BRAINERD TRIBUNE.

BRAINERD, MINNESOTA, SATURDAY, MARCH 8, 1879. WHOLE NO. 368.

Congress adjourned on Tuesday.

The Dakota legislators adjourned on Friday last week for two years, this session is the 27th.

The Legislature adjourned sine die on yesterday. The next regular session will be in January, 1881.

Legal interest is limited now to 10 per cent, and excessive usury forfeits both principal and interest.

W. E. Winn, dealer in printer's material at Minneapolis, and a member of the A. O. U. W., died last week.

In another column is given the present measure relative to the judicial investigation bill. It is interesting. Read it.

Wisconsin will vote on biennial sessions at her next election. The example of Minnesota is becoming popular just now, but it is quite as unpopular in a few years.

By an act of the legislature just adjourned county commissioners are required to publish their proceedings, and it is a good law. The people should know what is done by the Board.

The articles of incorporation of the Duluth, Iowa and Dakota Railroad Company are published. The proposed route is to run from Little Falls through Sauk Centre, Benson and to the south west corner of the state.

"Poisoning Jeff Davis" is how our foreman read the caption of the article in this week, and it is quite as ought to be right. He will not find fault to differ with him outside the Democratic lines.

Congress having adjourned without passing the army, legislative, executive and judicial appropriation bills, the president has issued a proclamation calling an extra session to assemble on Tuesday the 18th inst., and the Northern Pacific extension bill may receive extra attention as a "measure the welfare of the people demand."

And now are the days of sugar-making come, when the nectarous droplets are gathered from the sugar cane and the golden juice.

Great as is the importance of the sugar when it is used for food, it is also a great stimulant for the system.

When the sugar is used for medicinal purposes, it is a great tonic for the system, and it is also a great stimulant for the system.

It is a great tonic for the system, and it is also a great stimulant for the system. It is a great tonic for the system, and it is also a great stimulant for the system.

The attempt on Saturday last in Congress to suspend the extension bill failed on a vote of 124 for and 110 against—29 votes majority. It is evident, therefore, that the measure had a majority and would have passed without difficulty if it could have been reached. On Monday the measure had a majority and would have passed without difficulty if it could have been reached.

A grand scientific and pleasure excursion to the Great Falls of the Missouri and the headwaters of the Yellowstone and Big Horn rivers, projected by Dr. W. A. Burleigh, of Yankton, to leave Bismarck on or about May 25th. More than 3,000 miles of country will be explored on the trip, which will take about one hundred days and cost four hundred dollars per ticket, which includes steamer passage, a complete outfit of saddle horses, camp provisions, bedding, arms, ammunition, fishing tackle, etc. Among the noted points of interest to be visited are the Great Falls of the Missouri, the Wall country and Petrified Garden, the Great Judith Basin, the Custer battle field, the great falls and Canyon of the Yellowstone and the National Park. J. H. Hall, of the Fargo Republic, will accompany the party as special correspondent. Harpers and a number of eastern writers are the Brainerd Tribune.

We are just in receipt of a friend in the Province of New Brunswick, containing the sad intelligence of the brutal murder of James A. Brown, a cousin of the editor of this paper, by a man named Nickerson. Brown was the heaviest lumber operator on the St. John's river in the woods, Nickerson being in his employ in one of the crews. He had some time back been in the woods and turned his back to the woods when the ruffian caught up to him and to a catch chain and struck him, knocking him down, and to all appearances dead. He revived somewhat, however, and was carried home, where he only lay a few days. Nickerson is in jail in Houlton, Me., where he will be tried, the murder being committed last fall. Brown is a brother of Hon. C. F. Brown, provincial secretary of the Province of New Brunswick, and a wife and family of children robbed of a kind husband, father and protector by a ruthless villain.

The following are among the bills passed by both branches of the legislature:

Intro, prior to adjournment, of interest on the 27th inst.

To reimburse Crow Wing county for the trial of J. A. Wilson, $1,000.

To establish a school district in Cass county.

Amending the law attaching Cass county to the county of Crow Wing. (The amendment increases the compensation to Crow Wing from $200 to $250 per annum per acre.)

Amending the law relating to the collection of taxes in unorganized counties. (This law gives Crow Wing county twice the per acre on the taxable property of those counties.)

Appropriating certain expenses in Crow Wing county. (The law relates to the expenses of the assessor and assessor's clerks.)

Recognizing certain organizations in Crow Wing county as legal organizations (that the provisions of this law are as we are unable to state at this writing.)

To abate delinquent taxes in Cass county (referring to taxes in West Lake county.)

Relating to compensation of probate judges. (This bill was intended to give probate judges in unorganized counties having others attached, upon the aggregate population of their jurisdiction, the same as in organized counties, only of the counties which they reside, as now.)

SPIRITUALISM.

We are not much given as a rule to the mysterious, having little faith in the claims of spiritualism in general, and have always been extremely incredulous and even skeptical in our opinions of the same. The return of departed spirits to earth in particular, is a fact we have never believed in, and we have never been able to see any evidence of its occurrence to which we can only recur with puzzled brain, unable to comprehend the nature of the phenomena.

It is a fact we have never believed in, and we have never been able to see any evidence of its occurrence to which we can only recur with puzzled brain, unable to comprehend the nature of the phenomena.

For the baby's life,
And the mother's love,
That's the best of all.

ESCAPED.

A TALK OF THE REVOLUTION.
New York, was originally settled by colonists from Holland, and although the Dutch possession of the territory, the Dutch rejected it and held it until the year 1614, when it was sold to the English.
Among the early emigrants from Holland was a family by the name of Kovenhoven, who took up land in the town of Monmouth county, near the present village of Danbrouck.
The first of this family to arrive on the ocean shore, probably within the present limits of New Jersey, was the Continental Army, under Gen. Washington.

TO THE FATHER'S MARRIAGE.

On inquiring the way to Shrewsbury, the man declared that he was a member of the party a mile or two beyond the point to which he was going. The man did not object under the circumstances, and was the least willing to go as a walking stick. He met a man named Hendrickson, the man's name was the same as the man's name, and he was going to the same place as the man was going to.
