D. 1874, in proceedings for enforcement of taxes upon real estate in the county of Cass remaining delinquent on the first day of June, 1874, and of the Statute in such case made and provided, I shall, on the 24th day of June, at 10 o'clock in the forenoon, at the Court-house in West Brainerd, in the county of Cass, sell the lands which are charged with taxes in said judgment, and on which such taxes shall not have been previously paid.

Notice to Subscribers.

We wish to call the attention of our subscribers to the fact that we have this week inaugurated a system by which every subscriber will be promptly notified when his subscription to the Tribune expires.

We believe our action in this matter will be duly appreciated by our subscribers, and that none will complain for being thus suddenly, perhaps, notified that they are in arrears, and that their paper will be discontinued unless promptly paid up.

Having thus established a firm business basis, we hope to meet the hearty support and co-operation of all our customers, and will agree upon our part to pull our coat and roll our sleeves, and take in "fighting it out on that line if it wades all summer and winter too."

JOE WHEELLOCK is still displeased with the "course of political events" that rendered the Pioneer-Press a necessity, and calls it "a paltry subterfuge." Hear! hear!

West's car-load of Fire Works for his grand exhibition at St. Cloud, on the evening of July 3rd, have been purchased and will arrive in St. Cloud on Tuesday next.

GOVERNOR C. K. DAVIS has written a letter to the Chairman of the Republican State Central Committee refusing most emphatically to be a candidate at the coming election for Governor, and still the P.-P. Dispatch is not happy.

For all kinds of Gent's Furnishing Goods, go to MARSHALL & CAMPBELL'S.

It is quite laughable as well as ridiculous to observe those excitable journals throughout the State who only echo the ideas of their head center in the saintly city, and only "sneeze when St. Paul takes snuff," and have of late so blindly joined in the cry of "Fisher!" "Fisher for Governor!" "Fisher for anything!" "Fisher for every thing!" "Fisher against the world!" "Fisher for breakfast, Fish for dinner, Fish for supper—Fish first, last and all the time, trying to get out of it and say they never said it, or if they did say it they were only joking. It comes with a very poor grace, but is much more commendable than still continuing to bark after they are aware there is nothing to bark at and they have been foiled.

A Store-room, in a good business location on Laurel street, to let, apply to J. L. STARCHER.

We would like to know whether Bro. Hartley, of the Brainerd Tribune, pretends to be a Democrat, a Liberal Republican, a Granger, or an Anti-Monopolist. Come, let us know how you stand politically, young man! There's no use straddling the fence—Little Falls Courier.

In the party sense of the term we are neither. We are, as we have already stated, "Independent" in politics, and that is more than the Courier dare be. What hurts the Courier most, however, is, we are not for Fisher, and the St. Paul political liavians (!) have leaped the waters about the Courier to such an extent that that light draught was carried so far inland by the great "Fisher wave" that the ebb has left it in a small fish (er) pond where it is deluding its own ears with the faint and sickly cry of "Hurrah for Fisher!" and is wondering why nobody else sees through the same glasses.

Remember, the holder of a chance in West's Grand Hotel Enterprise will be admitted free to all his entertainments on the 3rd of July, and to the grand dinner on that day, and members of the family of a ticket holder are admitted at half-price.

Disolution of Co-Partnership.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the firm of PAINE & MABRY, butchers, was this day dissolved by mutual consent. The business will hereafter be conducted by J. E. MABRY, who will pay all outstanding liabilities, and collect all accounts due the late firm.

Newspaper Changes.

The first number of the Fargo Times, a consolidation of the Glyndon Gazette, Fargo Mirror, and Fargo Express has been received, and we congratulate the city of Fargo upon the change, and Bro. Chambers upon the very respectable appearance of his new journal, and bespeak for it the success it must receive if the people of that vicinity know how to appreciate a first class paper.

