THE DUTIES OF A LOCAL EDITOR. Very few have any conception of the duties of a local editor.

The Superior (Wich) Gazette has "taken a rest" for a while. It claims to have fulfilled its mission.

The Southern Hotel of St. Louis was burned on the 11th inst. The loss of life was reported very great.

His Excellency Gov. Pillsbury has appointed Thursday the 26th day of April to be a day of fasting and prayer.

The Bismarck Tribune comes to us this week enlarged to a six-column sheet, and will appear semi-weekly hereafter.

The Bank Rapids Sentinel informs that in consequence of the fact that the yield of Maple sap will not be as large this year as usual, not as much sugar will be made.

Not in consequence of the criticism of Bro. Hartley, of the Brainerd Tribune, but from a sense of the fitness of things, and with the understanding that "the people" intend that our village shall be Bismarck and nothing else, we have put on a new cap.

There is too much "Sheep me God" about Wade Hampton. If he makes a few more speeches in that flamboyant, gasconading style, he will lose the respect of a great many valuable friends.

The Houston County Journal, as a newspaper, is certainly some. In the last issue, aside from its patent "outside," the only reading matter it contains is the following apology:

Mr. N. A. DANE, who has long been connected with the ticket department of the Lake Superior & Mississippi railroad, and who was one of its most popular officers, resigned his position on Friday last.

"Goss," "Iron Whirlwind," "Good South," "Eagle," "The Raven," seven full-blooded, ex-hostile, wild Sioux Indians, with an interpreter, are making the tour of this State, giving exhibitions to crowded houses of the war dance, and many other thrilling habits and customs of the race.

The Hon. O. P. Whitcomb, State Auditor was in the city Monday, looking after the equalization of the Sauk Centre assessment, and favored us with a call.

By the way, that reminds us that the "Hon. O. P. Whitcomb" was the most faithful enemy the newspapers had to contend with while the legislature was in session last winter.

We are in receipt of a communication from Father Tomasin, of White Earth, in reply to "Son-of-Kiah," that would have appeared in this week's issue of the Tribune, but for the following contemptible, narrow threat accompanying it:

Wade Hampton in Full Possession and all Quiet. COLUMBIA, S. C., April 11.—Gov. Hampton is now in possession of the State House. The transfer of papers and other property was made at noon to-day by the respective secretaries.

MARK THESE FACTS. Bro. Foster, of the Duluth Minnesota Herald, will be terribly hot when he learns that Haydock is a fraud, and Holloway's ads. he is publishing are bogus, and then Bro. Parker will get off one of his withering puns on the institution.

THE TRIUMPH OF ART IN RAILROAD TRAVEL. Year by year we note the footsteps of progress in many directions. In the facilities offered the railroad traveler of the present day, looking back but a few years, can see the tolling small advance made day by day by the emigrant's wagon, as it slowly but surely drew toward us, and then came the slow-moving farm horse, then the old-fashioned stage coach, following closely, and then the stage like car, with its engine and more than palatial drawing room and sleeping par.

The Northern Pacific railroad earned $400,000 above expenses during the past year. This surplus will come largely in building the Brainerd Branch.

"MADAME, did you ever lift a dog by the tail?" "Why, no, you cruel thing, you." "I didn't know, because I just saw you carry your little child across a gutter by one arm. A dog's tail is a good deal stronger than the ligaments of a baby's shoulder."

Since the execution of John D. Lee, evidence has come to light that the old scoundrel, Brigham Young, was the power behind the throne that caused that terrible Mountain Meadow massacre.

A GENTLEMAN and his wife were out returning from a walk, when he happened to cast his eyes toward the house and saw some queer shaped articles hanging on the window sill of their sleeping room.

Chapter of Accidents. The editor de facto, the editor de jure, and the editor pro tem were all away from home this week, leaving the TRIBUNE to run itself and edit itself, in a manner of speaking; the little copy left behind by old de facto has been lost; the exchanges are all locked up; his desk and nothing is left to clip from but a last year's almanac, and the devil has shouted himself hoarse for "copy" until, in fact, it is feared his voice has been permanently injured.

Mr. R. Hadwen, of Canada, has brought 34 horses to open a large wheat farm alongside of the Cass and Dalrymple Farms in Cass Co., Dakota, 23 miles west of Fargo.

SONEBODY'S DARLING.

Warmly tucked in little bed,
