BRAINED TRIBUNE

ORABLE & PRAISE FROM LOUISIANA, ARIZONA, CALIF., ILLINOIS, MINNESOTA

BRAINED, MINNESOTA

This oldest real estate dealer in New York predicts that there is coming "the greatest speculative rise in real estate we have ever seen."

This venustic ex-consulate at Val Vera, nearly eighty years of age, defines Senator Mahone in language which, according to the code, demands a dot, but it is not likely that Mahone will fight the old fellow.

The revival of the dueling code in Virginia during the present political contest shows that "the mother of presidents," as that state is sometimes called, is fast becoming home of her sister states in one attitude of high civilization.

The boom of business is attended by an almost inevitable concomitant—a matrimonial boom. It is said, upon what authority we know not, that there are marriages being consummated in 1883, not in four years preceding.

"If the men of Arizona could firmly stand by us they need not be fears of the ultimate result," is the remarkable conviction of the demagogic magnate, Earl's arrest, from "the secretary of the land league." The men of Arizona are three thousand miles away from the scene of danger.

It is now stated that the trouble with Senator Hill of Georgia is a cancer in his mouth from which he is not likely to recover. He is, it is said, the most frequent and best speaker in the senate and it will be hard for him to remain hereafter with the other fraternal members of the floor.

Very great anxiety has long been felt for the steamer Jeannette, and hopes were entertained that the revenue cutter Corwin, just returned from the shores of Whang Hai Land, would come true.

KENTUCKY and Tennessee propose to join hands and pursue in sustaining an active emigration bureau in New York. They point to the property of the state and intend to hold out inducements to immigrants from Norway, Sweden, Denmark and Germany, to settle in that section.

Southern papers are making themselves very indignant and unhappy over the "city editor" of eastern newspapers writes on the 20th of October that the government they allege begins with the present administration.

THE prices in New York of all kinds of provisions are increasing at such an extent that laboring classes and the poor are in a bad straits. Beef, veal, and mutton have advanced from 30 to 35 per cent.

The ocean steamship, Republic, of the White Star line, reports a terrific tempest at sea on the 20th of October. Two lives were saved and a cabin crew of 150, and another more favorable season can rectify the evils of the present.

CURRENT NEWS

One of the most disastrous explosions ever known in the history of the city of St. Louis, took place on the night of the 10th inst.

A Madison, Wis. dispatch says: "Great damage has been done to grain in the confinement of the wheat and oat crop in the neighborhood of Madison, Wis."

It is reported that a special committee will be appointed to prepare a bill to be introduced in the next session of the legislature.

A Dublin correspondent says that in order to give effect to the laws relating to the emigration of the Irish, the government have decided to issue a proclamation.

THE LOST BALLOON. Prof. King's Atmospheric Calendars in the Swamp 55 Miles North of Chippewa Falls, Wis.

Paul Boyton has arrived at Tuxton on his way down the Missouri from the Yellowstone. A large number of people are thought to be preparing to spend the winter at Los Angeles, Cal.

THE YOUNG MEN OF FRIDAY last, and everybody went home disgusted. The children taking up the ball and the affair that followed was the talk of the day.

THE fire which broke out at the National Hospital has been put out. The fire was caused by a gas lamp and the fire was extinguished by the fire department.

THE following appeal from the executive committee of the National Hospital for the Deaf and Dumb is published in the Daily Tribune.

WASHINGTON SPECIAL to the Christian Gazette. A way in which President Arthur shows patriotism is the continuous speed with which he is clearing up the national debt.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

- For Governor, LEUCIUS P. HUBBARD. For Lieutenant Governor, CHARLES A. GILMAN. For Treasurer, CHARLES KITPITSON. For Auditor, W. W. BRADEN. For Secretary of State, FRED. VON BAUMBACH. For Attorney General, W. J. HARRN.

- For Clerk of Supreme Court, S. H. NICHOLS. For Recorder of Deeds, JAMES L. BAKER. For Judges of the Supreme Court, C. K. FANDERBURGH, W. M. MITCHELL, D. A. DICKINSON. For Judge of 10th Judicial District, O. P. STRAINS.