In presenting the Fargo Times to the public we have but a word of explanation to make. There were altogether too many newspapers in the square inch in this immediate vicinity, and we came to the conclusion that a consolidation would please the public, and perhaps afford one man a comfortable living. The Times will be run independently of any party, clique, ring, or single individual in the Territory, county, or town, and will reflect the sentiments of Yours truly, E. B. CHAMBERS.

A. J. CLARK, of the Detroit Record, has sold his paper and gone into the practice of law. N. H. Knapp, of the Perham News, is the purchaser, and will continue the publication of the Record.

The Minneapolis Mirror last week palmed off Brick Pomeroy's "Science of Kissing" as original, and this is not the first time the Mirror has robbed Brick's "Nonense." It won't do, Ed. If you don't stop it we'll expose you.

The Elk River News says we were wrong in our statement some time since that "the name of that paper was changed through a blunder at the foundry in making a new head," and refers us to the files of his paper for proof. We are inclined to think we were not wrong, but have not the files to refer to; however, if we were, it was our mistake and your treat, Bro. Carson.

"This town of Wadena, on the Northern Pacific Railroad, must certainly be extending unusual inducements for settlers locating in their midst, as several more prairie schooners passed through our town last week, en route for those quarters.—McLeod Co. Inquirer.

The marriage of Mr. C. T. Holzer, of Minneapolis, formerly Superintendent of the Northern Pacific at this place, to Miss Olyphant, took place at the residence of Mrs. J. B. Gillies, of East Minneapolis. The Mail says it is safe to say Mr. Holzer has an Olyphant on his hand, and he probably knows what to do with it.

Mrs. JENNIE DEE, on Fifth street, has the largest assortment of Millinery and Fancy Goods ever before exhibited in this city, and the ladies of Brainerd have no excuse now for not having fine hats and fixings. Miss Dee is a lady of excellent taste, and cannot fail to fix her customers out in the most becomingly pleasing style.

He KNOWS a TUNO on Two.—One of the little mayors came running in to his mother soon after the last Tribune came out saying, "Mother, am I a man? To which the mother replied, "Git out, ye young spalpeen, there's no one ather being mare but me ain sel and yer old father, don't yer know anything ather, ather." The young urchin, bringing his thumb in close proximity to his nose and looking out remarked, "I don't care a what you say about it; the paper says I'm a little mare, and it knows more'n ye do about it, could hose."

We learn that Dr. H. G. Hennault, who went from here some time since to Fargo, D. T., has mysteriously disappeared. It is stated that while in an advanced stage of intoxication he visited, and insisted upon making an examination of, a lady patient he had been attending. She ordered him to leave the house, and upon the arrival of her husband acquainted with the circumstances. The husband became infuriated, hunted up the doctor, and "put a head on him." He has not been seen since. City.

At the meeting of the City Council on Monday night, the mayor was asked what action be intended to take in regard to the Dog Ordinance—if he intended to enforce it. He thought not, he would not bother the dogs. Whereupon a motion was made and seconded to "impach the mayor for refusing to enforce the ordinances of the city." This frightened Mr. Mayor pretty badly, and he was very agile in declaring his intention to enforce the ordinance and everything else they asked him to to the letter. He afterwards stated that he "thought he had lost his office sure."

GROCERIES and LIQUORS at greatly REDUCED PRICES at STARCHER'S.

We went to Duluth Wednesday to attend the Convention of N. P. Editorial lights, the official proceedings of which will appear in our next. We made a tour of inspection through the new quarters of Bros. Russell & Pressnell, finding them busy as nailers, and put our hand upon the latch to enter the sanctum of Bro. Mitchell, but suddenly recollected we wanted to go down town, and didn't. The Tribune had gone to tea.

After the convention adjourned County Auditor Frank Burke, and a number of other gentlemen of the "Zenith" united to make it pleasant for the editors; a lunch was prepared, which our appreciative and appreciated, and a good time was enjoyed.

