NORTHERN PACIFIC BONDS FOR SALE.
L. P. WHITE.

The directors of the Northern Pacific railroad are to meet in New York on the 15th inst.

Forty acres of hard-wood timber and meadow land near the city for sale cheap at this office.

The Ladies' Mite Society social will meet on next Thursday evening at the residence of Mr. C. H. Alsop. Don't forget it.

Wm. Schwartz has just received a full stock of Ladies', Misses' and Children's Shoes; Men's Boot-Pants, and an assortment of Rubbers and Arctic Over-Shoes, for sale cheap.

REV. C. C. SALTER, of Duluth, will deliver an illustrated lecture upon "Jerusalem," at 7 p. m., Monday evening next the 13th inst., in this city. He will preach to-morrow (Sunday), morning and evening, at the Congregational church.

Great preparations are being made in the various churches for Christmas. Several car loads of evergreens have arrived for trimming, and no pains will be spared to make a fine appearance on that day.

Among the bills of interest to Minnesota and the west introduced into the national senate yesterday, was one to extend the time for the completion of the Northern Pacific railroad. It allows the company ten years additional time in which to build and equip the road.

BRO. RUSSELL wishes it distinctly understood that he is done hunting deer. He has hunted every season nearly half the time, and has not as yet injured the health or happiness of any deer, and says now if any deer want anything of him they can come to his office.

FOR BOTTOM PRICES on all Goods, go to H. A. CAMPBELL'S.

The stone in the Hinckley quarry has proved utterly worthless and has been abandoned, and it has been decided to build the abutments of the bridge here with stone as far as stone stone is here will build it, and complete them with wood.

FRANK M. CAMPBELL, of this city, has perfected his patent on his car brake and coupling invention, referred to by the Tribune several months ago, and is now ready to put it to practical use. We cannot see why it should not be adopted by every railroad in the country.

SATISFIED.—Many housewives who have been using Baking Powder for years, have become satisfied that D. B. DeLand & Co.'s Best Chemical Saleratus is better for all purposes, and therefore cannot be induced to use Baking Powder or any other brand of Saleratus. Indeed, it has gained the name of "Housewife's Favorite," so general is its use.

A GENTLEMAN from Minneapolis traveling for a prominent house in that city, and a prominent lumberman on the Northern Pacific, indulged in a "quiet little game of draw" one day this week while en route between Fargo and Brainerd, in which a thousand dollars, a saw mill, a warehouse, or a mill pond of logs were quite ordinary stakes. These disciples of Prof. Schenck can discount the founder of poker for they have "Grown wiser than their teachers are, And better know the game."

For a nice assortment of Ladies' and Gent's Furnishing Goods, go to H. A. CAMPBELL'S.

An alarm of fire was given Monday night about one o'clock, caused by the chimney in the Shades Billiard Hall burning out. The buildings adjacent were covered with snow or a fire would have been the inevitable result, the destructive nature of which would have been indelible. Brainerd has had a great many narrow escapes from total destruction by fire, but the time is approaching, it seems to us, just as surely as any thing can be, when her three business blocks will be laid in ashes unless more effective measures are adopted for their protection. The extreme cold weather and the many temporarily built cold buildings require hot fires, and the many defective chimneys and flues render an accident almost a certainty, besides, we have suffered from the work of the incendiary before, and owing to the hard times are liable to again suffer one night, and take at a high wind total destruction would be certain. Cities far better protected against fire than our City of Limes have only lasted a few hours, and we may be the next victim. Wake up, property owners, before it is too late and protect yourselves against certain calamity.

