at a premium, thinking perhaps they were going to make a fortune out of them. We learn, however, some large amounts changed hands at 75c., and others larger would, if the holders could see the cause for the raise, but they are afraid. The best part of it is though, they are still up, as we understand Ferris will pay 75c. for all he can get, and it matters not to us what the cause, we hail the raise. Unfortunately, we have none to sell at present; if we had, they would be buying at 40c. But our advice to any one holding Crow Wing county orders is to take 75c. for them as soon as they can get it, and not hold them, expecting them to raise any higher. Cases county orders have also been lively this week, as this is tax-paying time. The following are the present quotations:
 Crow Wing County, - 70c. to 75c.
 Cass County, - 50c. to 55c.
 Aitkin County, - 75c. to 80c.
 Wadena County, - 70c. to 75c.
 City of Brainerd, - 50c. to 55c.

THE CITY COUNCIL.
Some Talk About Sunday Ordinance, but No Action Taken.
RESIGNATION OF THE MAYOR.
THE MCKAY SUIT, ETC.
 Another meeting of the Council was held on Saturday evening last, and as predicted by us Ald. Martin called for a reading of the minutes of last meeting, as he understood they contained him for leaving the council-room, and if he wanted them corrected; he had obtained permission of the chair to leave. Pres't Pegg thought the censure a compliment to Martin. Ald. Martin thought it had no business on the minutes. Ald. McNannay wanted peace. The council then reverted to the Sunday Ordinance. Pres't Pegg had labored hard to get the Sunday Ordinance passed; there was nothing wrong in the Ordinance, and he never would entertain the motion to repeal it while he occupied the chair, if he never entered the council again. Ald. Martin thought the motion was a trap concocted by the Aldermen of first and second wards to spring on them, and he wanted a chance to think and talk about it.

Pres't Pegg said there was several put up things sprung on him last year, and he would not allow any to go through while he was Pres't. The Aldermen from the other two wards would have voted for it if put, and the Ordinance repealed, and he would not stand it.

Ald. McNannay thought the Ordinance good enough as it was. Would he voted against the motion if put; but it should have been put. It was no put affair with him, he did not know of it until read in the council; he was at Pine river the day before. There appeared to be an antipathy against a whiskey seller on the part of the third ward, and (slinging his hat into the corner) if they were on the antipathy he was right with them, he did not care a - for the two of them.

Pres't Pegg had no antipathy in the matter; thought six days in a week enough for any one to earn a living. Ald. Martin entertained a good feeling towards the members, but wanted the minutes corrected as regarded him. The Mayor had resigned, he thought they all ought to resign, and let the people say, by a new council, how they wanted the Sunday Ordinance. Pres't Pegg concurred with Ald. Martin, and wanted it stated, through the Tribune, why they resigned.

Ald. Currier would have voted against the motion; he, knew nothing about it until he came there, but thought if the President did not want to put the motion he should vacate the chair, not hold it and refuse to execute its functions. He did not want minutes changed in absence of Ald. Dresse, who made the motion to have Ald. Martin censured. Ald. Martin would resign if not corrected. It was finally allowed to rest until next meeting.

The Baptist College.
 Rev. J. E. Wood, of Detroit, one of the committee appointed to choose a location for the Minnesota Baptist College, came here on Tuesday last to make definite arrangements regarding its location in Brainerd. The propositions of the Puget Sound Company to give four blocks, and of the citizens to donate to the institution, have all been made in a general way and binding on nobody, and it is Mr. Wood's object to have these propositions made in such a way that they can be relied upon and official; then, if these propositions are equal to those received from other points, he proposes to locate the college here, as this place holds his preference over any other in the State; hence it behooves us to come up with as liberal offers as we can afford and secure its location here, for its advantages to the city will be great.

Personal.
 We forgot to mention last week that T. M. Trudel, one of Brainerd's pioneers, has sold out and removed to Wausau, Wisconsin.
 Ben. Hazen bade Brainerd good-bye, on Monday last, behind his ponies.
 Ex-Mayor Russell went to Duluth to sniff the cold breeze off the lake and see how it would seem to live there, this week, and is now laid up with neuralgia, and his face all out of shape, with a swelling on the left cheek and his left eye bugged up in consequence. Give it up, Russell, give it up.