We saw very little, however, of Duluth, owing to a dense fog that enveloped the city during our stay, which from the temperature of the atmosphere we were not surprised to see.

We were shaking with the cold all night, and returned the next morning fearing we should be attacked, as Russell was, with neuralgia.

The horses number about 4,000 head, and they have 300 head of mules. The said [?] has been riding on Texas for the past five years and the authorities have always failed to induce them to come on the reservation. They have been anxiously looked for almost every year by the Fourth U. S. Cavalry, in the Staked Plains, under command of Gen. McKenzie, but seldom were they or any portion of them found. Texas will be a province of some enemy. But one small band of Apaches are now reported to be remaining in the example of their Quahada friends, which would leave the southern Staked Plains free from hostile Indians.

The Young Duluth Herald. (From the Duluth Herald.) On Tuesday last week Miss Hattie Russell, who about 9 o'clock on Thursday evening, March 24th, 1875, was killed in the John Pugsley, whom she alleged seduced her, was placed in the criminal dock to meet the charge brought, the indictment on which she was to be tried being that of murder in the first degree. She pleaded not guilty. A jury was obtained on Wednesday morning after some delay, and the examination of witnesses begun, the prosecution being conducted by counsel for the State, Mr. S. Stewart, assisted by J. D. Ensign, Esq., and Judge E. F. Parker. The shooting and subsequent death of Pugsley was circumstantial and substantially proved. Messrs. H. N. Setzer and D. G. Cash acted as counsel for the defendant, Mr. C. making quite an eloquent opening speech, and the evidence against the shooting, set up the plea of emotional insanity superinduced by a hereditary taint and the fact of her ruin by the deceased, producing witnesses to prove that one of the uncles of the prisoner was at present in a lunatic asylum in Ohio, and that, some years ago, on the death of an elder sister, she was placed in a similar condition for several days. They also adduced testimony to show that Mr. Pugsley had, on one occasion at least, admitted the seduction. On rebuttal, however, the prosecution brought witnesses to testify that Mr. Pugsley was not in Moorhead at the time of his alleged admission of the offense, and in fact that he was never in that town at all. The other testimony in the case was of little importance.

The summing up began on Monday, by J. D. Ensign, Esq., who gave an elaborate and clear review of the case, severely criticizing some of the testimony adduced by the defense, particularly that portion relating to deceased's confession, and also commenting somewhat invidiously on the evidence given by the prisoner, who, since the trial began, has had the countenance of a large number of the most respectable ladies of the city, who were in daily attendance during the entire proceedings. After Mr. E.'s argument, the court adjourned, Mr. Setzer making the closing speech on Tuesday morning. Mr. S.'s remarks were delivered with great clearness and critical ability, elicited the most profound attention from the very large crowd in attendance. His earnestness showed he felt the greatest possible interest in the cause in which he was engaged, and the cleverness with which he illustrated the various points on which he relied for the acquittal of his client, added to his fame as an attorney. At the conclusion of his argument, Judge Stearns, in a feeling and candid manner, charged the jury, in doing which he called attention to the great importance of freeing their minds from all prejudice and giving the subject their most serious deliberation. Judge E. defined what was meant by insanity, and was considered as emotional insanity, and gave the law on that plea of defence, remarking that if the jury believed the defendant had, through deliberate malice, slain Mr. Pugsley, then she was guilty of a horrible murder, and deserved to be convicted and punished; but, he added that if on the contrary, they believed the dreadful deed was committed by the prisoner, when her mind was disordered and wrought up to wildness by her alleged ruin by the deceased, or even under the delusion that he had ruined her, then she was not guilty under the law. The charge was lengthy, and called forth an amount of quiet comment, pro and con, but, taken as a whole, we think it gave full satisfaction to a large majority of those present, who considered it not only learned but just. The jury retired at about a quarter to 12, and returned their verdict of "Not Guilty" at about four o'clock, as follows:

The extreme youth of the young mother, who is but 15 years of age, and quite pretty, called forth the largest possible amount of sympathy, a sympathy quite natural and not at all exaggerated by any ill feeling or disrespect for the memory of the unfortunate victim of her terrible aim, for he was a person of excellent heart, much liked, full of genuine charity, business probity and good-heartedness.