COUNTY TICKET.

- For Sheriff, PETER MERTZ. For Register of Deeds, M. McFADDEN. For Judge of Probate, H. D. POLLEY. For County Surveyor, J. J. KENNEDY. For County Superintendent of Schools, R. A. BEARD. For Coroner, J. C. ROSSER. For County Commissioner 8d District, J. C. ROSSER.

The next Governor, Hubbard.

CHARLES GILMAN is going to get on the top yet.

JENCKE POLKES, of New York, is the secretary of the treasury.

The Legislature seems to have a good many bills before them.

REPRESENTATIVE BUCKMAN looks well after the interest of his constituents.

FRANCIS A. WALKER has resigned his position as head of the Census Bureau.

EMERY A. STROOS, of Chicago, has accepted the appointment of attorney general for a short term.

FOSTER'S majority over Bookwalter for governor of Ohio was 24,897; over all opposition candidates, 1,442.

GURRAN says that it was the doctors who killed the President, and not he. "Hang them and not me" is his cry.

A list of President Garfield, with extracts from the speeches and writings, will be published in due time under the supervision of Mrs. Garfield.

The democrats of Iowa are taking encouragement from the fact that the republican majority did not read one hundred and fifty thousand. It is encouraging.

The president does not use the words "Executive Mansion" in his official letter-heads, he has substituted the words "Office of the President of the United States."

MAHONEY is not going to fight. He has already proven his personal courage so clearly that he has not obliged to read a challenge to Jubal Early or accept one from him. He is to shrewd and cool-headed to risk his victory in Virginia and his position holding the balance of power in the senate by exposing himself to the chances of a duel.

The Philadelphia Times (Ind. Dem.) says the Democratic United States Senators sharply over the knuckles for the greediness in organizing the senate. It says they "had the chance to maintain their just power in the senate by conceding the chair to Senator Anthony, and the country would have applauded the concession as wise and patriotic. By that concession they would have secured the secretary and sergeant-at-arms and equal control of the committees; but they killed the goose by their impatience, and the golden eggs are gone. Davis gave the Republicans the committees before they elected him to the chair; and he will now give them most of whatever else they want. In a word, Democratism is fully transformed from a party to a Republican body, and themselves from an equal power to a minority."

Important additions have been made to the library and the department of Natural Science. A book-keeping library further students at $1 per term, with all books needed for same use. Through training in teaching, from both in theory and practice, under the direction of first-class and experienced teachers. Accommodations are provided for ladies and gentlemen, with both pleasant and secure. Private boarding at reasonable rates, about $1 per week. Travel and Propagatory departments will be open for pupils of all grades. Pupils with special facilities, $10 to $15. U. S. KIRKLE, Principal.

All parties having any claim against G. G. Hartley, Hartley & Dewar or G. G. Hartley & Co. will address or present them to me at Brainerd. G. G. HARTLEY.

On Thursday night there came next being a fire in the bank block, but owing to the prompt discovery of the fire by the night watch Mr. Evans, it was soon extinguished.

Dr. Rosen handed us a copy of the American Journal of Medical Sciences, a few days ago containing the Autopsy Report of Genl. Garfield. The analysis given is very interesting.

The variety man Borden left town this week, but we think if Sheriff Mertz had been able to look after him he would have now been in durance vile as he was wanted back by parties in town.

A certain business man left the town under peculiar circumstances this week, and if the facts were known might create something of a sensation, as the notes would reflect on the persons character, we forbear giving names.

I am now prepared to repair jewelry of all kinds on short notice. Good work or no charge. Remember, I have worked at this business before, and can guarantee satisfaction. Bring on your broken jewelry and try me.

The Little Falls Transcript is very creditably informed will soon change hands. Success to the young men, and we hope they will make a first class Republic paper, as Morrison county needs something of the kind to redeem it from the Democracy.

Report of the Public Schools for October. Average number of scholars in each school. Principal's Room, 11 28 98 18.

Schools rarely more than once for each two weeks attendance. First school room—Wille Wright, 6; Alpha Brockway, 2; Esie Parker, 2.