THE MESSAGE.
We give elsewhere this week the full text of President Grant's Seventh Annual Message, as delivered on Tuesday last to the 44th Congress.
It is very voluminous, but well worthy a careful perusal, as it shows a careful study and complete knowledge of our wants in the way of legislation with very few exceptions, and if the recommendations it contains are faithfully complied with by our representatives, the first session of the 44th congress will adjourn leaving a better record than any of its predecessors can show. Yet, while it is quite free from such aims, for Grant, and quite up to the requirements of this 60 miles an hour people in its recommendations, it conveys the unmistakable, though somewhat covert, evidence of his principal objective, a third term.
His remark, "As this will be the last annual message which I shall have the honor of transmitting to congress, before my successor is chosen," bears the same quality of his patent adjustable letter on third termism to President White of the Pennsylvania Republican Convention, "Of hitting it if it's a deer, but missing if it's a calf."
As stated above, his recommendations, with few exceptions, are good ones, those advising non-sectarian schools and compulsory education are excellent, but we would go further and exclude illiteracy from the jury box, and in fact from all manner of public service. Likewise, that declaring church and state separate and distinct, and submitting church property to taxation is a reformation much needed. The government is already mixed up too much with the church, but in this too we would be more thorough and abolish the present Indian Christian commission policy, which is in its effect a perfect farce. So long as the Indians remain under the present policy of the government, and in fact until they are given in charge of the military, where they belong, we will have trouble and dissatisfaction among them, engendered by the unstable course of their management and the dishonest distribution of their appropriations. But, generally speaking, his theories deserve and should command the closest attention of our lawmakers. Whether they will or not remains to be seen.
I HAVE a full line of extra heavy Buckskin Moccasins. Near the bridge.
J. H. HALLET.

Gov. Pillsbury will appoint Pennock Pusey his private secretary.
MICHAEL D. KERR is the "Mr. Speaker" of the House of Representatives in congress.
SENATOR MORTON has again introduced his bill providing for the election of president and vice-president by direct vote of the people. It ought to pass.
THE worst that is likely to happen Warden Dunham for letting Boss Tweed escape is a fine of $1,000 and one year's imprisonment. It is safe to assume that even at that it was a profitable job for Dunham.
CONTRARY to the expectations of many and the hopes of more, Bill King rides safely into congress and takes his seat unmolested, and the Minnesota legislature is still at liberty to look after the escutcheon.
ONE has at last been found to accept the appointment of Commissioner of Indian Affairs vice Rev. E. P. Smith resigned. Ex-congressman John A. Smith is the man, so that it will be "Commissioner Smith" after all.
THE latest theory regarding the escape of Boss Tweed is that he was conveyed to the bark Lord Clarendon, recently purchased by and under the command of a nephew of Tweed's, and that the Boss is now far out at sea bound for some place probably in South America, where extradition acts will not reach him.
GEO. BAROOK, president Grant's private secretary, has been indicted by the grand jury of St. Louis, and a warrant for his arrest has been sent to Chicago. Grant's special family investigating committee will thus be robbed of its little job, and "Bab." will get what he has coveted (I), a thorough investigation. "Let no guilty man escape."
You will save at least Ten per cent. by buying at H. A. CAMPBELL'S.
Dyspepsia.
Americans are particularly subject to this disease and its effects; such as Sore Stomach, Sick Headache, Habitual Constipation, Heart-burn, water-brash, coming up of the food, coated tongue, disagreeable burps in the mouth, Palpitation of the Heart, and all diseases of the Stomach and Liver. Two doses of Barker's Astringent Flowin will relieve you at once, and there positively is not a case in the United States that will not cure. If you doubt this go to your Druggist, S. V. R. Sherwood, and get a sample bottle of 10 cent 3 and try it. Regular size 75 cents.