Hattie was not in court at the time the verdict was announced, having been taken to the jail by Deputy Sheriff Meining shortly after the jury retired. On being informed of their decision by Mr. M. she is reported as having fainted in the arms of his wife, who has treated her most humanely and kindly since her imprisonment. Mr. Setzer, who worked so earnestly and charitably to save her, went up to the prisoner as soon as the verdict was known, and found his client in an almost insensible condition, in the arms of Mrs. Meining, the news of her acquittal having reached her through Mr. M.'s call moments previous to Mr. M.'s arrival.

At the opening of the court on Wednesday morning, the prisoner was brought into court and discharged.

Judge E. F. Parker's courtesy in allowing Judge Stearns to make a few remarks on the case, making a thorough examination of past troubles, with a view of reporting to the State authorities. It is reported an excellent has been made of all made liable to military duty between Guadalajara and the Rio Grande, in the southern country.

A Brownville special says General Burio, recently at Matamor's on his way to this frontier, of which he is to have command. His forces include two regiments of cavalry, and his orders are to check the riding upon Texas.

Gen. Cortina positively refuses to obey the order requiring him to report in person at the city of Mexico. He says he has resigned and is now a citizen. His friends are circulating a note to the government to let Cortina remain in authority on the Rio Grande.

The appearance of Texas State troops on the Rio Grande produced great excitement among the people on the Mexican side. Residences on ranches above Matamor's have organized to resist invasion. They have sentinels at crossings of rivers and roads. The cattle herds are much alarmed and some prominent citizens have gone to Matamor's City for protection.

The Lieut. Governor of Quebec has issued a proclamation dissolving the present House of Assembly. Nominations for the new election will take place the 30th inst., and the polling eight days later.

A children's meeting in connection with the revival movement was held in London in Bow Hall, the services were conducted by the Rev. E. Cole. Some 1,000 children were present. The meeting is said to have been the most picturesque and the singing is described as wonderful. Similar small meetings were held in Victoria Theatre and other places.

The Young Duluth Herald. (From the Duluth Herald.) On Tuesday last week Miss Hattie Russell, who about 9 o'clock on Thursday evening, March 24th, 1875, was killed in the John Pugsley, whom she alleged seduced her, was placed in the criminal dock to meet the charge brought, the indictment on which she was to be tried being that of murder in the first degree. She pleaded not guilty. A jury was obtained on Wednesday morning after some delay, and the examination of witnesses begun, the prosecution being conducted by counsel for the State, Mr. S. Stewart, assisted by J. D. Ensign, Esq., and Judge E. F. Parker. The shooting and subsequent death of Pugsley was circumstantial and substantially proved. Messrs. H. N. Setzer and D. G. Cash acted as counsel for the defendant, Mr. C. making quite an eloquent opening speech, and the evidence against the shooting, set up the plea of emotional insanity superinduced by a hereditary taint and the fact of her ruin by the deceased, producing witnesses to prove that one of the uncles of the prisoner was at present in a lunatic asylum in Ohio, and that, some years ago, on the death of an elder sister, she was placed in a similar condition for several days. They also adduced testimony to show that Mr. Pugsley had, on one occasion at least, admitted the seduction. On rebuttal, however, the prosecution brought witnesses to testify that Mr. Pugsley was not in Moorhead at the time of his alleged admission of the offense, and in fact that he was never in that town at all. The other testimony in the case was of little importance.

POETRY.

THE FISHERMAN'S SUMMONS.

The sea is calling, calling,
Wife, I have a job to give you...