On account of sickness, but more from fear of contagion, the schools have been greatly reduced in numbers during the past month. Mr. Babcock has very successfully conducted the grammar department for the past two weeks.

Thinkers will read and heed this. When more experienced and practical physicians widely employed and recommended a medicine, knowing from the ingredients used it must have an excellent general effect on the human system.

The undersigned can furnish from twelve to fifteen good teams of horses and mules with drivers for work during the winter in the woods. Address giving terms and particulars.

Mr. Chase Smith, bookkeeper for Linneman & Coop, returned from Michigan where he has been for the last ten days, and where he was married to Miss Mary Johnson. They will be married by Mr. Beard this winter, and the Tribune extends their best wishes to the happy couple.

Sherriff Mertz will not be able to do much towards the census, owing to his absence, but we think there will be no opposition, as none have been mentioned so far.

A POST-NUPITAL ODE. We need to walk together in the twilight. The whispering lark sings an evening song...

Under the dark shadow of man's shadow. I have seen all of those who have been called to the great beyond...

There are 40,000 barrels of whisky in the world. The whisky business is a vast one, and it is one of the most profitable...

TRUE LOVE. There is a love that is true. It is a love that is not based on passion, but on a deep understanding of each other...

There are 40,000 barrels of whisky in the world. The whisky business is a vast one, and it is one of the most profitable...

There is a love that is true. It is a love that is not based on passion, but on a deep understanding of each other...

KITT'S FAMILIARITY. Kitty? Yes, that is me. They have laughed at me a good deal about what they call my adventure...

Yes, I answered, with resolute determination and averted face. "But you can not go, Kitty," he said, quietly...

He describes things seen last summer. Twenty years after the last summer. Recalling to Richmond on the 1st of May, the party was joined near Quantico...

THE FRENCH GIRL. The most salient difference between the social customs of France and America are to be found in the degree of intercourse permitted...

There is a love that is true. It is a love that is not based on passion, but on a deep understanding of each other...

Oh, yes, I cried out eagerly, for had not I been in the same way? I would do for mother and little Polly and her boys...

But you must let me tell my mother my news. I am sure she will be glad to hear of it. I will object at first, and—

A TALE OF REAL LIFE

"You will not forget me, Helen?" They stood beneath the flowering vines...

Four years with their lights and shadows and weat. It was the light of the season at Samtoga. Beauty, wealth and fashion reigned supreme.

"What an advocate he was," said her father maliciously. "Play Helen's part before the exercise to himself so nobly before this Arthur Leland."

"Accepting with grateful courtesy a proffered seat at her side, he remarked quite naturally to her."

"There is rest, my Helen," said he, "but there is no rest for me. I have a duty to perform, a duty which I cannot shirk."

"He drew her to him—the leashed her head upon his shoulder, and two hours, long beyond the twilight, they sat together."

"Things in general. Money is so scarce among planters at Vicksburg, Miss. that they are in many instances, and the streets are crowded with beggars."

The flag of the famous rebel steamer Alabama was exhibited at the Institute Fair in Boston. It was surrounded by a throng of people."

Baltimore Gazette: "For some time past the no dependence of the lecturer has been upon the class of people who think it wrong to be called a preacher."

"Who is that lovely girl?" The speaker was Helen Forester, at a fashionable party, eighteen years after the scenes recorded in the foregoing pages.

"I will never forget you," she said. "I know that you love me, and I have faith in your love, and to-day we part for years."

"Mrs. Forester," said Florence, innocently, "you scarcely seem as if you sang more delightfully, and that I hoped your surroundings had been more cheerful."

"The words were spoken by a girl, thoughtless and unfeeling, who had come to covet the girl's father, young Arthur Leland, who had been for a long time the victim of consumption."

"Two years ago," bright June evening, Helen Forester entered the village churchyard. The scene's principles of duty were not to be broken."

"Excuse me, Mrs. Forester," thought I was told that his lonely burial ground, and did not mean to intrude upon you."

"I have a duty to perform, a duty which I cannot shirk," he said. "I have a duty to perform, a duty which I cannot shirk."