A Warning to Hunters.
Dr. Rosser is in receipt of the following communication from a friend of his in St. Paul, a member of the sporting club in that city, that may be of interest to parties in this city:
"Dear Doctor:—We are after the game-dealers here. Have leveled on M. Ryder's lots, and propose to serve all of them the same way. After Dec. 10th we go for venison. Please let it be known in Brainerd, that if they send venison or game here it will be taken by the sheriff, and that, as senders violate the law as well as the receivers, the shippers from Brainerd and other points will have to stand the loss.
Put the law in force yourselves along the road."
The Manitoba Free Press appears in a new dress throughout. The Free Press is one of our most valuable exchanges, and we are pleased to see this evidence of its prosperity.
BRO. ANDERSON, of the Hutchinson Enterprise, has been seriously annoyed with tramps of late, and has turned the management of this paper over to Frank Daggett of the Litchfield Ledger, who never allows anything to annoy him.
JOHN H. AYLEN sticks up his red rag in the Princeton Appeal for us to shoot at. It is not to be wondered at he feels a little sore about the head, but there is not game enough to the amount of wind in his target for our guns.
L. ED. DAVIDSON, of the Detroit Record, is to wed Miss Carrie J. Morse, of this city, this evening, at the residence of the bride's father. L. Ed. walks on air today and who blames him.—[Minneapolis and Pioneer-Press.

The Becker county Banner and the Audubon Journal have, in the language of the late noted Jim Fisk, "gone where the woodbine twineth," and the Record now has a clear swing, a new editor, and will begin life anew. It should succeed, it has been unsuccessful long enough.
THE Detroit Record comes to us this week with a new editor at the wheel, a fellow what writes his middle name like the editor of the Little Falls Courier, and it is consequently to be presumed he parts his hair in the middle. The name of the new editor for the St. Paul and faded Record is L. Ed. Davidson.
HON. G. W. BENEDET, the founder and for seven years the editor of the Sank Rapids Sentinel, has leased his establishment to Mr. Wm. L. Nieman, a former partner, who will hereafter be the editor and proprietor, and it is presumed Wood of the Little Falls Courier and Carson of the Elk River News will have a rest. The Sentinel will be independent in politics.
THE Minneapolis Tribune with creditable enthusiasm outstrips its leader with the cry of "let no guilty man escape," and applies to "Bab." Grant's "pard," for whom the president, thinking the matter is coming a little too close to him, has appointed a little family investigating committee a la Plymouth Church, and proposes to let at least "one guilty man escape." The organ should be careful not to exceed orders, it may get its foot in it.
A GENTLEMAN now in the city, who was present at the burning of the baggage car at Brainerd, says there was no mail burnt, or anything else of any importance, the baggage and mail matter having, for some cause or other, been removed from the car before the fire occurred. All that we know about the matter is this: that no Ontario newspapers of the 19th inst. have arrived here yet, although subsequent dates have.—[Manitoba Free Press.

BRIDGEMAN, lumbermen and others who want a superior quality of Buckskin Moccasins, will do well to call at
Near the bridge. HALLET'S.
L. M. STEWART, of Minneapolis, having surfeited himself with libel suits against the city papers, is now preparing a list of the country papers with a view evidently to entering suit against them. Our postmaster is in the receipt of a list of inquiries from him wishing to know if there are any papers published in Brainerd. If any, the name of such paper, and if so where published, name of paper and publisher. This certainly looks ominous, and we are shaking in our boots until we learn the worst. Our worthy P. M. informed him there was no other paper in this upper country than the Brainerd Tribune, two dollars a year strictly in advance.
It must be pleasant to go to these hotels in Chicago, where, it is said, the proprietors have now so frequently swindled that they now require travelers to pay in advance. One traveler, who did not immediately appreciate the necessity of the fashion, was interrogated by the clerk:
"You will not object to paying before you go to your room, Sir?"
"Certainly not. Make out the bill."
"For how long, Sir?"
"Well," says the stranger, "you may charge me for about ten minutes on the European plan. By the end of that time, I think, I shall be at a hotel where the clerks wear smaller diamonds and have more confidence in human nature."
DR. F. A. THOMPSON, Surgeon-Dentist, will be at the town of Brainerd Dec. 13th, 1875, and will take rooms at the Headquarters Hotel, and will be ready to perform all work in his line in a careful and practical manner. Will remain only one week.

