BRAINERD TRIBUNE.

BRAINERD, MINNESOTA, SATURDAY, MAY 17, 1879.
VOL. VIII.—NO. 14.
WHOLE NO. 378.

The cooper of Minneapolis are on a bender, in other words striking for higher wages, and the result is that the factories have imported journeymen from other cities and are going along as though nothing had occurred.

The Spring meeting for running and treating will be held on the 29th and 30th. We acknowledge the receipt of a complimentary ticket, bearing the significant motto: 'Come and bring your wife; if you have no wife get one.'—[St. Paul Dispatch.]

The Princeton Union tells of a young gent and lady of the neighboring town of Wyanett—Mr. Henry Howard and Miss Howard—who were married on Sunday evening in pursuit of a trust bond and accidentally, of course, having the wrong square, where the twin were soon made 'one flesh' to the surprise of their friends and neighbors.

Evergreen Cemetery Association. Pursuant to the call in the Tribune a large and enthusiastic meeting of the citizens convened on Tuesday evening last at Capt. Siegel's residence for the purpose of organizing a cemetery association, and after some preliminary inquiries and examination...

Robbie at his old tricks again. The Little City Tribune carries a column editorial on 'The 180 Refunding certificate' from the Transcript, and fails to mention that in this case...

DO NOT WHIP. A parent who doesn't know how to govern a child without whipping it, ought to consider the care of that child to some wise person. Spartanism once thought it was necessary to lash their dogs in order to whip them.

LIBERAL TERMS. Which is what the Popular American Express Offers the Public. The great carrying agency, the American Express company, has always kept pace with the public in the transaction of business.

On last Saturday afternoon, little Edie Silberstein, seven years, son of B. Silberstein, Esq., and who like most boys is full of mischief, was on a chair and climbed up on the top of a bureau and then reached for a key hanging on a nail higher up on the wall and with it unlocked a bureau drawer, took out a book, and with it a key.

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

The 11th session given to the Democrats last week by senators Edmunds, Blaine and Chandler, the work of displacing them would appear to be pretty well accomplished. Yet Senator Windom, of Minnesota, made the tortoise to a hare, in a masterly speech, exposing the dilatory and hypocrisy of the Democrats.

Sydney Henneberry, a German farmer residing near Beaulieu Station, on the Brainerd Branch railroad, has got into some trouble. He covets an acre with the railroad company, and so he piled up a lot of old trees and rails to prevent the railroad from passing.

A six year old daughter of R.L. Young, Todd county, strayed away from her mother's house on the 29th of April. A general search was instituted, joined by about one hundred men, and on the third day she was found. She passed three days and three nights in the woods alone, yet when found she was not above twenty-five miles from her exposure.

A man over in Benton county last summer bought a very good house on lot, for which he paid $1000. The house was a very good one, but a fire short time since and was destroyed. The man who owned it, through R. A. W. Hartley, secretary of the association, was next named the Evergreen Cemetery Association, and the number of trustees fixed at nine.

It was then determined that the trustees be elected hereafter and vacancies filled by lot owners only, and that the annual meeting of lot owners for the election of trustees and other business be held hereafter on the first Tuesday in May in each year.