The press of the State, with but few exceptions, is working up a tidal wave for Louis E. Fisher, Esq., of St. Paul, for Governor. We are free to say, however, that as yet the wave has not struck us. Mr. Fisher is the man to-day, but may not be on election-day, and he may be our next Governor, but we disclaim the idea that this hurrah of the press will elect him, or even choose the man. We do not believe in jumping at conclusions in so momentous a matter so hastily. Many of our contemporaries have done, induced mainly by the clamor of others. We of course knew but little of Mr. Fisher personally, and may yet support his election (who certainly shall, if no better man, in our estimation, is brought out); but we do not yet know who will be out for the office, and there is plenty of time yet to elect a good man.

Ladies' Patriotic Sewing Society.
 The ladies of this society are holding a fair at the Merchants Hotel, on Saturday evening next. The proceeds of the fair will be used for the purchase of sewing machines for the poor. The fair will be held from 7 to 10 o'clock.

THE MAYORALTY.
 His Honor, M. C. Russell, is no longer our mayor, he has gone and resigned, all for Duluth, that little side-track town down on Lake Superior somewhere, and our citizens are on the ragged edge once more.
 Who will succeed Bro. Russell? That's the interrog. puzzling the brain of some of us just now. We have been asked several times if we were a candidate. To this we make answer, that so long as the office does not go with the Tribune, we do not want it. We, in other words, are most emphatically a "No-such-a-thing," and these are some of our reasons:
 1st. The people don't want us, for if we were mayor we should enforce the ordinances too much for some and not enough for others, and keep the City Council meeting every night to read petitions for the repeal of the ordinances, and then the President would not put the motion, and we would still be obliged to continue to "enforce."
 2nd. We could not hold it long any way, for we expect soon to be obliged to leave the city, as somebody's uncle told somebody's brother, not long ago, that he heard somebody's cousin say his grandmother had a great grandson, on her mother's side, who was going to refuse to patronize us, and run us out of the city. (N. B. - We have lived here four years.)
 3rd. We have all that we want to attend to in keeping the little office straight we have and running the "Great Family Journal."
 4th. And this we think the most important of all. We prefer the privilege to criticize the acts of the city authorities from time to time as we deem proper, and as we could not do consistently if we were the chief executive, and we think the people entitled to such a critic.
 5th. We are in need of all the friends we have, if not more, and cannot afford to lose any in this way. For we verily believe that no man living can hold the office one term, or even part of a term, without incurring the enmity of some one, "more or less, chiefly more."

A Magnificent Offer.
 A very liberal contract, which we have just completed with the Weed Sewing Machine Company, will enable us, we hope, to place their celebrated machines in many families throughout the country. So use an opportunity to secure a first-class sewing machine at a low price. May we not expect the friends of the paper to make an earnest, united effort to extend greatly its circulation, and thus help to increase its influence. We will liberally reward those who work for it. Reader, can you not form a club in your neighborhood and secure this sewing machine premium. A FEW HOURS OF WELL-DIRECTED EFFORT WILL OBTAIN IT. Postmasters in the smaller towns and villages can, with a little thought and effort, easily send us the requisite number of names. Has the paragon sewing machine? If not, call upon a few ladies and gentlemen of the congregation. Tell them your plan and ask them to help. In the congregation 40 names can with little difficulty be secured. Send us the $30, and we will forward for one year this paper to each of the 40 subscribers, which will pay them the full value of their subscription, and in addition we will make a present, to any person who may designate, of a beautiful forty dollar Sewing Machine. How easily a club can be formed in the Masonic or Odd Fellows or Temperance Society or in the Grange! Is there not depending upon your society some poor widow to whom a sewing machine would be for years to come a blessing? Pass the subscription paper. Forty persons subscribing for this journal at $2.00 each, will secure for themselves, without any extra charge, the paper for one year and a most valuable present for some needy family. THE NORTHERN PACIFIC. - The travel and freight business on the Northern Pacific this season is immense. The passenger trains are crowded both ways, and the increased freights are scarcely able to keep their docks clear. As high as four hundred passengers have gone through here in one day. If the same continues thus for the season, it will tend to help them out of their financial difficulties.

 St. Paul has had a full-fledged "Civil Rights" suit. The defendants were the proprietors of the Sherman House.  H. G. COVERDALE is around taking the census of our burgh, and making the annual assessment at the same time, killing two birds with one stone. An easier way still, Kirk, is to adopt the Chicago and St. Louis system, count 540 inhabitants to every Smith in town, and you have 'em - that is, after you have counted the Smiths.
 The next term of our District Court will have four serious cases before it, and remarkable ones, all the defendants being classed as children. They are - Hattie Russell, aged 15, for the killing of the late John Pugsley; Julius Lang, a German boy of 16, for shooting with intent to kill another younger boy; Erickson, a girl of 10, for theft, and young Drew, aged 12, for arson. - Duluth Herald.