PERSONALS.
FRANK D. KERR, of St. Paul, an ex-journalist from the Pacific slope, gave us a pleasant call the other evening.
W. PORTER, of Potter & Knox, of Aitkin, enjoyed a good night's rest at the Leland House on Monday night.
CHARLEY WILSON, of Lamont & Wilson, of this city, had a very pleasant but brief visit this week from his father, Adam Wilson, of Freeport, Illinois.
B. F. HARTLEY returned from Leech Lake Tuesday, and will depart next Monday for Minneapolis. He is making preparations for business in Brainerd.
T. F. McAVOY, formerly of this city, reports from Oakland, California. He appears to have separated himself far from his friends.
HARRY BRINTNELL, one of the most gentlemanly conductors on the Northern Pacific, has severed his connection with the road, and is going into trade at some point west.
WM. WADE, Esq., of Leech Lake, Minn., who claims he has been in this country something over four hundred years, here or less, gave us a call this week and subscribed for the Tribune.
CAPT. H. D. PETERSON has gone to St. Paul on jury duty and to attend his suit against the Red River Transportation Company there pending. A. A. White will attend to his lumber yard here in his absence.
MAJ. JAS. WHITEHEAD, ex-U. S. Indian agent, returned from Leech Lake this week, where he has been turning over the matters in his charge to his successor, and is spending a few days in Brainerd recuperating.
MISS MATTIE P. SQUIRE has returned from St. Paul with the largest stock and greatest variety ever exhibited in this city, of notions, ladies' goods, etc., such pocket books, work boxes and baskets, stands, ornaments, writing material, keepsakes, picture frames, and a thousand other things too numerous to mention, suitable for Christmas and New Year presents. Her-stock exhibits admirable taste in her selections.
R. A. WALKER, until Dec. 1st, agent of the Northern Pacific at Fargo, passed east this week in quest of a warmer climate, where a fellow won't freeze his ears walking a quarter of a mile of a Sunday evening to see his sweetheart, or "have the skin rubbed off his nose with snow by mischievous boys upon the pretext that it is bitten." Friend Walker was made the recipient of a nice little present at the hands of the Fargo boys, in the shape of a fine gold watch chain, before his departure.
We learn, through the kindness of B. F. Mackall, Jr., Secretary of the Moorhead Literary Society, that the dramatic side of that society and the Duluth Amateur Dramatic Association propose meeting at Brainerd during the holidays, to each give a dramatic entertainment, the exact date of which has not yet been decided upon, but will be duly announced. We presume the object of the two clubs is to meet and measure swords, and we bespeak for them a good audience, and for our citizens a couple of rich entertainments. Come along boys, we shall be glad to see you.

RECEIPTS FOR THE "BRAINERD TRIBUNE" TO DEC. 9th.
Subscribers will please see that these receipts are correct. The whole number to which they pay follows the amount paid.
E. R. French, $2.00, 202; J. B. Power, $2.00, 158; C. F. Kindred, $2.00, 254; A. A. White, $2.00, 343; Geo. Bryant, $1.00, 220; William Wade, $2.00, 252; C. B. Jordan, $2.00, 173; Mrs. A. Siebrecht, $2.00, 250.
It must be pleasant to go to these hotels in Chicago, where, it is said, the proprietors have now so frequently swindled that they now require travelers to pay in advance. One traveler, who did not immediately appreciate the necessity of the fashion, was interrogated by the clerk:
"You will not object to paying before you go to your room, Sir?"
"Certainly not. Make out the bill."
"For how long, Sir?"
"Well," says the stranger, "you may charge me for about ten minutes on the European plan. By the end of that time, I think, I shall be at a hotel where the clerks wear smaller diamonds and have more confidence in human nature."
DR. F. A. THOMPSON, Surgeon-Dentist, will be at the town of Brainerd Dec. 13th, 1875, and will take rooms at the Headquarters Hotel, and will be ready to perform all work in his line in a careful and practical manner. Will remain only one week.
