

CHASE BY AN ENIGMA.

A Conductor's Story.

By E. J. HURVITZ.

I was riding on a night-train of the Pennsylvania Central from New York to Washington...

"Well, perhaps the most exciting time of my experience was the night which was chased by an enigma..."

"Chased by an enigma," said I, getting interested. "How do you mean?"

"Well," said the conductor, his knees against the back of the seat...

"I was very nervous," said I, "and I was not sleeping..."

"Probably not," said I. "You say you were a little surprised..."

"I was surprised," said I, "and I was not sleeping..."

"I was surprised," said I, "and I was not sleeping..."

"I was surprised," said I, "and I was not sleeping..."

"I was surprised," said I, "and I was not sleeping..."

try to be going on when we were not sleeping...

"But, the best that I might, our conductor had to be..."

"I was surprised," said I, "and I was not sleeping..."

"I was surprised," said I, "and I was not sleeping..."

"I was surprised," said I, "and I was not sleeping..."