How it keeps calling, calling,
It never a night to fail...

Yet it is calling, calling,
It is hard on a soul to say...

Will it never stop calling, calling?
Can't you sing a song by the hearth?

Still warm with the warmth of earth,
You hear it calling, calling!

But, then, in its calling, calling,
No summons to soul is sent...

Now—well, let the parson, if you look,
It is up on the shelf there in the book...

LETTER FROM AUSTRALIA.

Liverpool, May 7th, 1875.

My last letter was written from Australia and as I promised, will give you a continuation of my story of that beautiful and interesting land...

It was summer time when we came round and it was nearly all day—the sun used to set at ten o'clock and rise again at two...

It was winter in the cold and the dark,
and the birds were thick on the bitter blast,
and the angry waves roar and hiss,
and the black rocks mark the bay...

It was spring in the warm and the bright, and I strained through the haze my falling sight,
and the cottage creaks and rocks, well light,
as the old "foam" did in the days gone by...

It was autumn in the golden and the red,
and the leaves were falling all about,
and the birds were singing in the trees,
and the sun was shining in the sky...

BRAINERD TRIBUNE.

W. W. HARTLEY, - - - Publisher.
Official Paper of the Counties of CROW WING, CAIS, WADENA AND AIRIN.

WADENA AFFAIRS.

Mr. Matby returned this week from the south part of the State, where he has been stopping since last winter. He informs your "blooming plant" that he is about completing arrangements to build a grist mill on Bluff Creek, about five miles west from this place, and near the Leaf River, crossing of the N. P. R. R. This is something very much needed in our vicinity, and hope Mr. Matby will succeed in this worthy enterprise.

For an emigrant wagon arrived this week from the hoppel grassed regions of Iowa. They all have a goodly amount of teams and other stock, and come prepared to stay. They seem to think they have come to just about the right place now, and are just up and at it, building their houses and putting in some "small crops."

We sort of got a little mixed in our item last week—it's a boy, and not a girl as reported. Well, George, excuse us this time, and the next we'll try and guess a little more understandingly.

Enos Barabau, who has been totting Uncle Sam's mail bags from here to Oskia, via Parker's Prairie, for the past year, leaves us this week to resume labors on the route from Fergus Falls to Fomme de Terre. Mr. B. is one of the "faithfuls," and with a very quiet, accommodating and industrious man, and we regret that he could not stop with us a little longer.

Mr. Brown, from the house of Strong, Haggat & Gaph, St. Paul, was in town on Saturday last. He opened out his little carpet bag and persuaded Charlie Peake to order a few sharp edge tools and a dozen of his celebrated "thunder and lightning" chisels. Mr. B. being somewhat anxious to attend church, returned on the evening train to the City of Pines to spend the Sabbath.

We have received the No. 1 copy of the Fargo Times, E. B. Chambers, publisher, which we think is just about a No. 1. Sorry E. B. had to cross the line, but, anyhow, success to you, my boy. Set 'em up.

Mr. C. J. Stuart and lady arrived home on Thursday's train from their bridal trip. Welcome home. Charlie looks—yes, he looks—well, fact is, 'ain't seen him yet, but we will run the risk to say he looks hunky.

H. C. Manning, from Perham, just stopped a moment to tell us he was well, took a chair, and told us when we wanted any roast beef and sich to send up our postal.

Please inform your mayor that your "blooming front yard" will be in your city on the 15th.

Killed at 11 o'clock.
Mankato Review.
On Wednesday last, the 2d inst., while Mr. Charles Banker, of Janesville, was engaged in a game of base ball, he was instantly killed. He was pitching at the ball with such force, sending it back and striking Mr. Banker in the pit of the stomach, killing him almost instantly. Medical aid was on the ground but availed nothing. Mr. Banker had been married only a few weeks, and his wife's grief is uncontrollable.

SUDDEN DEATH.—One R. U. Farrell, of Bismarck, attending the present session of the U. S. District Court at Fargo, while playing billiards Saturday night, fell to the floor apparently in a fainting fit. He was immediately cared for, but remained the whole night in a comatose condition, and died Sunday morning at 5 o'clock. A coroner's inquest was held on Sunday and a post mortem examination made, which resulted in a verdict of death from congestion of the brain. He was the principal witness for Gage in the government suits now pending in the District Court here. The deceased is not known to have any friends in the Territory.

A Brass Band will be in attendance at West's Circus on July 3rd, and furnish the best quality of music.
PETER DUCHENE, who attempted the murder of Wm. Armstrong, in the town of Cottage Grove, Washington county, in March, was arrested at Hastings last week after a long search and the result of strategy. A decoy letter did the business.
If you want to enjoy a "good time" just take a lay off and go to St. Cloud and see the sights on July 3rd.
Letters addressed simply to the number of the box, or to initials, and without the name of the party for whom intended, are not to be delivered, but sent to the dead letter office, in accordance with section 60, regulations of 1868. United States Postal Laws.
The above information is new to us, and may be to some of our readers, as well as useful.
All the prizes in West's Hotel Gift Enterprise, excepting the Real Estate, are on exhibition in the store room formerly occupied by B. M. Russell, St. Cloud. They make a grand display.
STRANGE, BUT TRUE.
It is natural for people suffering with Consumption, Cough, Severe Colds, or any other disease of the Throat and Lungs, to put off from day to day buying an article that they know has cured their neighbor, friend, or relative, yet they have no faith in it until it is too late. If you will go to your Druggist, S. V. R. Sherwood, and get a bottle of Boecker's GERMAN SYRUP, your immediate cure is as certain as you live. It has lately been introduced in this country from Germany, and Druggists and people everywhere are elated over its success. You can get a sample bottle for 10 cents and try K. Regular size bottle 75 cents.
DIED.

A NEW IDEA.
70 Cents.
sent to the NEW YORK & ORIENTAL TEA COMPANY will insure by return mail, one pound of excellent Oolong, Young Hyson, English Breakfast, Japan or Mixed Tea such as is usually retailed at $1.30 to $1.50 per pound.
IT IS A FACT NOT GENERALLY KNOWN that by a recent arrangement of the Post Office small quantities of merchandise are now conveyed at charges considerably less than those of the express companies. The cost on one pound of Tea being 8 cts. only.
The New York and Oriental Tea Company is taking advantage of THIS EXTRAORDINARY FACILITY and is supplying its customers in all parts of the United States with the finest Teas ever imported at Wholesale Prices.

REASON WHY you should order your Teas from the New York and Oriental Tea Company. 1st. Because the Company deals only in PURE UNDETERMINED TEA. It is well known the immense quantities of so-called "Tea," adulterated with the leaves of Willow, Hawthorn, and other trees, and even small stones, particles of lead and steel filings, besides coloring matter, are sent over the country and sold at enormous prices as "Tea!"
The buyers of the New York and Oriental Tea Company can, by a NEW PROCESS, not generally known, detect the presence of adulteration in all its forms; and the Company will continue to maintain the high character it has hitherto sustained, by selling none but

GENUINE TEA.
2d. Because our command of capital enables us to IMPORT LARGELY FOR CASH, and thus to sell cheap. We buy all our Teas at the Ports of China and Japan, and thus save many intermediate profits and charges.
3d. Because we have inaugurated a NEW SYSTEM of BUSINESS, originated a NEW IDEA.
We save the profits of the middlemen and give them to our Customers, by sending direct to any address, the finest qualities of Tea at Wholesale Prices.
4th. Because as the GREAT NEED OF THE TIMES
IS PURE TEA AT A LOW PRICE; and as we are determined to SUPPLY THIS NEED, it is to your interest to help us by sending on your orders at once.
See our Price List.
